U. S. WAR COST SMALLER THAN BRITISH BILL

Despite Armistice, Disbursements Have Slackened Off Little.

Twenty-one months of our war with Germany cost the United States $26,356,000,000, the treasury department calculates. Although some munitions and other contracts have been cancelled, disbursements have slackened off little.

Included in the enormous total of $26,356,000,000 is the sum of $7,875,000,000 loaned to our Allies. When we began lending to our Allies, the government contemplated turning over to them about $500,000,000 a month but actual loans ordinarily ran around $300,000,000 monthly.

Of the total war bill about $26,000,000,000 have been raised so far by the Liberty Loans. The fact that we have not covered our war debt is the reason for the Victory Liberty Loan. In other words we haven't paid for the job.

The cost of the war to Great Britain was $46,640,000,000. Germany is out $38,750,000,000 exclusive of indemnities the Allies may impose.

THE SHEPHERD AND THE CROOK

Herbert Johnson, the man who draws those inimitable cartoons for the Saturday Evening Post, put into black and white in the March issue of the magazine something that every man who owns a Liberty Bond ought to frame. It is entitled "The Shepherd and the Crook."

In the foreground, sagged out in a "plug" hat and a swallowtail coat and with an avaricious smile on his face, is a wolf with a grip full of all sorts of firm-firm stocks. Spouting towards him is a flock of sheep in the clothes of humans, each trying to get to the wolf first with a Liberty Bond to trade for the firm-firm stocks.

Uncle Sam, the shepherd, stands in the background, astonished at the sudden insanity displayed by his flock.

Johnson's cartoons are good because they are always true and always well done. This one is particularly true and exceptionally well done. In a glance it tells a story that every Liberty Bond holder ought to heed.

The American buyer of Liberty Bonds who lets go of his bonds for fake stock, or even for stock that is not fake, is playing into the hands of wolves. The wolf always gets the better of the sheep. If he didn't he wouldn't have anything to do with the sheep.

Every man or woman who owns Liberty Bonds can put it down in his pipe or her powder-puff any time anybody offers something for Liberty Bonds that the Liberty Bonds are worth more than the thing offered.

The Waist Seam Is the Favorite

You've probably seen them already. Waist-seam suits were made specially for the present-day young man who has caught the spirit of progress which came into being after the war. And young men are quick to favor them—more and more men are coming in and asking for them—and we, through our close association with

The extensive waist-seam exhibit comprises several interesting variations: single and double breasted models; welt-seam backs patch, vertical, straight or slanting pockets; peak or notch lapels. SENATORS FAVOR WILSON'S STAND

BORAH SAYS PRESENT CRISIS SHOWS RESULTS OF MEDDLING WITH AFFAIRS OVERSEAS. SAYS WE ARE "IN BAD"

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—President Wilson's attitude toward Italy is endorsed by Senator Hiram Johnson of California, who expressed the hope that Wilson would persist in his refusal to recognize Italy's or Japan's "secret bargains."

Senator Kenyon, republican from Iowa and Senator Borah, republican from Idaho, have also agreed with the attitude of Wilson toward the secret treaties.

They believe that Italy will be eventually obliged to recede from the demands which she is now making, as this nation is almost entirely dependent on the United States for credit, fuel and food.

AFTER THE WAR

BY WALT MASON

When Kaiser Bill's embattled Huns were doing stunts with swords and guns, you were a dead game sport, we know, who breathed defiance to the foe. No sacrifice was then too great, you wished to squelch that William skate, and everything for which he stood, and you were busy sawing wood. You sold the cow, your car you pawned, so you could buy another bond.
