GARICH'S GROCERY NEWS

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, MAY 28, 1919.

Makes Big Deal For His Customers

GOOD FOR TEN DAYS

Starts Out Determined to Cut the High Cost of Living for the People of This City, and Is Very Successful.

KLAMATH FALLS, May 28-(Special Announcement)-F H Garich, propiretor of The News cane sugar for canning these her and the big grocery store next ries, which he will sell at $11 50 door to the postoffice, has made the sack nation to hammer down the high cost of living Realizing that the cost of strawberries was cout of sight," he hopped into his car and beat it for the Rogue River valley. There he made a deal that will be good for only 10 days. Here is the plan:

If you want strawberries for canning, get your order in now and it will be filled any time you say, within the next ten days. The price per crate will be $2.45, delivered to your door.

To make sure that his customfresh and perfect in every way. Mr. Garich made it a condition of the deal that the berries are to be picked before 7 o'clock in the morning, and shipped the same day they are picked. Thus they reach here about 12 hours after being taken from the vine That's going some

Mr Garich has the highest grade

EDITORIAL.

I know my customers will be pleased to learn of the special arrangements I have made for getting strawberries under special conditions and prices I believe this is the best deal I have ever made and I want you to have the benefit of it. You know what Rogue River berries are, and handled as I am going to handle them, you are going to get a bettor herry than has ever been of fered for sale in this city before It will not now be necessary to go over to Ashland, as some housewives have had to do, in order to get the berry in its very best condition. This can now be accomplished under my plan-and the price is right, and will be no lower this year. Don't wait

NOTICE

The management of Van's Auto Service wishes to announce that the ad in the Evening Herald on May 22, stating that Mr. Howard had taken over the interest of the Van's Auto Service in the stage line operating between Klamath Falls and Ashland, was somewhat ahead of time, as the deal was not consummated; so for the future ASHLAND-KLAMATH FALLS STAGE tickets will be on sale at the old stand of VAN'S AUTO SERVICE, 621 MAIN.

Daily Stage Service, with large seven-passenger cars, with trailers in connection to handle the baggage.

We make connection with north-bound train at Ashland.

At present we are operating over the most scenic route in the state, viewing Topsy Grade and the Siskiyou mountains, via the Pacific Highway.

We also operate a FOR RENT service, day or night. Local or long trips.

We appreciate your business in the past-also in the future.

Excursions run to Klamath Hot Springs on Sundays.

If we suit you, tell others—if not, tell us and we will try and make good.
