EASTER WORSHIP ON CALIFORNIA MOUNTAIN TOP

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 21. As the rising sun's first shafts lit up the mountain tops near here yesterday morning, tens of thousands of reverent worshippers of all creeds knelt in the great outdoors in celebration of the festival of Easter. Hundreds of men, women and children, not only from all sections of this state, but from distant parts of the country, came today to the slopes of Mount Rubidoux, near Riverside from Hollywood and Eagle Rock in the San Fernando Hills, and other points where the simple but impressive annual open air services are held each Easter morning at sunrise.

Many of these worshippers secured accommodations for the night in the various mountain inns and taverns, but hundreds slept out under the stars so as to be ready at the dawn to participate in the service of song and prayer. Ministers led the people in their devotional exercises and preached short sermons to the pilgrims as they listen among the boulder strewn or grassy dells and slopes of the mountain sides.

It was on Mount Rubidoux that the first of these outdoor services was held at sunrise more than a decade ago at the suggestion of Jacob Riis, who has been characterized by the late Theodore Roosevelt as "America's most useful citizen". On April 26, 1907, a great cross was raised on the summit of Rubidoux and dedicated by the late Bishop Conaty to Father Junipero Serra, among the first of the builders of civilization in California.

A tablet commemorating Father Serra's work was unveiled by the then President of the United States, William Howard Taft in 1909 and there, in 1913, Henry Van Dyke, former United States Ambassador to the Netherlands, read his poem "God of the Open Air."

"I wouldn't have believed it if anybody had told me any medicine would cause me to gain eight pounds in ten days, but that is exactly what Tanlac has done for me, soon after I started taking it I began to eat better, sleep like a baby and feel just fine and my steady improvement has simply been wonderful. I have thrown away all my other medicines and will stick to Tanlac, for I think it is the finest medicine on earth."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorella by the James Merc. Co.—Adv.

At the Theaters

Theda Bara in her super-production, "The She Devil," appears at the Liberty Theatre for the last time today. Miss Bara has made a profound impression in her portrayal of a Spanish siren and her dashing ways have won many new admirers.

"The She Devil" is in a lighter vein than anything done before by Miss Bara and is the first melo-dramatic production featuring the star in which light comedy runs throughout.

HINES ARRIVES IN PORTLAND TONIGHT.

'T'WAS A LUCKY DAY SAYS MRS. O'CONNOR

HER IMPROVEMENT, AFTER TAKING TANLAC, WAS SIMPLY WONDERFUL.

"It was certainly a lucky day for me when I got my first bottle of Tanlac," said Mrs. John O'Connor, of 238 East Oldham St., Knoxville, Tenn.

"For five or six years," she continued, "I had been in a dreadfully rundown and nervous condition, was awfully weak and suffered with spells of dizziness. I had terrible nervous headaches and my stomach was so weak I couldn't digest even the lightest of food. I could sleep very little and became so despondent that I was afraid nothing could help me regain my health.

GUARD BABY'S HEALTH WITH PURE LIME WATER

As lime water is used mostly for babies, too much care cannot be taken in its preparation. Ordinary builder's lime and city water are not good enough, according to our idea. We use pure lime and distilled water in making our lime water, and make it fresh each week.

It will cost you no more than the ordinary kind which some druggists sell.
