FIRE AT BIG MILL PUT OUT QUICKLY

Klamath Falls was alarmed shortly before ten o'clock last night by the sound of the fire alarm and the departure of the fire engine toward the mill district at Shippington. The alarm became more general when the news was received that a fire had started at the Pelican Bay Lumber Company.

This report was true, but fortunately the blaze which started in the dry kiln was discovered by some of the workmen nearby before it had a chance to spread and extinguished with chemicals before it had done any damage.

The fire alarm was turned in to the department here from Shippington and the engine raced to that point with all speed.

DIVORCE DECREES.

Divorce decrees separating Monroe Clyborn and Mary Clyborn and Emma Fredenburg from Thomas Fredenburg have been granted by Circuit Judge D. V. Kuykendall. Grounds of desertion were offered in the first complaint and cruel and inhuman treatment in the latter case. F. H. Mills was the plaintiff's attorney in each case.

U. S. NAVY HAS HUGE TASK IN MOVING FOODS

LONDON—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Transportation of food to Germany lies largely under the direction of the United States navy, but this work will entail only an addition to the vast system of food distribution maintained by the navy since the armistice. The system utilized successfully in providing for hundreds of thousands in the Near East, Balkans, Poland, Finland and Belgium will be applied to Germany.

The navy's job is to get the food to the place desired by Herbert C. Hoover and to protect it until it is taken over by responsible authorities. The navy will see that the supplies are transported to Hamburg and Bremen and guard it with warships and men until it is delivered to persons who assume responsibility for its distribution.

Thus far the navy has used 87 ships for food and supplies for people who could not live without outside assistance. Of these 63 were manned entirely by navy men and their activities covered a wide territory.

Until the task of feeding Germany was taken over the most extensive work was centered in Constantinople whence, it was attempted to send food to the Rumanians, Armenians and Serbians. Food ships also were sent from Constantinople to Beirut, Baku and Constanza, always with enough fighting ships to insure their protection.

From American headquarters at Fiume thousands of Czechs and Jugoslavs have been fed. It had been suggested that the navy should attempt to deliver food and supplies to the localities for which they were intended but conditions near Fiume made that impracticable. Transportation inland is extremely difficult and fraught with danger of international complications.

It was decided that the food should be delivered at port, placed in warehouses if necessary and protected by the United States until the hungry people could arrange to take it inland themselves. It has been shown that under the pressure of necessity the people have arranged for inland transportation quickly and were willing to assume the responsibility for proper delivery.

The staff at Rotterdam is charged with seeing that food for the Poles is safely delivered at Danzig. The inhabitants of Danzig were not aware that the United States would protect its food as long as it was in port and viewed with alarm the entrance of a gunboat into the harbor along with the Westward Ho, the first food ship to arrive. The alarm was so great that a rumor was spread over Europe on the basis of Danzig reports that the Americans had captured the town. The gunboat is still there and will remain as long as the shipments continue.

The Belgian relief ships go to Antwerp and what supplies it has been possible to send to the Finns have been directed from the Copenhagen headquarters of the navy.

The direction of the entire system is centered in the London headquarters.

MR. ORUM IMPROVES.

The many friends of H. Orum, who was taken suddenly ill last week at his home on Pine and Tenth streets, will be pleased to hear the good news that he is gradually improving and is now able to be up and around the house.

BEAUTIFUL SACRED CONCERT IS HEARD

The sacred concert given last evening at the First Presbyterian church by the trained chorus under the direction of Charles Wood Eberlein was an unusual treat to those who attended, and they were warm in their praise of the beautiful selections.

It is seldom, indeed, that the people of the city are privileged to hear sacred music of this quality, and the long effort which must have been made in its preparation was appreciated by the hearers.

DIVORCE ACTION FILED.

Action for divorce has been filed in the office of the County Clerk by Roscoe Blehn against Edith Vera Blehn. Renner and Chastain are the plaintiff's attorneys.

BIG MUSICAL SPECTACLE "MY SOLDIER GIRL" IS COMING

It will be good news to local theatre-goers to learn that Manager Houston of the Opera House has booked for Sunday and Monday, May 4 and 5, the gorgeous musical spectacle, "My Soldier Girl." This tremendous success has a score or more of popular melodies of which the title song, "My Soldier Girl," is the raging hit of the season and is hummed or whistled as the audience makes their exit. Song hits are not the only feature in this big musical play, the costumes are a fashion show in themselves, so cleverly are they designed and the color schemes so perfectly blended. The scenic beauty of the first act receives its just praise only to be outdone by the bewildering effects in the tableaux. "After the Battle," "Somewhere in France," "The clever cast and bewitching chorus force a laugh or a song score every minute. The dancing is a revelation to the theatre-goer and too much praise cannot be accorded this brilliant musical show which will be seen in this city in all its merry making. 25-It
