EDITH CAVELL FACED DEATH UNDISMAYED

LONDON. (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—"I expected my sentence, but I am glad to die for my country. In the sight of eternity, I know now it is not enough to love only your own country. You must love all, and not hate any."

Those were among the last words of Edith Cavell, the British nurse who was executed by the Germans in Belgium. The churchman to whom they were spoken, the Rev. H. S. T. Gahan, has just returned to England from Brussels, where with his wife he remained thruout the war.

Aided by a German protestant military chaplain, Mr. Gahan received permission, he says, to see Miss Cavell in prison on the night before the death sentence was executed.

"With the chaplain," Mr. Gahan said, "I went to the cell door and it opened and Miss Cavell stood in the doorway. I had gone prepared for a very trying scene. There stood my friend—looking as calmly sweet as anyone could look. She was unchanged, except that she appeared better for the enforced rest in prison. The warden withdrew and we were not interrupted.

"I remember practically all she said. She was thankful for the quiet time, as her life had been such a burden and rush in many respects. She was not sorry to go, for her life had contained so much trial that she was weary beyond endurance. They have treated me very kindly here," she said.

The little communion vessels were placed on a chair, and after the service Mr. Gahan recited "Abide with me," Miss Cavell joining under her breath.

"Then I felt," the minister continued, "that I must not stay much longer, for I had been there an hour. I stood up and said, 'Good-bye,' and we were face to face. She was looking slightly strained, but nothing more. We shook hands and smiled, and I added, 'We shall meet again.' Good-bye."

The great crime of hurrying the execution, according to Mr. Gahan, belonged to the military governor of Brussels, who would not wait to communicate with headquarters.

BEND MAY GET ELKS CHAPTER STARTED SOON

BEND, April 25.—That Central Oregon will within 60 days be permitted, under a special dispensation to organize an Elks lodge, with headquarters in Bend, was the promise Monday night of Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler H. L. Toney of McMinville in an address during the closing hour of a banquet given by the local members of the antlered herd for the Elks of Deschutes, Lake, Crook and Jefferson counties. One hundred and fifty lodgemen, including many delegates to the Oregon cattle and horse raisers' convention were there. Mr. Toney is taking with him a charter list of 58 names, which will be sent at once, with a special recommendation for immediate action to the grand exalted ruler.

While the baby lodge of the state is expected to be in running order within two months' time, the charter cannot finally be granted until the meeting of the grand lodge in July. Work to organize a lodge of Bend and Central Oregon Elks was started two years ago, but was halted when State Senator Vernon A. Forbes and Ralph Poindexter, the leader in the movement, were drowned at Crescent lake last summer.

REV. DUNN FEELS IT HIS DUTY TO SPEAK

WANTS OTHERS TO BENEFIT BY HIS EXPERIENCE. SPENT HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS TRYING IN VAIN TO FIND RELIEF

"Rev. J. H. Dunn, Pastor of the Church of Christ at 2110 East Second Ave., Spokane, Wash., and residing at 724 West Sharp Street, is still another Minister whose deep sense of gratitude and desire to help others will not permit him to remain silent regarding the benefits he has derived from the use of Tanlac.

"Tanlac has not only relieved me of my ten years' suffering," said the Rev. Mr. Dunn, "but it has built me up wonderfully, as I have gained fifteen pounds in a month's time by taking it. My stomach was in such a disordered condition that I could not eat without suffering great pain. My food felt like lead in my stomach and I would expel gas almost every breath. My head ached constantly and I continually lost in weight, strength and energy. I spent around three hundred dollars for medicines but got no better.

"I finally bought Tanlac on the strength of high endorsements and my first bottle made a marked change in my feelings. So I bought another and then others and now I am just like a new man. I can eat anything now without the least discomfort afterwards. It gives me pleasure to do what I can for my fellow man, and as Tanlac has been of such great benefit to me and to a number of my friends also, I can recommend it to everybody."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorolla by the James Merc. Co.—Adv.

AUTOS INCREASING THRUOUT OREGON

SALEM, April 25.—Automobile registrations last Saturday passed the 63,400 mark, which is a greater number of cars than were registered in this state during the entire year of 1918. The total registration for 1918 was 63,325, according to Deputy Secretary of State Sam Kozier. If comparison in registrations is made for corresponding periods, the total number of cars registered up to April 19, 1918, was 49,410, as against 63,400 for the same period this year.

While the number of cars to be registered this year will show a big increase over last year, registrations of last year were 14,693 in excess of the registrations in 1917.

PHEASANT RANCHES PLANNED IN STATE

SALEM, April 25.—The biggest thing the fish and game commission has done for the sportsmen of the state since the fish propagation grounds were established, is claimed for a tentative arrangement that has been made for the propagation of Mongolian pheasants whereby many thousands of the birds will people the hunting sections of the state each year. The plan contemplates the purchase of two game farms, one of 25 acres near Corvallis, and another of 48 acres near Eugene. Governor Olcott and I. N. Fleischer, of Portland, members of the commission; Carl D. Shoemaker, state game warden; G. M. Simpson, who has been raising pheasants for the state for some years, and L. E. Born of Eugene, to whom is given the credit for being the father of the new enterprise, conferred here Saturday relative to the plan. Governor Olcott and Mr. Fleischer agreed to the plan and if other members of the commission acquiesce the deal will be consummated. Mr. Born has been working on the plan for several years.
