

APPEAL FOR RED CROSS AID.

Tuesday morning finds us with sixty five night dresses not yet made—and we hope by Saturday night to have our shelves clear of unfinished work.

MRS. L. E. SULLIVAN.

SAY, JACK, LISTEN!

If you are in need of any accessories at all that will enable you to make joy riding a joy, instead of a disaster, as it sometimes turns out to be, you want to call in at the Diamond Tire & Vulcanizing Co. and get it.

They have everything that is calculated to render first aid to the injured, from a leaky radiator to a puncture in the rear tire.

Mrs. C. Livingston, who has been here for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. White of this city, left this morning for her home in San Francisco.

Mrs. Clara Dean and her mother, Mrs. Emma Dean left this morning on the train for Oakland, California, where the former will undergo medical treatment.

W. J. Hamilton and Mrs. S. J. Rice, aunt and uncle of Mrs. J. B. Mitchell have left for their home at King City, California, after a visit here.

E. S. Terwilliger, a former well known Klamath county resident came in last evening from Red Bluff, California, where he now resides for a short business visit.

H. W. LaFreniere is here for a few days looking after business interests from Bray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Anderson were among the train arrivals last night from Portland.

Mrs. D. B. Bleecker and son from Fairbanks, Alaska, Mrs. H. L. Bleecker of Los Angeles and Mrs. R. N. Powers of San Diego are in the city for a short time. They are guests at the White Pelican Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Danielson are here for a few days from Oakland, California.

A. D. Edwards is a recent arrival in Klamath Falls from Eugene.

C. N. Gordon came in on the train last night for a short business visit from Weed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chase left this morning for Ivan after a short visit here.

Mrs. Charles Messner has returned to her home in Mt. Hebron, after a visit in Klamath Falls.

At the Theaters

Beautiful and tragic is the story of 'The City of Dim Faces,' the latest starring vehicle for Sessue Hayakawa, in Paramount pictures, which will be displayed at the Star Theatre tonight.

The story was written by Frances Marion and directed by George Melford, and the theme is one of tragic interest. Mr. Hayakawa, as Jang Lung, a young Chinese-American, the son of a Chinese merchant, and of a white woman, has a characterization, which, in subtlety and heart interest, has not been approached by any he has heretofore essayed.

This photoplay is one of rare excellence from the standpoints of production and artistry, and will doubtless rank as one of the best of the Hayakawa-Paramount repertoire.

If you are a pretty girl, and if you see an attractive automobile, just appropriate it. Then, when you are arrested merely marry the policeman—and you are safe, in 'Fair Enough' Margarita Fisher's new and very funny farce, to be seen at the Liberty Theatre on Wednesday she demonstrates how there is a way out of all difficulties—if one is pretty.

She is the care-free, whimsical daughter of parents with high social ambitions and she outwits a prude, prim and punctilious governess in order to be her own, untrammelled self. She turns all conventional tenets topsy-turvy; plays havoc with her father's finances; gives picnics to a horde of street gamins; falls in love with a policeman, at first sight, and runs the gauntlets of dangers and escapades until she is finally apprehended for pilloining a racing car. Then, the clever way of getting out of her fix is well worth seeing.

In the cast are Jack Wower, lead-

Put a few drops on that old touchy corn then lift it out without pain.

Ouch! Ouch! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain.

He says freezone is a sticky substance which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissues of skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezone which costs very little at any drug store, is said to be sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.—Adv.

HAVE YOU EVER TRIED ON A HART SCHAFFNER & MARX WAIST SEAM?

Then you haven't any idea of how becoming they are; almost every man and young man looks good in them. They're not just a fad, either; there's too good a reason for them; they give men the well set-up appearance, erect, full chested!; narrow thru the waist.

That's why you'd better let us try one on you; there are variations here for everyone
