

PERSONAL MENTION

LITTLE SIDELIGHTS ON LOCAL HAPPENINGS AMONG THE PEOPLE OF THIS CITY AND VICINITY GOINGS AND COMINGS OF LOCAL FOLKS

Mr and Mrs. Charles J. Ferguson left this morning for Medford on his return journey. Mr. Canfield states that Salem is going to come to the camp for several weeks. Elks convention in full force, heard by a band, and they are going to make a fight for the next state convention for the Capital City.

Robert Fay is down from his home at Alkoma and is registered at the Hotel Hall.

Mrs. J. C. Stenmore, Mrs. James G. Catchett and Mrs. J. Pelton are city visitors from Fort Klamath.

J. P. McAuliffe of Lakeview, who is on his way to San Francisco, where he expects to meet his family and accompany them here, is stopping at the Hotel Hall.

Lee Canfield, president of the State Board of Barber Examiners, arrived in the city yesterday from Lakeview, where he had been on official business. While here he examined four applicants for licenses. He found the summer term of school at the Humboldt Normal.

Dr. G. W. Wisnour, who was visiting Portland in the district, has been returned on his summer home.

Miss Irene Tall is visiting friends in Swain.

Mr. J. C. Cannon of Oakton, Va., who has been spending his vacation at the Klamath Hot Springs, is in this city for a few days.

Palace Market

FOR SERVICE AND QUALITY

The only Meat Market in the city operating its own Cold Storage system.

Cold Storage in handling Meats means that Meats can be handled in all seasons of the year with the same degree of safety. That we are able to hold all Meats until the natural heat has left; that our coolers are free from flies.

Our government demands that all Meats handled under government inspection must be held in Cold Storage.

If you are looking for quality you will find the answer at the Palace Market.

A Well Shod Foot

Is half the battle in effective costuming. The prettiest dress is of little use if the feet are encased in cheap, unappearing or shabby footgear. Likewise the economical dress becomes a thing of beauty if the feet appear dainty and pretty. We are showing just what you'll need, with that Summerish gown, for evening wear, for lounging or for walking—and every style is right.

Prices, too, are cooling to the disposition. Hubby or dad can't kick if you buy them here.
