BUILDING SHIPS AND OPERATING THEM.

We beat the world building ships but can we hold our own with the world in operating them?

By using pressure of war conditions and paying two or three prices for labor we got out three million tons in 1918.

This was greater ship production in tonnage by 25 per cent than the combined output of all the rest of the world.

With our unlimited wealth and taxing power we created a ship building plant that turned out wood and steel vessels galore.

We met the need of the world for shipping faster than the submarines could sink them and added ships to our navy besides.

We shall probably go on for another year, building ships for ourselves and the rest of mankind.

We could not operate ships before the war in competition with the leading maritime nations on account of too high cost.

If we cannot operate ships in competition with other countries after the war we shall again drop out of the race.

In two years we moved to the first rank in ship building with great sacrifices on the part of the people in war tax measures.

We must have sound policies and sound laws if we float a merchant marine on the seven seas and carry our commerce to the ends of the world.

PRONUNCIATION OF BOLSHIEVIKI

A correspondent asks:
I would greatly appreciate it if you would publish the origin of the term "bolshieviki," also the fundamental principles of the organization.

The pronunciation and definitions are given on the authority of Frank H. Vinzetely, editor of the New Standard Dictionary:

Bolshieviki is the plural form, bolshievik being the singular. It is pronounced bol-shi-vee-ki—"o" as in "or," "sh" as in "ship," "i" as in "hit," "ts" as in "police." The term means: 1. A member of the radical socialist party which became a dominating factor in the Russian revolution of March, 1917, and subsequently, (in December, 1917) signed a peace treaty with Germany. 2. Any extremely radical or revolutionist. It is derived from the Russian "bolshie" (adj.), more; to which is added "ik," suffix used in forming nouns. Bolshievist and bolshivism are Anglicized form. The first means an adherent of the radical doctrines of the bolshieviki and the second the philosophy of the movement.

WE HAD IT HERE.

A prominent German writer has issued a pamphlet entitled, "How We Were Lied To," and shows that under a system of press censorship and government propoganda, the German people were misled. The same experience will be had in any country where any form of press censorship or government propoganda exists. "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free" does not apply to a country where freedom of speech or the press are curtailed.

And now in addition to the paid government employee, we have the government official, traveling on the taxpayers' money mixing government work with administration propoganda. Announcement has been made by the League to Enforce Peace, that Attorney General Palmer will make a speaking tour during the latter part of April, in behalf of "the league of nations and the victory liberty loan." They even have the nerve to place the league of nations above the victory loan. How do they do it?

ALMOST BEYOND BELIEF.

The report that Great Britain is profiting by her censorship over the mails to inform herself with regard to American trade secrets seems almost beyond belief. This was one of the base actions of which Great Britain accused Germany of being guilty. The report says: "Complaints, backed by evidence are constantly being received in Paris. These are to the effect that the censorship is being utilized not alone for the legitimate purpose of preventing or hampering trade with Germany, but also to give the nationals of the country (Great Britain) exercising the censorship an unfair advantage over American competitors through information extracted from business correspondence," and it is asserted that all important business information obtained from American mail is being registered, tabulated and studied for the benefit of British trade.

It has long been acknowledged by Americans doing business in foreign lands that the Britisher was a shrewd competitor, and quick to take advantage of a situation, but that he never took an unfair advantage and that he played a clean game. But if this report is true, we must revise our estimate of the post-war Briton, at least. A scurrilous trick than that of rifling the mails for trade secrets is hard to imagine. It is to be hoped that the report is false, else England will have qualified for the Napoleonic description, "perfidious Albion."

WHAT THEY THINK OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

Johnston, Pa., Democrat—We do not believe that the proposed league is a league of nations. It is merely a league of five nations that in the very nature of things would inspire counter-leagues.

Parsons, Kan., Republican—We could never allow any foreign countries to dictate to us.

Corning, N. Y., Journal—Our White House belongs in this country and not across the ocean! Uncle Sam can take care of himself without any help whatsoever.

Creston, Iowa, Plain Dealer—Our people are anxious to be kept out of war, but do not want to give up any of their national rights.

Boulder, Colo., News-Herald—The league plan destroys the Monroe Doctrine, violates the constitution, impairs national sovereignty, and would open a Pandora's box of evil.

Miami, Fla., Herald—The league would require serious and perhaps dangerous changes in our form of government.

Waukegan, Ill., Sun—We would be giving all and getting nothing. We can control our own affairs and should not continue to meddle in Europe.

THE QUESTION.

"The fact is that we are face to face with the substitution in many essential respects of a supernational government for a national government. There is no middle ground between the two. We must have one or the other. The one disappears with the adoption of the other in all respects to which authority is delegated to the supernational tribunal. As I view it, this is an unavoidable sequence. We are asked to substitute the will of the president for the mandate of the constitution. The question is, shall the senate abdicate its judgment to the will of the president? To do so would be the honest abandonment of one of the very reasons for the creation of the Senate."—Senator Harry S. New.

"MY SOLDIER GIRL" A PRETTY GIRL SHOW

What will prove the prettiest girl show, catchy music, funniest comedy and most gorgeous production on tour this season is the brilliant musical comedy "My Soldier Girl," a brand new offering coming to the Houston Opera House, two nights, Sunday and Monday, May 4 and 5.

If pretty girls who can and do, sing and dance, will make a musical show a success this entertainment should lead all other attractions, for in this show—from the rise to the fall of the final curtain—there are girls in all their possibilities, probabilities, and all their charming attitudes. The authors have combined clever, snappy dialogue with tuneful melodies and the song hits of which there are more than a score, include the title song success, "My Soldier Girl," "On Broadway," "Hello, Everybody," "Jasper's Ragtime Band," "Take Me Home With You," "Won't You Be My Beau," "I'd Feel at Home if They'd Let Me Join the Army," "Just for You," "Sugar Baby," "A Long, Long Time," and several others.

MAN BURIED ALIVE FOR THREE HOURS

ATTRIBUTES POOR HEALTH TO HORRIBLE OCCURRENCE—TILLS OF EXPERIENCE

Only once in a great while do we hear of some one being buried alive, and F. B. Slominski of 504 East 26th Street, Tacoma, Washington, is one of a very limited number who have ever undergone this terrible experience and lived to tell the story. Mr. Slominski attributes his long period of suffering and ill health, from which he says he was never able to find relief until he began the use of Tanlac, to this tragic occurrence. But we will let him tell his own story which is as follows:

"Being buried alive is a horrible experience, but that is what happened to me in a mine explosion ten years ago. We were pinned in for three hours, before the rescuers could get to us, with hardly enough air to keep soul and body together. I was the luckiest man of the lot, as two of the men had their ears blown off and one poor fellow had his eyes blown out. I was unconscious for five days after they got me home and I have never gotten over the effects of it till now.

"I think my stomach must have been poisoned by the fire damp, as it has been in a very bad condition ever since. My food would not digest properly, but would ferment and cause gas to form which gave me a great deal of pain. I had a pain in my back all the time, and suffered with headaches and dizzy spells. I was very nervous and when I did manage to get off to sleep the slightest noise would wake me. I made special request of my sons to make no noise on coming in at night, as I wanted to try to get a little sleep. My appetite was very poor, and I got so weak I could hardly walk. I didn't seem to have one bit of strength.

"Tanlac is the only thing I have ever been able to get to help me, and it certainly has done me a world of good. My appetite is fine, and my stomach is in good condition, and I can eat anything without suffering a bit from gas and indigestion. My boys can make all the noise they please now, it don't bother me at all, and I can sleep thru anything. The pain is gone out of my back, my head don't ache any more, and I sent word to the Tanlac man the other day that I had strengthened up until I could run and jump a fence as good as I ever could. I come home after a hard days work, and after a few minutes rest feel fine and ready to go anywhere. I have gained several pounds and feel better than I have in years, and its all due to Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorella by the James Merc. Co.—Adv.
