

HAD SUFFERED FOR 30 YEARS HE SAID

DR. TANKER HAS HELPED HIM MORE THAN ANY OTHER MEDICINE

"Ever since I took that course of Tanker I have felt better and stronger than I have in many years and it has done more for me than anything else I have ever taken," said J. W. Patterson, of 1343 Thirteenth Street, Denver, Colorado.

"For thirty years," he continued, "I suffered from catarrh of the nose and throat, and although I was operated on by a New York specialist at great expense I got only temporary relief. I just couldn't rest at all well at night and would get up in the morning almost choking with mucus, which would not go down. I also had a headache to vomit. My stomach became affected so that everything I would eat would sour and I would get up with gas as tight as a drum. I was bilious, had terrible headaches and suffered something awful.

"I tried everything I could hear of, but nothing helped me till I began taking Tanker. It has relieved me of gas and every sign of indigestion and my stomach is in better condition than it has been in years. Tanker has helped my catarrh wonderfully, it has calmed my nerves so I can get restful sleep at night and I am not troubled with that mucus or nausea any more."

Tanker is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorain by the James Mero Co.—Adv.

GOOD CLOTHES UNDER THE BAN BY BOLSHEVIKI

"PART" Via London Correspondence of the Associated Press. (Special Telegrams to the Associated Press in Moscow under Bolsheviki rule are given by an Armenian engineer who has arrived here from the capital of Soviet Russia. He says the people of the city live in terror of the Bolshevik Red Guard and that the former bourgeois have very few privileges. To be well dressed is a crime. The hated upper classes must queue up as poorer folk whenever they go into the streets. Riotous mobs of fire bring down upon them the cry of "bourgeois." One word of protest or of non-submission to the ruling power is quite sufficient to cause the slandering word, "bourgeois," to be hurled at them. That means prison and sometimes death. The law is so strict that all of our bourgeois and the Association says about daily from 20 to 50 men and women are shot.

The Stranai ministers in 1918 a "people's law court." Where the bourgeois are tried and condemned for crimes of opposition or alleged opposition to Bolsheviki rule.

The churches, he says, are safe, but their valuables have been removed. Many priests have been killed or imprisoned because, after the death of the former Emperor and his family, they prayed in secret for the dead.

Some of the theatres are still open. The great Imperial theatre is used for Bolsheviki meetings but in its evenings opera and ballet continue. The greatest artists have all escaped to Moscow, but many good musicians. Only soldiers go to the theatres, the bourgeoisie apparently dare not.

Most of the banks are closed. Only one bank with several branches exists. It is known as the "People's Bank of the Russian Federal Soviet Republic." Sums not exceeding 1,000 rubles a month may be drawn. Usually one has to pay an agent 50 to 100 per cent of his draft as a commission for obtaining it.

It is dangerous to employ any servants—a sure sign of bourgeois. Servants are in some cases retained secretly. But on the paper showing the number of people in the house the servants are listed as poor relatives.

The streets are filthy and unkept. Every now and then the bourgeoisie are ordered to clean their streets, men, women and children are given spades and ordered under penalty of imprisonment to shovel filth away. As a rule the bourgeoisie have to load and carry their own supplies. No one else will work for them.

There is no gasoline for private automobiles and alcohol is used for fuel. This is stolen by the chauffeurs mixed with water and sold as vodka for two rubles a bottle.

Soldiers of the Red Army command the peasants' stores of grain and food, give them ridiculously small prices in payment and then sell the food at huge profits. Often they visit houses on the pretext of searching for arms, take what valuables they can find and sell them in the streets. They loot, rob and even murder anyone daring to say a word against them.

The slightest offense in the army is now punished by death but when the Red soldiers are not on duty they seem to be able to do as they like with impunity. Most of the civilians who have been mobilized into the army are discontented and are awaiting the first opportunity of turning against the Bolsheviki.

There is no protection for foreigners. A decree was recently published declaring there were no longer any foreigners and that everyone living in Russia henceforth would be deemed a Russian and have to submit to Bolsheviki rule. Paper money to the face value of 1,250,000 rubles is printed daily. Only two newspapers are permitted to be published, The Soviet News and the Soldier's Truth.
