At the Theaters

Virtually an all star cast is to be seen in the big special attraction, "The Midnight Patrol," which is announced by Select Pictures for the Star Theater on tonight. This production, which was produced by Thomas H. Ince, offers the first genuine effort to properly credit the American blue-coat with his splendid work throughout the country. A thrilling story is embodied in the picture as well. Thurston Hall has one of the leading roles. Mr. Hall will be remembered for his excellent work in a number of very recent film successes, while Rosemary Theby, who became a star overnight with Vitagraph, is cast for another important part. Marjorie Bennett, little sister of Enid Bennett, a Paramount star, is also seen in this picture, while others who appear in important parts are Charles French, Harold Holland, William Musgrave, Kino, Yamamoto and Harold Johnstone. Irvin V. Willat directed the picture.

AIRSHIPS OPEN NEW FIELD TO MOVIE CAMERA

LONDON, April 16.—Aircraft development during the last few years has thrown open to the moving-picture man an entirely new field. It may be some years yet before flying comes within the means of the ordinary person as a mode of travel, but thru the film he may experience some of the artistic joys of aviation. Already a certain amount of aerial cinema photography has been carried out successfully—enough, at least, to measure its possibilities. In the near future, it is expected that magnificent mountain scenery will be photographed from aircraft, not only in Switzerland and in the United States, but in Abyssinia, the Himalayas and other less-explored regions of the world.

The whole of a wonderful flight from, say, San Francisco to London, to India or to Australia, may in time, be shown to the public.

CALIFORNIA IS GOOD TO IRISH

RESIDENTS OF EMERALD ISLE GIVEN BIG BOOST IN THEIR FIGHT FOR FREEDOM BY FOLK OF GOLDEN STATE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—Ireland's attempts to interest the United States in her efforts toward self-determination were outlined at a mass meeting here, called by the executive of the Irish freedom fund to close the campaign in the state for a propaganda fund. Speakers were United States Senator James D. Phelan, Archbishop Edward J. Hanna, Congressman John I. Nolan, Mayor Jas. Rolph and others.

San Francisco alone had subscribed over $100,000 for the campaign. But $50,000 was pledged for the entire state.

"America never fought for any reason other than a spiritual ideal," said Archbishop Hanna in a brief address. "Ireland is striving toward a spiritual ideal. In 1776 America fought for the ideal of freedom and the right of representation. Ireland's present aim is just that."

The 14 points proposed by President Wilson as the basis for settlement of the war were used by Senator Phelan in his argument for Irish freedom.
