

YANKS WANT TO LEAVE RUSSIA

ARE WILLING TO STAY UNTIL JUNE FIRST BUT ARE RELUCTANT ABOUT RISKING LIVES ON FIRING LINE

ARCHANGEL, April 10.—In view of the situation which has developed among the American troops, the official circles are impressed with the necessity of promptly relieving the American soldiers now in North Russia.

The soldiers have interpreted the Washington statement that they would be relieved at the earliest possible moment, as meaning not later than June 1st, when navigation will probably be opened, and while they express a willingness to stick it out until then, from loyalty to their officers and to American traditions, they are exceedingly reluctant to go to the front and risk their lives.

PIONEER RESIDENT BACK FOR A VISIT

Judge J. S. Orr, a pioneer resident of Klamath County who was County Judge of Klamath in the early nineties and who set out the big trees in the Court yard in 1891, has returned from Reno Nevada, where he was circuit judge for several terms and where he is now practicing law. He is visiting his many friends here and discussing the early days.

Judge Orr is greatly impressed over the changes that have been brought about since the occasion of his last visit and believes that there is a great future in store for the city and county. The visitor is a brother of Marshall Orr of the Olene district and has property interests here.

EX-KAISER HAS LOST PREVIOUS HAUGHTY MANNER

AMERONGEN, Netherlands. (Correspondence of the Associated Press)

All who come into close connection with the former German Emperor these days are amazed at the change which has come over his behavior in relation to people with whom he is brought into contact. His haughty manner has disappeared. He no longer takes it for granted that he is the supreme lord to whom all must bow. Any service given to him, even by the humblest of gardeners in the employ of Count Dintelck, is rewarded with apparently sincere thanks and sometimes even with a genuine handshake—a thing not looked for by the highest of his courtiers when he was still at the height of his power.

Virtually without exception, he passes three hours every morning between breakfast and lunch at his voluntary task of sawing logs in the grounds of the castle. The last ten minutes of each hour is given up to a spell of rest during which the lumberman, once so imperious, smokes a light cigarette. In the course of this interval—heartily welcomed by his attendant who assists at the other end of the double-handled saw now used—William Hohenzollern starts smoking, for the attendants still retain enough of their subjectivity not to dare to take the lead. Then one of the attendants discreetly draws a cigarette case from his pocket, on seeing which the former Emperor often says, offering his burning cigarette, "Here you are, Take a light."

Soon all about him are smoking and continue doing so until the ten minute interval is over and work begins again. Oft times in these moments rests the former Emperor who, during the work walks about in the Castle grounds when the weather is favorable, comes up to the place where the wood sawing is done and a little general chat ensues, both Herr Hohenzollern and his wife putting questions on all sorts of subjects to those in attendance.

As a rule, the former Emperor is extremely talkative. He dwells greatly on happenings in Germany, both past and present. Often he is in a complaining mood, when he blames all and sundry for what has occurred. It does not seem to enter his mind that any of the fault lies with him. At these times he expresses sorrow for the asperity of his utterances. On other occasions—these are more rare—he closes up like a clam and not a word can be drawn from him. He has everything he can possibly require in the way of creature comforts, but without actually being imprisoned he is confined to a very small area, for he has not dared since before Christmas to put a foot outside of the castle grounds, as he fears contact with the outside world.

There will be a lecture at Moose hall on Sunday, April 13th at 3 p. m., by Rev. W. L. Wilson of the Emmanuel Baptist church, on "Patriotic Workmanship." All are invited. The meeting will be under the auspices of the Millmen and Boxmakers Union, Local No. 1,764. 11-2t

LOW SUMMER RAIL RATES

F. E. Batters, Assistant Passenger Traffic Manager of the Southern Pacific and Western Pacific railroads announced today that the United States Railroad Administration had authorized the publication of low round trip summer tourist fares to western resorts in the Sierras, and Santa Cruz mountains, to Lake Tahoe, Yosemite Valley, Crater Lake, Yellowstone Park, Glacier Park, Grand Canyon, Shasta and Feather River regions and practically all other summer resorts to which it has been customary to sell summer tickets in the past. The sales dates will be May 30 to September 30, inclusive, except fifteen day tickets will be sold on Friday and Saturday. There will be two general classes of fares: for tickets limited to three months from date of sale, carriers under Federal control will make a reduction of twenty percent from double the one way fare; and for the fifteen day tickets sold on Friday and Saturday, the reduction will be one-third. Fifteen day tickets will not be sold to points more distant than four hundred miles. The Quality Market wishes to announce that it is now open for business at 1122 Main street and will fill all orders promptly, and deliver once each day, in the morning. Phone 225. 11-1t

The Woman's Store

ONLY EIGHT DAYS BEFORE EASTER

So next week will be very important days in the Woman's Store, especially in the Suit and Tailored Sections, where they insist on fitting things perfectly before she can wear them. May we suggest early shopping this Easter week. The demand will be so great that those who buy too close to Easter Sunday cannot expect the selection that we have on hand at present.

Her Easter Suit or Wrap

May be bought here for $25.00 or for $60.00 or many of the prices in between; but she'll find it the one of all she likes the best, and she will have it fitted in time, ready and lovely for Easter morning, if she makes her shopping day when assortments are best and service is unhurried and unfrilled. Some beautiful models with vests and with elegant buttons. Semi-fitted Box Coat Suit, beautifully braided—it has the vest.

Dolmans, Capes and Coats

For street wear, afternoon and evening are marshalled in wonderful colorings, materials and models. We are able to show some very excellent things at moderate prices, $20.00 to $60.00.

New Dresses

There are dozens of pretty frocks in Taffeta Silks, in Crepe de Chine, as well as Serges and Poplin. Peg-top Skirts falling narrow at the feet; pannier effects, some embroidered; beaded Georgette dresses. The woman wearing sizes anywhere from 16 to 44. At very attractive prices, $12.50 and up to $35.00.

FOULARDS! FOULARDS!

New shades and subtle color combinations, joyous and appealing. Clever and effective striped and all-over designs, checks, geometrical designs, and dainty Batik patterns of exquisite beauty in the Pussy Willow Foulards. Our showing is without doubt the most beautiful in quality, colorings and diverse assortments. 36-inch widths, $2.50 the yard. The light, medium and dark colors have equal share in the Spring's fashionable demand, and most strikingly effective in its combination with Georgette Crepes plain shades.

SILK GEORGETTE CREPES

In the plain shades. 40-inch widths for dresses, blouses, combination uses, the better negligees and undergarments, priced $2.50 the yard.

Wirthmore & Welworth Waist

The Ladies' Home Journal for March carries the first of a series of advertisements which will tell simply and interestingly the Wirthmore Story, of how it is possible to get out such really excellent waists at prices so very moderate, of the wholesome and healthful conditions under which waists are made, and what the Wirthmore and Welworth labels always stand for.

$1.50 and $2.50.

America's only known price waists, and sold at the same low price the nation over

How to Prevent Future Foot Troubles

The Children Can Romp and Play in Buster Brown Shoes

The feet are the only part of the growing body that is encased in a rigid covering. Shoes, instead of Nature, shape the feet. The shoes must be correctly shaped and fitted, or the feet will suffer.

We are sole agents for Buster Brown shoes, which are scientifically designed to give the correct shape to shoes for every age from 2 to 16—to support and develop the soft, pliable bones and tender muscles of the feet; to prevent broken arches, and other foot ailments that come from incorrectly shaped and ill-fitting shoes.

Buster Brown Shoes at $3.00, $3.50, $4.00 and up, according to style and size—and in various leathers.
