

WHEN BUYING YOUR PHONOGRAPH

LET tone decide which phonograph you buy. Hear different records played on each instrument.

Old style phonographs limit you to but one make of record. On The Brunswick you can play them all—and at their best.

For the "Ultona" and the new all-wood "Tone Amplifier" make The Brunswick truly "All phonographs in one." Hear it before you buy. You shall be the judge.

A demonstration will convince you why The Brunswick is the superior phonograph.

At the Theaters

William Desmond, the popular star who is appearing in Jesse D. Hampton productions, fits in perfectly with the character of "Larry Donovan" in "Whitewashed Walls," his latest picture released by Exhibitors Mutual.

The comedy is a travesty on the comic opera happenings which take place in certain Latin-American states. Larry gets "in Dutch" with Governor Romero, who has employed him as a sculptor on his new Palace, when he beans his Generalissimo with a decanter.

Everybody thinks the Generalissimo is dead—that is, everybody but Rosa, the demon vampire of Altamura. Rosa plots as well as she can, with the result that Larry is led to the "Whitewashed Wall" several times to be shot, but each time his quick wit saves him. A mysterious Patricio Cassidano (otherwise Patrick Cassidy) helps Larry to foil the wicked vamp and save his skin as well.

The pompous little tyrant of a Governor Romero nearly explodes with offended dignity when Larry familiarly calls him "old scout" and tells him he'll buy a drink. When Larry is stood up to be shot, he appeals to the agitator's vanity by suggesting that his execution be postponed until he can make a statue of His Excellency that future generations can look upon and marvel at the Great Romero's genius.

Desmond never did better comedy than he does in this production, and he carries out the comedy-burlesque idea to perfection.

The titling of the picture is a scream, and the cast an unusually excellent one, particularly John Dwigins as Romero, Carmen Phillips as the Vamp, and Walter Perry, as Patricio Cassidano.

This production and also Smiling Billy Parsons in a two reel comedy will be seen at the Liberty Theatre tonight only.

BIG CIRCUS IS COMING FRIDAY

EVENT AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH WILL PRECEDE AFFAIR MONDAY. WILDEST OF ANIMALS ON EXHIBITION

The Al G. Barnes people may think that they have a corner on this circus business with their big show next Monday, but they are mightily fooled, in fact it is reported that this much heralded event is going to be a mere echo of the real circus which is to be held at the Christian Church next Friday night by the Christian endeavor societies of the Baptist, Christian and Presbyterian churches to raise funds to send a delegate to the C. E. Convention in Portland in June.

Whether the Barnes managers will call off their affair in view of this announcement is not yet known, but the side shows animals, acrobatic stunts and even the balloons and pink lemonade are to be in evidence. A big delegation of hunters is now in the jungles of Africa gathering the animals. It is reported that the goats will be secured here in Klamath Falls. Everybody is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Courtade, well known residents of the Odessa section are in Klamath Falls for a short visit. They are guests at the Hotel Hall.

Mrs. Glenn Applegate and two boys left this morning for Portland where they have been called by the illness of Mr. Applegate.

C. A. Webster and H. V. Tarter are here for a short time on business connected with the Klamath Manufacturing Company.

L. T. Carpenter came in last night for a short visit from Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Saxon left this morning for Portland, where they expect to remain for some time for the benefit of Mr. Saxon's health.

A. F. Landear is a guest at the Hall Hotel from Burns.

Henry Burdick is a recent arrival from Redding.

E. A. Leiston Smith and Lt. P. L. Anderson, representatives of the Winther Truck are in Klamath Falls for a short business visit.

H. J. Ticknor and A. E. Gale have returned to Langell Valley after a business visit in the County seat.

Irving E. Dixon came in last evening from the Presidio in San Francisco for a short visit in Klamath.

PALMER COULD NOT RAISE HAND TO HEAD

EVERY MUSCLE IN BODY ACHED WITH RHEUMATISM. LIKE NEW MAN AFTER TAKING TANLAC

"I have lived in Portland for thirty years and there are just lots of people here who know that Tanlac has made a new man of me," said J. H. Palmer, the well known transfer and baggage man, residing at 366 Knott St., Portland, Ore., recently.

"I have been a sufferer from rheumatism twenty-five years," continued Mr. Palmer, "and reached the point where I never expected to get well, or even any better. I spent thousands of dollars trying to get relief, but gradually got worse. Every muscle in my body seemed to be drawn up, every joint stiff, and I could not move without suffering agony. When I walked instead of lifting my feet I would just have to drag them along, and if my life had depended on it I could not have raised my hands high enough to touch the back of my head. I was laid up for more than two years at one time. After sitting down for a while I couldn't get up without holding on to something and after I did get on my feet it would take me several minutes to straighten myself up. During the past year or two my condition became very much worse. My whole system seemed to be run-down. My kidneys bothered me nearly all the time, my back hurt me, and at times I would almost scream from pain.

"I also suffered from indigestion. My stomach would bloat up after eating and my food would sour and add more to my misery. I would lay awake more than half the night rubbing my arms and legs trying to get easy so I could get a little rest. I would get awfully blue and despondent over my condition, and yet, could see no way out of my suffering.

"The testimonials of people right here in Portland, some of whom I know personally, caused me to try Tanlac. Well, I am now seventy years old and I just want to say that I have never seen anything like it. Before I finished my first bottle I was eating twice as much as before and felt no bad effects from it. I am now on my fourth bottle, and the rheumatism has just about all left me. Why, my legs are just as limber as if I had never had a touch of rheumatism. I don't suffer any more from constipation and headache and have gained back all my energy and strength and several pounds in weight, besides. Numbers of my friends, who know what Tanlac has done for me, are now taking it with fine results. Yes sir, Tanlac has done everything for me I could wish, far more than I expected it could do, and I would be willing to go before a notary and make an affidavit as to the truth of this statement."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorella by the James Merc. Co.—Adv.
