

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to express to my friends and neighbors my sincere and heartfelt gratitude for their many kindnesses during the illness and after the death of my dear husband.

Wm. H. Davis, Father and Family

If only you could hang your feet on the strap.

Your poor tired arches carry a load all day that nature never meant them to carry. Shoes make bridges of your arches. They carry the whole weight of your body without support.

Wizard Adjustable Arch Builder

provides the support nature intended your arches to have. By distributing the weight of your body evenly over the feet the strain is avoided and serious consequences averted.

MOVE MADE FOR FIVE VESSELS LANGELL WATER RECENTLY SUNK

PRELIMINARY WORK HAS BEGUN FOR IRRIGATION OF HUGE TRACT OF FERTILE LAND IN EASTERN KLAMATH COUNTY

The first preliminary work for the irrigation of Upper Langell Valley from the waters of Clear Lake has been started according to reliable reports and although there is much legal procedure yet to be gone thru before the reclamation is fully assured, the residents are hopeful that the work can be continued until the water is on the land.

It is now expected that the district Counsel of the United States Reclamation Service will be here in a short time and that a contract for water will be made.

ASKS RECOVERY OF MONEY.

B. E. Priem is plaintiff in a suit just filed in the circuit court against G. T. Ingersoll in which he alleges that the defendant wrongfully took from his place farm machinery valued at $498.75 and he asks for the recovery of this amount.

FORMER KLAMATH COUNTY BOY, WHO WAS MEMBER OF CREW OF DESTROYER DOUGLAS TELLS OF PERIS WHICH MENACE SAILORS

The following account is given in the Oregonian of the sinking of the U. S. destroyers in a storm off the Coast of France is of unusual interest.

That sailors of the American navy are still meeting dangers of the sea as truly as when the German submarines prowled the deep is evident from the account of the death of two officers and 17 men with the loss of five United States destroyers, April 27, as related in a letter from Fenton J. McCarthy to his mother, Mrs. W. S. Worden, 256 East Thirty-third street, North.

McCarthy was a member of the crew of the Douglas, one of the vessels lost in the storm between Brest, France and the Azores islands. He is 19 years old and enlisted here March 19, 1917. After being trained at Goat Island he was assigned to the San Diego, on which boat he made the trip thru the Panama Canal to New York. He was later sent to France and was assigned to a mine sweeping fleet out of Brest.

McCarthy's letter to his mother, written on the U. S. S. Bridgeport, at Brest is as follows:

"We left Brest April 27 for the Azores islands at 6 in the morning. At 2 o'clock P. M. we had sprung a leak and were in a bad storm. Every wave washed the deck and all hands were wet to the arms. You could not stand on the deck at all.

"At 3 o'clock the U. S. S. Rambler lost a man overboard and the other ships stopped to help look for him.

"The U. S. S. Douglas, our ship, had hardly stopped when our wheel ropes came off and we were powerless. The waves had us and in the hour we had to fix the ropes back on the wheel we were slowly sinking.

"At 4:30 P. M. the U. S. S. Courtney, sinking fast, sent an S. O. S. to the U. S. S. Seresa and that boat took its crew off.

"The U. S. S. James, also in a helpless condition, was being towed by the U. S. S. Marietta.

"The Douglas was helpless at 5 o'clock and sent out an S. O. S. for the Seresa, which came up and took us off.

"The Courtney sank as we boarded Seresa and then the Douglas sank. At 8 o'clock the U. S. S. Janet crew was saved by the U. S. S. Marietta and soon after the James sank, also. The Glys Queen, which came to our assistance, hit upon the rocks and blew up, losing 16 men and two officers. The Seresa with the crews from the Douglas and Courtney aboard, started for Brest, 50 miles away. At midnight she sent out an S. O. S.; her boilers were leaking and she had a hole in her side. The U. S. S. Favorite a sea-going tug, came out and towed us in.

"We arrived at 10:50 o'clock in the morning of the 28th and the U. S. S. Courtney, Douglas and James were sunk, the Gypsy Queen blown up and the Seresa, now sinking at her moorings. Help is going out this afternoon. Seventeen men and two officers lost. I am O. K. but lost everything I had."

BEND MAN WRITES ABOUT NEW LEGION

An interesting description of the new legion which is to be organized in the city of Bend, Oregon, is given in the Bend Bulletin.

Mr. Putnam who was in the Field Artillery service brings out the great democratic spirit which prevailed at the organization where generally only the wealthy with private automobiles were the only ones who had a voice in the organization.
