There was a public spirited gathering at the Shasta View school house, June 16, for the annual school meeting. A great many of the patrons of the district come with two and four horse teams with plows and scrapers and proceeded to plow, scrape and level the school yard for the purpose of planting trees and seeding the same to grass. Every one worked with a will until the ladies of the community called dinner, which had been prepared by willing hands. An enjoyable repast was served after which the men proceeded to scrape and level until the bell rang calling all in to hitch their teams until after the annual school meeting convened. They proceeded to elect a director and clerk for the coming year and to talk of things pertaining to a good standard school building tomorrow and was such as we have.

After the meeting the men proceeded to plow and scrape some more until 6 o'clock, but still there was work to be done and several generous hearted men who could hardly spare the time from home agreed to come on the 17th and finish the job.

We hope to make our school grounds attractive and protect the grounds from wind and storm.

Those taking part in this meritorious work were:

W. M. Crandall and son, Russell, Mr. W. S. Oliver, Martin, Mr. Bruce J. Mook, Joe Kotera, J. O. O'Brien and son, Ivan, Lechter, Holbrook, Mr. Lauman, Joe Chotard, O. E. Hunt, Rudolph Jellnick, J. L. Bailey, Chas. Faught, J. A. McComb, Anton Leary, C. M. Kirkpatrick. The "Young Ladies Cooking Club" furnished a most appetizing dinner for the ladies. There were quite a number of ladies present also and the day was a most enjoyable as well as profitable one. The water for irrigation of the grounds will be furnished by the pumping plant recently installed by O. E. Hunt and C. M. Kirkpatrick.

The Shasta View Sunday School observed Children's Day with an appropriate program.

TAMES WILD BULL WITH LUMP SUGAR

MEXICO CITY, June 19.—The Teatro El Toro, once one of the most pretentious of bull-fight arenas, is now the home of grand opera as a result of President Carranza's decree that bull-fights should cease. Interesting grand opera, dancers and concert artists have appeared in the arena and it is stated that these various forms of amusement will be offered until some definite action is taken as to the future of bull-fighting.

It was in this arena that what is said to be one of the most remarkable spectacles in the history of the sport was staged. A bull El Bonito, known as one of the fiercest fighters, on being brought into the arena charged and killed three horses and injured as many men without being touched by the estoque of any matador.

As the bull stood bellowing defiance and with no one apparently willing to attack him, Miguel Ballo, a plectro who was a spectator in one of the boxes, leaped unarmed into the enclosure. In his outstretched hand he carried two lumps of sugar which he nonchalantly offered to the

Ask Your Boy

When the fighting was thickest—
When the suffering was greatest—
Where was The Salvation Army Lassie?
He'll say:
"She was right on the job!"

And now, back home—in the byways and hidden places—where misery always lives, where a mother needs a home, where men, women and children are on the down grade, she's still—
"RIGHT ON THE JOB."
