PERSONAL MENTION

LITTLE SIDELIGHTS ON LOCAL HAPPENINGS
AMONG THE PEOPLE OF THIS CITY AND VICINITY.
GOINGS AND COMINGS OF LOCAL FOLKS

Miss Josephine Van Ripper returned last evening from Phoenix, Arizona, where she has been teaching in the city schools of that place. She will spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Van Ripper.

Miss Annie E. Applegate, teacher in Sacramento, arrived by train last night and will spend her vacation at her home in this city.

George M. Cornwall, editor of The Timberman, the Great Western Lumberman's magazine is in Klamath Falls on one of his trips over the country. Mr. Cornwall has a large circle of friends among the manufacturers here, with whom he will visit.

George G. Steward is down for a short visit from the Klamath Agency, today.

H. Veatch was among the train arrivals last night from Portland.

E. L. Holliday, who operates a large dairy and cheese factory in Langell Valley is in the county seat, looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Haynes came in on the train last night for a short visit here. They are registered at the Hall Hotel from St. Louis.

Ernest Wiley is in town on business from the Klamath Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hugelstein, well known residents of the Algoma district were in the county seat getting supplies for their ranch yesterday.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall from their son Herbert Barry, who has been overseas for several months with the 199th Aero Squadron, that he has arrived safely on this side of the Atlantic ocean and that he is now staying at Camp Mills in New York. He expects to be at that point for about two weeks. Herb says that there is going to be a bean hungry soldier around looking for a good square meal at the Hotel in a short time.

John Shook, a pioneer stockman of this county is down from Dairy on matters of business.

Mrs. Ruth Cowen left this morning for Portland, where she expects to meet her husband Edmund Cowen, who has just returned from overseas service with the 20th Engineers. He is now at Camp Lewis, awaiting his discharge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kitaball, who have been located at the old Burpold Ranch near Bonanza for some time, left for their home in Los Angeles this morning.

M. McAndrews, who has spent the winter with his family in San Francisco, and who has been here for a few days, returned to the Bay City this morning. He announces that he will probably return with his family to remain some time next month.

D. M. Bird is a recent arrival in Klamath Falls from Chico, California. He is staying at the Hall Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter were among the arrivals yesterday afternoon from Medford.

Mrs. J. C. Hunter is down from her home at Modoc Point for a short visit. She came in yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Castellucci are visitors in Klamath Falls from New York. They are guests at the White Lillian Hotel.

Mrs. C. E. Fall has returned to her home at Dorris after a visit in Klamath Falls.

H. G. McCarthy, an official of the Southern Pacific company with headquarters at Dunsmuir is in town for a short time on business for the company.

John M. Cox, who owns a large stock ranch in the Wood River Valley and who has been here looking after his property, left this morning for his home in Oakland. He declares that conditions are good in the Fort Klamath District.

Reverend W. L. Wilson of the Episcopal Baptist Church of this city left this morning for Portland, where he will meet his son, A. P. Wilson, who has just returned from two years service in France with the 102d Hospital Corps. The young man will remain in Portland and will take his former position with a wholesale drug house. Rev. A. B. Murphy of San Pedro will preach here at the Baptist Church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Cotton, who have been here for a short time on matters of business from Portland, left for that point on the train this morning.

Latest records at Shepherds. 27-3

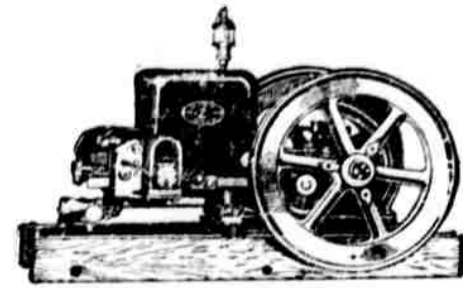

Mrs. A. D. Osborne left this morning for Corning, California, where she expects to visit for the next two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Rogers.

RIGHT IN LINE.
Mills Addition lots are right in line with the development of the city. New mills likely will be built on the lake front, round-houses and terminals will probably soon be established and new school will soon be built. Lots are cheap and terms easy. Liberty bonds accepted same as cash.

The New 1 1/2 H. P. "Z" Engine successfully uses KEROSENE

THERE is much to interest every farmer in this announcement, because adding this recently perfected small size complete line of engines—1 1/2 H. P. to 15 H. P.—all of which successfully run on

KEROSENE

—also run on Distillate, Coal Oil, Tops or Gasoline. The larger "Z" engines always have successfully used Kerosene—now the new 1 1/2 H. P. size does too—thereby completing the most practical and efficient engine line ever offered. But you cannot know the "Z" by reading about it. Come in and see it. Let us tell you why we add our reputation to that of Fairbanks, Morse & Co. when selling a "Z" to you.

Thrilling Governor—Built-in Oscillating Magneto
Prices—1 1/2 H. P. $61.00—3 H. P. $100.00
6 H. P. $179.00 F. O. B. Factory.
