

POST GIVES WAY TO PLANE.

ANSONIA, Conn., April 3.—An announcement was made here that Erhard Schmitt, of this city, a former army aviator, will leave soon for Har-to pilot the ranch manager to distant parts of the property in an airplane, which will be equipped with wireless for communication with the ranch headquarters.

As we understand one article in the so-called constitution, the League of Nations will not stand for any base stealing.—Des Moines Register.

At the Theaters

One of the most notable features of "Salome" is the peerless art of Theda Bara in making the notorious Jewish Princess a living, breathing woman. Salome is flesh and blood and beauty, vibrant with the vigor and rebellion of youth. Cruel she is and selfish, but here is the cruelty of a nature untamed.

Guile filled her heart, because in that ruthless day no human being had ever put love there. Caught off her guard, in the privacy of her hours, in the company of her maidens, sometimes even with John, she makes one wonder how a creature so vicious could ever have been so wicked, jealous, sensitive, proud, she is not so different from us all—only more intense.

When her primitive instincts are aroused, she becomes a tiger-woman, and thereby sends those who stand in her way. Truly her blood is fire, yet the incomparable genius of Theda Bara softens her grim ferocity and makes her vividly human. This wonderful portrayal of "Salome" will be seen at the Liberty tonight.

It is obvious that the President approaches the League of Nations with an open mind. So open that any adverse criticism that may steal in is allowed to find its way out without delay.—Boston Transcript.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

DRUGGIST SAYS LADIES ARE USING RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture, improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.
