At the Theaters

Frank Best, who directed Madame Travers in the making of "The Danger Zone," which is being shown at the Liberty tonight has a odd way of getting action into emotional scenes. When everything is ready Mr. Best, in a shirt sleeves gives the word "go" and the musicians begin a melody. Mr. Best spreads his hands, beats time and softly sings the air being played. And he it known Mr. Best is some singer. Oftentimes, too, while he is singing he is working over the scene, and giving more vitality to it than are the actors before the camera.

CANADIAN STRIKE VERY SERIOUS

WINNIPEG, May 23.—Efforts to bring about a reconciliation program at a meeting of the citizens and unions to discuss the general strike here have failed.

Mayor Gray closed the meeting here today with the remark "If it is your wish that nothing further be done regarding conciliation. Then hop to it. I will see that law and order are—"

TOURNAMENT ON FOR ONE ARMED GOLFERS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 22.—A tournament for one armed golfers is being arranged here.

A number of men who golf with one hand, either because that is the way they naturally play the game, or because they have learned to play with one hand after becoming crippled, play over the Los Angeles Municipal links in Griffith park.

"Bill" Jones, the starter at the city links, has made that course in 82. He is highly interested in the plan for a tournament to settle the matter of supremacy among the armed golfers.

Captain A. F. Sutton, a British officer, who recently caused a sensation at Del Monte, Cal., where he made the 18 holes in 84 has only one arm.

Morris Phillips, who lost one arm as the result of the accidental discharge of his rifle, went over the course of the San Gabriel Country Club, near here, in 83 and played over the Griffith park links in 79.

The late Charles E. Van Loan, famous short story writer, was an excellent golfer although he played with only one hand because of an accident to the other.
