When the fighters who are coming home every day now were first getting into action several months ago, we received a big stock of fine, all-wool clothes,

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

and we bought them at prices that were surprisingly low, considering conditions. The fine part of it all is this: We have these clothes ready now as a welcome to the home-coming fighters. And it's a royal welcome, as far as clothes go, because the prices are extremely low for such quality, and the styles are the latest and best. The men at home who want good, stylish, all-wool clothes are in on this, too. They've been fighters behind the line, and they're entitled to these special Victory Prices, too.

IT'S AN OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL OF YOU TO SAVE MONEY

At the Theaters

The newest vehicle of George M. Cohan, the eminent actor-manager, dramatic author and composer, in which he will be seen at the Star Theatre tonight is "Hit-the-Trail Holiday," a picturization of his famous play which ran for a season in New York in 1915-1916, and which subsequently was produced all over the country with enormous success.

Have you ever stolen your father's dress suit to make an impression on your best girl? If so, you will appreciate the humor of the situation when you see it on the screen at the Temple theatre where "Seventeen" is the attraction tonight. Jack Pickford and Louise Huff are the co-stars.

HOLD ONTO YOUR SIDES: THE LEES ARE COMING

Just when everybody is looking forward to a fresh visitation from those imitable imps of the screen, Jane and Katherine Lee, the Liberty theater makes welcome announcement of their coming in a brand new play, entitled "Swat the Spy!" All the advance information concerning this new feature agrees in stating that these famous artists and originators of mirth-provoking pranks are more absolutely irresistible than ever. Their "cutting up" is so natural and spontaneous, and so keenly humorous, that it is an open question whether their pictures are not more thoroughly enjoyed by staid elders than by the younger generation. The Lee children may be seen at the Liberty theater tonight only. 11

THE BANJO-SAX JAZZ ORCHESTRA
Formerly of the Houston Opera house dances, wish to announce that they have leased the Moose Hall, and will commence a series of popular dances Saturday evening, and every Tuesday and Saturday thereafter. Jazzy than ever. 29-31

HERE'S QUICK RELIEF FOR YOUR TIRED, STRAINED MUSCLES

When your muscles become tired and swollen and the joints become stiff, your circulation poor, and your suffering makes you irritable, an application of Sloan's Liniment gives you quick relief—kills pain, starts up a good circulation, relieves congestion. It is easier and cleaner to use than musky plasters or ointments, acts quickly and does not clog the pores. It does not stain the skin.

For sprains, strains, bruises, "black and blue" spots, Sloan's Liniment reduces the pain and eases the soreness.

Certainly fine for rheumatism, stiff neck, sciatica, lame back, toothache.

You don't need to rub—it penetrates. Its use is so universal that you'll consider Sloan's Liniment a friend of the whole family. Generous size bottles at druggists everywhere.
