

CONGRESSMAN
SINNOTT WILL COME TONIGHTReception Is Planned at Elks Temple

EVERYBODY IS INVITED

Congressman Who Has Been Friend of Klamath During Long Term at Washington Is Coming in to Talk
Matters Over—Will Meet His Many Friends at Elks Club.

"Will arrive on evening train", was the good news received this morning from Congressman N. J. Sinnott from Ashland by Klamath Falls friends and in anticipation of his visit, an informal gathering at the Elks Temple is being arranged today.

Mr. Sinnott's visit here at this time comes as a surprise to many, although a visit sometime during his present recess was looked for by some. This is his first appearance here since 1915, when he spent much time here going over the reclamation project and studying other development work.

He had arranged a visit during the Fall of 1917 but his plans were frustrated at the last minute.

Mr. Sinnott has been a firm friend of Klamath County in the past and his higher position as head of the Public Land Committee will give him more chance to help the district in the future. Calls innumerable have been made upon him for aid from local residents and in no instance has he failed to do his utmost for any worthy move.

It is expected that a very large number will be out this evening to meet this eminent statesman whose ability at Washington is becoming generally recognized, and to express appreciation for his efforts in behalf of this county.

JACK PICKFORD

DENIES CHARGES

LOS ANGELES, April 18.—Reports that he had been discharged from the navy in disgrace as a result of the investigation of alleged instances where men had "bought" soft places in the service were vigorously denied in a statement issued here by Jack Pickford, actor.

"I was granted a discharge which shows my standing was of the very highest and which recommended me for further enrollment," Pickford said. "The reason I have not denied recent reports which declared I was dropped from the service was that I had been ordered by the president of the court not to discuss the naval case in which I testified."

Two reports, one recommending his impeachment and the other, a minority report, recommending the censure of the governor, were submitted to the house of representatives today. The reports were made a special order of business for tomorrow morning.

Sinnott is investigating a complaint of Oregon citizens that soldiers and sailors from the West are not given the same assistance in getting discharges that Eastern boys are in either the army or the navy. Naval men are also complaining that overseas men are being detained and men over here discharged though they have been repeatedly promised overseas service.

FLY TRAPS MADE
FOR CITY'S USEMANUAL TRAINING DEPARTMENT IS BUSY MAKING PRISONS FOR THIS PEST. CITY DECLARES
OPEN SEASON

The campaign against the fly in this city is going to be pushed to the utmost, the latest move launched being the construction of two dozen big fly traps by the Manual Training Department of the Klamath County High School. The boys are now at work on these traps which are to be furnished to the city at cost and are to be placed in the rear of the eating houses and other points where flies congregate.

City Health Officer A. A. Soule declared today that a large portion of the flies hatched each season were bred in manure piles and that in order to reduce this danger here, all manure must be kept in bins and these bins carefully screened.

He also announced that a great deal of rubbish had been found dumped along the Shippington Highway and that this practice must be discontinued at once.

AIDING EFFICIENCY OF GRAZING LANDS

Probably only a small minority of the sheepmen in this country know that by using a system of fenced pastures, instead of the present open-range herding, they can increase the size of their herds from five to ten pounds in a single season, make the wool clip from one to three pounds heavier, reduce the acreage now required one-third and decrease the present loss and cost of handling four-fifths, says Robert H. Moulton, in an illustrated article in the May Popular Mechanics Magazine. These figures represent the records of co-operative experiments carried on for a number of years by the U. S. Forest Service and the Bureau of Plant Industry.

To compare the number of sheep that the range in question would support under the two systems, observations were made to ascertain the grazing capacity of approximately 30,000 acres surrounding the experimental area. During the first year the herded flocks used from one and a half or two times as much range per head as the pastured sheep, the second season showing a similar percentage.

The lambs were weighed and marked at the time they were turned loose in the inclosed pasture, and weighed again when taken out at the close of the summer season. The records show that the pastured lambs gained on an average of twenty pounds during the first season of approximately 90 days, while lambs of the same grade handled under herding on the range averaged only 15 pounds' gain during the same period. This difference was increased from 7 to 10 pounds the succeeding seasons. The greatest loss under pasture for the four seasons never reached one per cent, and went as low as one-fifth of one per cent, while the loss from herded flocks varied by varied from one to four per cent.

CHILDREN SHOWING BIG IN-TEREST IN MOVE

Thirty-five School Industrial Clubs have now been successfully organized by County Leader Frank Sexton and this work which was launched so successfully over the county about two years ago will be pushed to the utmost this season.

A new addition to the work this year is that of the city schools which have not hitherto been included. Children all over the county have been brought to take a new interest in the lines of work which these new clubs include. At the county industrial fairs held in the county precincts astonishing results in animal husbandry, the manual training and the domestic arts have been brought about.

The branches of work this year include cooking, sewing, calf raising, sheep raising, pork production; poultry raising, gardening, and potato growing.

Bly is the only district yet to be organized and the condition of the roads has prevented this so far, but it is expected that a club will be published in a few days.

BOYS RETURNED FROM SERV-ICE LAST EVENING

The initial reception to the returned soldier boys, which was held at the Christian church, on Thursday evening, was well attended by the boys, who were mostly in uniform, and by a liberal attendance of citizens who were on hand to meet them. Everything went happily and the literary and musical program, as well as the refreshments were well timed and excellent. It would be unfair not to mention the musical numbers rendered by the High School Glee Club and the solos by the Misses Dorothy Elliott, Verda Cozad and Letha Driscoll, and the recitations by Miss Burk, Wendell Smith and others.

The brief addresses by Pastor Trimble, Supt. Dunbar, O. A. Stearns, Judge Elliott and Capt. O. C. Applegate were appropriate and inspiring, and the reminiscences by the soldier and sailor boys were edifying and instructive. Several of the boys omitted to register, but the following names, with the appended information, were found recorded:

Germans to Receive Peace Terms
Last of Next Week—Enemy May
Ask Questions Regarding Terms,
But No Discussion Will be Allowed—Lettish Government Ended.

Dateless Dispatch by Associated Press—The conflicting claims of the city of Fiume and the Dalmatian Coast, which have been laid before the peace conference by Italy and Jugo-Slavia, will be brought to a decision soon, according to expectations.

The controversy was aroused by public sentiment in Italy, and when parliament meets, on April 27th, Premier Orlando will probably be asked for a report. He is therefore very anxious for a settlement before that time.

The allied peace terms will probably not be laid before the Germans until Saturday of next week, and possibly not before the following Monday. This will delay proceedings, and it is not expected that the terms can go to Weimar, receive instruction and return to Paris before May 8th.

According to present plans the Germans will be permitted to ask questions, but no discussion of the terms will be permitted. Only President Wilson and the premiers will be present.

Libau has been seized by German and Baltic-German troops. The Lettish provisional government has been ousted, according to report, and some of the ministers imprisoned. The British mission is at Libau, and the British warships are in the harbor. There may be some action taken against the Germans.

Libau is an important Russian seaport in the Courland government on the Baltic Coast. It has a population of about 65,000.
