

At the Theaters

The very newest Thomas H. Ince production, "The Keys of the Kingdom," a Paramount picture, is to be seen at the Star Theatre tonight...

To see Fatty Arbuckle in his roasting farce comedy, "Camping Out," at the Star theatre tonight, where it is attracting large audiences, is a delight...

A character that might have stepped out of the pages of Dickens—a "Sairy Gamp," for instance, is "Mother Hawkins," the picturesque old singer who conducts a "fence" in the underworld...

"Mother Hawkins" is admirably portrayed by Anna Dodge, an actress who has made an enviable reputation on the legitimate stage in character parts.

In one scene the old "lady" is seen entertaining a party in honor of "Gentleman Chi," a master crook who honors her menage with a visit.

"Mother Hawkins" can't understand why Nancy (Bessie Barriscale) would rather scrub floors for a wage than earn a decent living by picking pockets.

"In spite of all th' eddication I've learned that girl, she won't steal a cent," says the old woman. "Ain't she the ungrateful thing!"

The scene at "Mother Hawkins" is one of the richest bits of comedy ever thrown on the screen, and what the action doesn't register the titles will. "Heart's Asleep" will be at the Liberty Theatre tonight only.

MRS. ROBBINS RESTORED BY TANLAC AFTER SUFFERING THIRTY YEARS

"Talking about things that help people," said Mrs. P. H. Robbins of 1449 South 14th Street, Omaha, Neb. in an interview recently...

"In 1889, nearly thirty years ago now," she continued, "when lagrippe first came along and so many people were having it, I had an attack of it myself and have had it in some form or other from once to twice a year ever since. The first spell left me in a badly weakened condition and I would no sooner recover from one attack than I would be pulled down again..."

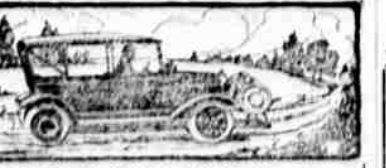

"Then he went straight to Sherman & McConnell's drug store and got two bottles, one for me and one for himself, as he was in very bad health, too. Well, I showed some improvement on the first bottle and kept on getting better slowly..."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorella by the James Mero, Co.—Adv.
