EUGENE AFTER LARGE AIRDOME

EUGENE, Oregon May 31. -The city council of Eugene will cooperate with the chamber of commerce in locating a permanent landing place for airplanes and establishing a municipal airdrome. A letter from United States Senator McNary of Oregon, urging the council to take action, was read at a meeting of the council and Mayor C. O. Peterson anhounced that he would appoint a special committee to act with the chamber of commerce.

ed to the probability of the establishment of air mail routes and 'ne installation of planes at different cities to assist in fighting fires in forests in the near future and the establishment of commercial airplane routes later. He urged Eugene people to prepare for the service.
