At the Theaters

In the wide range of the screen drama, few more appealing motion pictures have been produced than "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," starring Mary Pickford, which will be shown at the Temple theatre tonight. This is a delightful picturization of Frances Hodgson Burnett's famous story of the slums of London in which "Our Mary" appears as a wall with a religious turn of mind. The story is one of unusual strength and exceptional heart appeal.

Walter Perry, one of filmdom's cleverest character actors, is cast in the role of a New Jersey farmer in "Three X Gordon" the new screen product in which J. Warren Gerrigan will be seen in the name part at the Liberty theater tonight. Mr. Perry will be recalled by local patrons of the pictures as the accomplished artist whose portrayal of the role of "Spuds" Lafferty in "Prisoners of the Pines" was so delightfully entertaining. In "Three X Gordon" Mr. Perry is seen in an altogether different sort of a character and has ample opportunities to prove his versatility.

Marguerite Clark, widely known as "the sweetest girl in motion pictures," long was recognized before she entered the silent drama, as one of the most charming comedienne of the legitimate stage. Since she entered the film world, her progress has been phenomenally successful and her record is one of unbroken successes.

Miss Clark will be seen in her latest Paramount photoplay, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," at the Star theater tonight, and it seems certain that as Lovey Mary in Alice Heggin Rice's remarkable story, she will score another triumph. The character of the girl of Bradford Orphanage who is ever ready to battle for justice and humanity even though she suffer therefor, is one that will be warmly appreciated by her army of admirers.

Miss Clark is finely supported in this admirable picture, her leading man being Gareth Hughes. The part of Mrs. Wiggs is in the capable hands of Mary Carr. Hugh Ford directed the production.

Way back in the early days of the world when sirens were unknown by that word women were wont to be fickle hearted. Their vanity was touched when they found themselves pursued by more than one sweetheart.

How a modern siren dangles men's hearts at the tips of her fingers, flights off her suitors and eventually gets the man of her choice is depicted in the latest Theda Bara super-production, "The She Devil," to be presented at the Liberty Theater for two days beginning Sunday afternoon.

Theda Bara, the well-known screen siren, was never seen to better advantage than in her latest production. She plays the role of a Spanish Juanita, one of those languid, dreamy sylvan-like women of Sunny Spain.

In "By Proxy," Ray Stewart sets out to woo a pretty girl for bashful Aleck, employed on Red's ranch. The Chinese cook, Ah Sing, wins all the cowboys' clothes by playing a wild hand at poker. When "Red" returns with the girl, he finds Ah Sing lamenting the loss of his clothing which he had packed on a horse, only to have his horse run away from him. Taking Ah Sing back to the ranch with him and Lindy, "Red" learns that he has brought Aleck the wrong girl and promptly proposes to her just the same. Supporting Roy Stewart are Maud Wayne, Walter Perry, Wilbur Higbee, John Lince and Harry Yamamoto, the superb Japanese comedian. At the Temple Sunday.

RALPH HURN COMING.

CONDITION OF OREGON ROADS

The following bulletin on the road conditions in Oregon is published by the United States Forest Service. These reports will be published frequently by the Herald during the coming season for the benefit of all travelers and tourists.

Western Oregon Three Rivers, Alsea River, Eugene-Florence and Scottsburg-Alleghany roads, in the vicinity of the Slushlaw national forest, are not yet open for through travel. Little North Fork road and the Santiam wagon road are both closed to travel. Because of bridges being burned out, it is very possible that Little North Fork road will not be open until late in the season.

Crater Lake Highway-Open and in fair condition between Medford and Prospect. Closed on account of snow between Prospect and Park boundary; will probably be open by July 1st. On account of the heavy snowfall it is doubtful if autos will be able to travel through the park before July.

Farlow-Oakgrove-Open and in fair condition between Portland and Twin Bridges. Closed on account of snow between Twin Bridges and Camas Prairie. Will not be open before June 15th. Automobiles should carry their chains on this road. Roseburg-Peel-Open but in bad condition between Roseburg and Peel. Mail is hauled over this road in a light car. Road is badly rutted, and cannot be traveled with a heavy machine easily.

Eastern Oregon Crescent-Fort Klamath-Closed because of snow. No detours possible. This road should be open about May 1st. La Pine-Crescent-Open and in fair condition.

Bend-Fort Rock (via China Hat)-This road is closed at present because of snow. No detours possible. Road will be open about May 1st. Auto travel time between Bend and Fort Rock about 4 1/2 hours.

Bend-Fort Rock (via La Pine)-Road is open but in unsatisfactory condition. Traveling time between Bend and Fort Rock is about five hours.

Bend-Sisters (via Tumalo)-This road is open the year around, and in fair condition. It is 26 miles long, and requires 1 1/2 hours to cover it. Paulina-Burns (via Bear Valley)-Open and in fair condition between Paulina and Suplee. Closed between Suplee and Silvies (will probably be June 1st before machines can get over mountain from head of Beaver Creek to Bear Valley and from Bear Valley to Silvies.) No detour possible.

Prineville-Mitchell-Open and in passable condition for autos between Prineville and Ochoco Ranger station and from Beaver Ranger station to Mitchell. Closed by snow and mud between Ochoco Ranger station and Beaver Ranger station. No detour possible. Should be open by May 1st for light horse rigs and about May 15 for autos.

Paulina-Burns (via Fife Creek)-Open and in passable condition between Paulina and mouth of Grindstone Creek and between Fife and Burns. Closed on account of snow and mud between mouth of Grindstone Creek and Fife. No way round except Prineville-Burns road via Millican. Should be open about May 1st. Prineville-Paulina-Open but in poor condition. A few sections of this road have been dragged this spring. The road is very rough and full of holes.

Sparta-East Eagle-This road is closed entire distance on account of snow. No detour is possible. It will be open for travel about May 20th.

Baker-Cornucopia-Open and in fair condition between Baker and Carson. Closed on account of snow between Carson and Cornucopia. No detours possible. Will probably be open May 20th. A two-mile section of the road between Richland and Halfway, known as the Sag, is in bad condition but passage is possible.

Baker-Prairie City-This road is closed between Baker and Sumpter on account of snow; also between Sumpter and Whitney, Whitney and Austin, and Austin and Prairie City. Should be open May 15th.

tern States. The Western States, largely interested in irrigation, have less than 40 members out of the 435 members of the House. It is for this reason that we are compelled to secure the votes of the Northeastern and Southern States. With this in view, it is the purpose of the Secretary of the Interior to devote 1-3 of any additional appropriation for the lands in the South; 1-3 in the West, and 1-3 in the Northern States aside from the Western States.

It is impossible for one to say whether or not this legislation will be successful. The Western members will make a strenuous effort to secure this legislation for homes for returning soldiers. If this appropriation is secured, I am very hopeful that the Secretary of the Interior will select at least two new projects in the State of Oregon, at least it will be my endeavor to persuade the Secretary and the Reclamation Service that the State of Oregon, due to discrimination practiced against it in the past, is entitled to a large share of the funds that may be allotted to the West.

I am certainly glad to see the interest and energy of the citizens of Klamath County towards securing better railroad communication, and the County is certainly entitled to better railroad communication with the rest of the State, and particularly with Portland, the metropolis of the State. Portland capital should throw off its apathy and use every effort for direct railroad communication with Klamath County.

I believe that 75 per cent of the membership of Congress can reach their homes from Washington quicker than one can go from Portland to Klamath Falls. This intolerable situation should not be permitted to remain. Klamath County needs better railroad communication with the balance of the State, and the balance of the State needs better railroad communication with Klamath County. The advantage of this would certainly be mutual, and I hope before another session expires that we will see work actively progressing towards better railroad facilities. I shall certainly do all in my power both in the State and at Washington to promote the much needed railroad facilities.

You ask me about the sentiment concerning the League of Nations. I find in traveling over the state, that there is a strong sentiment in favor of some plan that may avert the horrors of War, but I find the people very critical and circumspect as to the first proposed plans of the League of Nations. I find a great unanimity for the amendments suggested by Elihu Root and Charles G. Hughes, some of which, if we may accredit the Press, have been adopted at the Peace Conference. Public sentiment seems to be very jealous of any hazarding of the Monroe Doctrine of our rights to control our Domestic affairs,—our immigration laws, for we can never surrender to any nation the right to say who shall be admitted to our shores and citizenship.

I also find a very general desire for a provision permitting our withdrawal from the League of Nations after a definite period, so that we may not be wedded forever to a plan which may hereafter grow to be obnoxious and detrimental to our best interests. The agitation and criticism of the proposed League of Nations has been beneficial, for many of the most serious objections of the League seem about to be removed if the press reports are true.

Before I left Washington, there was much discussion concerning possible presidential candidates on the Republican ticket. Many favorite names are being mentioned, but as yet there has been no crystallization of sentiment on any particular candidate. Were the convention to be held within the next few months it would certainly be a free-for-all, for no dominant candidate has so far appeared.
