LOCAL CLOTHIER AIDS RED CROSS

It is not often that one has a chance to do a charitable act and get paid for it, but that is just what K. Sugarman is offering to do. When he learned that the drive for old clothes that is being made by the Red Cross was not meeting with the success it should, he decided to lend a hand in the work, and with that end in view he is buying old clothes for $2.50 and $5.00 a suit, when the owner thereof buys a new wardrobe from him. The drive for old clothes closes tomorrow night, and until it closes everyone who buys a new outfit from Mr. Sugarman will, if he leaves his old clothes with him, receive a credit of $5 on the new suit. In the case of boys, they will be allowed a credit of $2.50 where the purchase amounts to $15 or more. In every case, however, it will be necessary to leave the old clothes, and this offer is only good during the Red Cross drive. If you are going to get a new spring suit, now is the time to get it, for you gain two points—save money and help the Red Cross.

DEAREST PUBLIC

That word, friend, is the loveliest word in any language. And, dearest, we again thank you for the timely aid.

With the advent of gentle spring, you are entitled to have the fever for a few days, and just feel as oozy-woozy and lazy-like, and then dash to the pepper tree and get a big stock of pep, and go get the money, and buy jewelry and diamonds and watches and alarm clocks, and just have a hell of a time.

I saw you squintin' around yesterday, and you ort to have wrinkles and bum eyes, and don't you forget it, and when you do get them you got something for life. We have truthful apex, noiseless soup spoons, and flawless diamonds, and matchless boxes, and, Lily, don't forget your Easter lavalliere to go with a few other things you wear.

Say, ain't you going to buy this cuckoo clock?
