At the Theatres

This Man in The Open is first a sailor, then a cowboy, last a ranger. He knows the bitter cold of Labrador winters, what it is to be wrecked at sea, how it feels to live a brother to the grizzly in the wilds of the great Northwest. Always he is a lover and worshiper of nature. Simple of heart he is, and if a quaint, abounding, unflinching humor all his own.

He falls in love with a grand opera singer whom chance has brought to the forest and the wilderness, marries her, loses her, fights for her, loses her again, and at last well you must discover for yourself what happens at last. Here is a story enriched by the warm blood of life. Tonight at the Liberty.

The Mastercraft production of Thomas Dixon's vivid novel, "The One Woman," will be presented by Select Pictures at the Star Theatre on tonight. The story of "The One Woman" concerns the career of Frank Gordon, a brilliant young clergyman, who forsakes his wife and home to follow a career of socialism. When he is expelled from his church, Gordon enlists the services of Kate Ransom and later divorces his own wife in order to contract a common-law marriage with this woman. As time passes Gordon is supplanted in his own temple by radicals, even losing the love of Kate Gordon to another man. Heartbroken, and with all of his ideals smashed, Gordon kills the man who has won his common-law wife. When he is convicted and sentenced to prison for life, his former wife begs his release and takes him back.

Bessie Barriscale stars in the Triangle play, "Wooden Shoes," a quaint story of Holland life, which will be presented at the Temple Theatre tonight.

A $35,000 Dutch village, with canals winding among the windmills and tiled-roof houses, was erected for the production, which was directed by Raymond B. West. A company of several hundred people, including the popular Triangle kiddies, appear in the street scenes while Bessie clatters about in wooden shoes selling flowers to the tourists. Later the action shifts to America where Bessie meets an artist for whom she posed back in the Netherlands.

The Liberty Theatre will strikingly demonstrate the fact that there is really something new in the realm of the photoplay tomorrow when it will present for the first time the William Fox 1919 extravaganza, "All Baba and the Forty Thieves."

This extravaganza as such is familiar to the patrons of the legitimate stage in the big musical shows and the numerous revues that have been presented from time to time. The idea was not deemed feasible for the screen until William Fox daringly abandoned all precedent and presented "Jack and the Beanstalk" and "Claddin and the Wonderful Lamp." The phenomenal success which these met encouraged a further production along these lines and "All Baba" is the remarkable result. Friday only at the Liberty.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact, to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside lathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way—Ad

Tires Have Neither Eyes Nor Brains---Use Yours

Help your tires "watch their step," and save good tire money.

If tires could think for themselves they would pick their way as carefully as bare-footed boys. But as they cannot think, but go where you drive them, think for them.

If you do this they will repay you by giving extra good service. Let us give you suggestions on preserving your tires.
