

GERMANY WILL UTILIZE RUSSIA

MUCH IS THE WARNING OF AMBASSADOR FRANCIS IF A STABLE GOVERNMENT IS NOT ESTABLISHED

RYE BEACH, N. H. June 12.—Warning that if a stable government is not established in Russia, Germany will utilize Russian resources and man-power and again become a great menace to the people of Europe was given today by David R. Francis, American ambassador to Russia. Mr. Francis is recuperating here from illness which compelled him to undergo a surgical operation in London on his way home from Archangel. He is awaiting orders from the State Department.

Mr. Francis was prompted to make the statement by the recent speeches of Frank A. Vanderlip, formerly president of the National City Bank of New York in which Mr. Vanderlip gave his views of the industrial situation in Europe and told America that she must be prepared to extend her credit to put European business on its feet.

"I have read with great interest," said the ambassador, "Mr. Vanderlip's note of warning delivered before the Economic Club in New York several days ago. Mr. Vanderlip had unparalleled facilities for studying conditions in Europe during his four or five months' visit and his address, coming as it does from the president of the largest financial institution in America, impacts most valuable information. He is not in the diplomatic service, if he were he would have thought a second time concerning his utterance about labor conditions in England. Those conditions are more or less serious in every European country and merit attention even in the United States.

"The Bolshevik spirit which is now manifesting itself in the Canadian strikes, I am glad to see is frowned upon by the labor unions in that country as well as in our own. If that spirit should dominate in the new world or even if it should permeate labor circles to the extent it did in Russia in the beginning of the Bolshevik Revolution, it would as it did there attempt to appropriate the lands and that would be very deleterious for the labor unions of America. Here the public domain immense as it was has practically all been taken up by settlers who own the soil they own and would not listen with any patience to the Bolshevik doctrine of nationalizing the land.

"Lenine has realized this as before he left Russia, he said Bolshevism had to cease to fear the large land owners or feudal barons as he called them, but the small holders among the peasantry were the most powerful enemies of Bolshevism."

JUAREZ AGAIN IS THREATENED

GENERAL ANGELES IS ADVANCING WIDE STRONG FORCE ON THE BORDER CITY—RESIDENTS SEEKING SAFETY.

JUAREZ, Mexico, June 12.—General Angeles with a strong force of rebels, is moving against Juarez. The Federal Garrison is ready for the attack. Everyone in the city is moving to safer quarters. General Angeles is believed to have about a thousand men. It is not expected that he will attack until tonight, unless the federals advance to meet him. The rebels are four miles away.

HOBO COLLEGE IS OPENED IN EAST

NEW YORK, June 12.—"Hobo college" opened its doors on the Bowery under the direction of James Ends Howe of St. Louis, the "millionaire hobo." All graduate hobos who desire post-graduate courses in such subjects as "sociology," "industrial law" and "public speaking" are invited to enroll.

Students will start the day with a two-hour job hunt. If they fail in their quest, they can return with first-hand information for a course in sociology. At 2:30 P. M. the studies will close with a "Jungle lunch," menus not provided. Mr. Howe says the college is modeled on similar successful institutions in Chicago and Cincinnati. He invites discharged soldiers to join the classes.

CATTLEMAN TO BE TRIED.

SALEM, Or., June 12.—William Z. Moss, prominent eastern Oregon cattleman, must stand trial in the circuit court of Harney county on a charge of cattle rustling. The supreme court has sustained Circuit Judge Biggs, who refused recently to dismiss an indictment returned against Moss.

Moss was convicted of the same charge in Lake county and that is now pending before the supreme court on appeal.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.
