METHODISTS WILL CELEBRATE WITH BIG EXPOSITION

$105,000,000 Centenary Drive Cause For Rejoicing.

NATIVES ARE TO TAKE PART

World's Greatest Picture Show to be Presented on Mammoth Screen at Columbus, Ohio, June 20 July 7. Many to Go From Northwest By Auto.

What it is planned to make the greatest world exhibition ever conceived will be held at Columbus, Ohio, June 20 July 7.

Known as the Centenary Celebration, and celebrating jointly the completion of the Methodist centenary's $105,000,000 campaign for the purpose of rebuilding the world and the centennial of American missions...

Every phase of mission work in every country in which Methodism is at work will be presented. There will be erected a complete Chinese city with its great walls and gates, a pagoda, temples, shops, schools, hospital, theater, restaurant, homes, peopled by many native Chinese. In like manner will be shown villages from India, Korea, Africa and the Philippines...

Motion pictures will be shown in a gigantic oval, where 100,000 people can sit at one time. The picture screen will be the largest in the world, being 125 feet high.

Thousands of Natives Take Part. The work of Christianity at home and abroad will be shown in every phase. There will be gigantic pageants participated in by thousands of natives.

General Leonard Wood will command a regiment of 1000 Centenary cadets, whose duty will be to guard the exhibits. These young men are now being recruited from every state in the union. High school boys are desired, who have had sufficient military training so they can participate in military drill. Applications should be sent to Centenary cadets, 111 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Arrangements have been made for parking 40,000 automobiles for it is believed that great squadrons of Methodist automobiles will travel to the celebration. One great caravan of 1,000 automobiles has been already fully made up from Illinois while Iowa will send another train of 200 cars in one batch. Hundreds of cars are expected to make the trip from the Pacific northwest, leaving as soon as the centenary campaign is completed.

Beds For 100,000 People.

By means of a tent city to care for 60,000 persons and the general accommodations of Columbus, 100,000 persons per night will be cared for during the celebration. The tent city will be equipped with post office, restaurants, sewerage and all the accommodations of a modern city. It will stand on a beautiful tract of 260 acres.

One of the most novel features will be a gigantic liquorless saloon and a prize is offered by the Centenary celebration committee at Columbus for the best snappy, short word to describe such an institution. Not only will all kinds of refreshments be served but there will be other forms of entertainment not to be found in the original saloon.

Motion pictures, directed by D. W. Griffith will be taken of the celebration. Mr. Griffith will also assist in the pageants. Speakers of world wide renown will be heard at the celebration gatherings.

The Methodist centenary celebration will be by all odds the greatest religious enterprise ever presented. It is expected to defray its own costs. Immediately after its conclusion the tribes of natives from different lands will be sent to their homes by the Methodist centenary.

CENTENARY MOVE HAS BIG FEATURES

The gigantic centennial of the establishment of Methodist missions in America, under the form of the Methodist centenary, has a number of remarkable features.

In the first case, it is planned to raise, beginning May 18, a fund of $105,000,000 to be used on a gigantic world program of reconstruction, perhaps the most comprehensive program ever devised.

By that date Methodism will have enrolled also 1,000,000 intercessors, that is, persons pledged to daily prayer; 1,000,000 others, pledged to devote one-tenth of their income to the work of Christianity; 53,000 persons who will pledge themselves to devote the balance of their lives to the work of the church, whether in America or in the foreign field. Seventy-five thousand Methodist minute men, lay church members who present the comprehensive church program at Sunday services, have been appointed and form the greatest body of organized speakers in America at this time.

They have spoken for the Liberty loan and for the United States employment service, as well as for other governmental activities.
