

PERSONAL MENTION

LITTLE SIDELIGHTS ON LOCAL HAPPENINGS AMONG THE PEOPLE OF THIS CITY AND VICINITY GOINGS AND COMINGS OF LOCAL FOLKS

Mrs. J. G. Cotchett and son, James, Jr., of Seattle and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Patton of Fort Klamath arrived last night from Medford by auto. Mrs. Cotchett and son will spend the summer with her sister at Fort Klamath and will then go on to Chicago to join her husband who is connected with the Gerrard Wire Tying Machine Co. While Mrs. Cotchett's many friends in the County will regret that she is to make her home at such a great distance, they will nevertheless be pleased to know that Mr. Cotchett is connected with this well known firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Sisemore and Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart of Fort Klamath are in the city on business and pleasure.

W. A. Dewight of the Dewight Lumber Company, left this morning for San Francisco after a few days business and pleasure trip in the city.

Albert Mintler, who conducts a butcher shop in Dunsmuir and who has been in the city for a few days on business, returned to his home this morning.

D. M. McLenore, prominent cattle buyer from San Francisco, is in the city for a few days business visit.

Misses G. D. Palmer and G. H. Chamberlain of New York City, are tourist visitors stopping at the White Pelican Hotel. This is the second year these ladies have visited this section.

R. W. Skinner and wife of Los Angeles are on a pleasure trip to Klamath County.

S. A. Fullquartz of Keystone,

Washington is in the city for a three weeks visit with his daughter Mrs. P. Hill Hunter. Mr. Fullquartz expresses himself as greatly impressed with the possibilities of Klamath.

Edmund Gowen, who has just returned from France, where he has been in the service of Uncle Sam with the 20th Engineers, is expected to arrive home this evening. Mrs. Gowen went to Portland to meet her husband, and with his mother, who has been spending the past several weeks in San Francisco, will return also on this evening's train.

Jack Almeter, who has been employed in the grocery store of Fred Garich, next door to the Postoffice, is seriously ill with bronchial pneumonia. W. U. Foster is taking his place during his illness.

Will Masten was a passenger on the outgoing train this morning bound for San Francisco, Los Angeles and other California points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McCollum and son Robert, returned to their home in Fresno this morning after a brief visit with relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Georgia Silvers and mother Mrs. Anderson, left for their home in Mt. Hebron this morning after spending the winter here.

Rev. Thomas Brady, of Lakeview, came in last night with Clarence Anderson of that city, to take back Mr. Anderson's daughter, Elvira, who has been attending the Sacred Heart Academy in this city. Major Anderson, who is a very skilled surgeon in the U. S. Army and who has been in the service for 26 years, is spending a furlough with his brother in Lakeview and will perform an operation on Elvira for the removal of her tonsils.

Several of the High School boys have gone out with surveying crews for the summer months assisting the state highway engineers. Charles Vaden, Calvin Peyton and Claude Williams are now with the crew on the Lakeview Road.

Dr. and Mrs. Wright and daughter Henrietta, have returned from an auto trip to Portland, Seattle and Victoria. They were accompanied as far as Portland by Helen Mason, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Mason who has gone to spend the summer with her grandparents.

Tom Tracey and Charles Moore left this morning by auto for an outing of two weeks.

Ned O'Connor of Straw, Calif., is in the city for a few days on business. He reports the sheep doing fine and the crop of wool good.
