

GERM'N EMPEROR GIVEN SCATHING

VICE ADMIRAL FOSS SAYS KAISER IS SUPERFICIAL, A GAMBLER, AND THE WORST ENEMY GERMANY HAS EVER HAD

BERLIN, July 4.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The former German Emperor is termed superficial, a gambler, "a dilutant of the worst kind and the worst enemy Germany has had since 1802," by Vice Admiral Foss in his revelations entitled, "Disclosures about the Breakdown." The Vice Admiral charges that the Emperor let things drop that he had espoused passionately, after he had lost interest in them. In his conviction that he understood everything the former Emperor, he says, went so far as to participate in a contest arranged by the Navy Department for plans to construct an armored cruiser.

The Vice Admiral ascribes the breakdown of the fleet to lack of decision and civilian courage among the officers, lack of disciplining and forgetfulness of duty, even undeniably.

Vice-Admiral Foss gives as the cause of war, first, the "peculiarity of the German people," second, that of the Emperor and third, the "power in the hands of the Emperor. He takes the leaders to task and says, Admiral Von Tirpitz was not a proper leader, that Von Scheer carried out the Skagerak fight with faulty tactics, that Von Hoetzendorf was incompetent but was made Chief of Staff because of his relationship and friendship with Admiral Von Mueller and Herr Ballin.

RUSSIANS AWAIT OPEN NAVIGATION

ARCHANGEL.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The population of North Russia is looking forward to the opening of navigation to relieve a general shortage in the simplest necessities and small luxuries of life from which it has suffered since the beginning of the Bolshevik revolution.

An American housewife, accustomed to buying the little things she needs without trouble, could hardly picture the condition of her sister in Archangel.

One wants, for instance, to sew a new dress. Perhaps one may obtain the material, at a fabulous price, or fairly reasonable if bought, strictly rationed, by card. Search for linings

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—Adv.

will prove even more difficult and then one probably would find it absolutely impossible to buy a packet of needles or a spool of thread. The same would apply to a man who had broken his watch crystal, or eyeglasses and wished to buy new ones.

In the matter of foodstuffs, the basic elements of diet, bread and meat and dried vegetables, can be purchased fairly reasonable, but at this writing, a pound of butter costs the equivalent of two dollars, eggs sixty to eighty-five cents apiece, and, the other day, when some tiny oranges were brought ashore from a ship, they sold at the rate of $1.50 each, and were bought up eagerly.

VICTIM OF HATCHET ASSAULT IS DEAD

PORTLAND, July 4.—Mrs. Caroline Stafford who was wounded late yesterday when her husband, R. W. Stafford, ran Amuck at their home with a hatchet, died today. Their son, Wirt, aged five, who was wounded by his father is still in a precarious condition.

An inquest has been ordered on the body of Stafford, who killed himself after attacking the family and setting fire to the home and that of the year old baby whom he killed. Three children besides the one who is wounded are left orphans.

TELEGRAPH STRIKE IS CALLED OFF

NEW YORK, July 4.—The strike of the commercial telegraphers employed by the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies was declared off today. The strikers failed to gain the points for which they struck.

RUM'S DEFEAT SENDS WOODSMEN TO REST PERIODS.

PULLMAN, Wash July 4.—Woodsmen, miners and other workers in the great outdoors, once the patron of the saloon for days at a time or until they were "broke" now are becoming gentlemen of leisure for weeks and even months at a time, thus spending their time off from work in thoro enjoyment of the rest that comes to work performed, according to H. E. Gregory, farm help specialist of Washington State college, who recently returned from a visit to the principal farm labor centers of the state. Mr. Gregory met the leaders of many of the state and federal labor-supplying agencies and bases his opinion on the comment made by a majority of them.

"A man comes into town, say, with several hundred dollars in hand," says Mr. Gregory. "There is no saloon keeper in town with whom he can leave his money. So, oddly, strangely, here is what great numbers of these men are doing. They are handing their money over to the keepers of restaurants and lodging houses. A lot of them pay for their 'board and room' six months to a year in advance. And then gentlemen of leisure, they enjoy the shady and cool places of the town for six months or a year. They have no care on earth and not the slightest desire to go to work when their board and room is paid for a year in advance. They are sober well feed, sleep well every night, and satisfied with the world just as it is."

'HELLO' STRIKERS STILL HELD OUT

SERVICE IN PORTLAND GIVEN IN A LIMITED VOLUME—STATE BOARD TRYING TO HARMONIZE DIFFICULTIES

PORTLAND, July 3.—The telephone strike conditions remain unchanged with service still being given, but in limited volume. The staff board of conciliation resumed its sessions today in an effort to harmonize the differences between the employers and the employees.

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

WATER

Just a few years ago the City of Klamath Falls was "Up against it." Perhaps there wasn't one person in five hundred knew it, but, nevertheless, it was a fact.

The situation was critical, the future of the City hung in the balance. Few realized, busy in their everyday affairs, that the Queen City of Southern Oregon, standing as she does on the banks of a great river and touching with her boundaries two great lakes, was famished for water.

There was "Water, water everywhere, but not a drop to drink;" it was starvation in a land of plenty, for the water of these big lakes and in the river was tulle soaked and germ contained.

The only available supply was being pumped from an open spring into distributing reservoirs, but the quality was questioned and the supply inadequate.

Something had to be done; something was done! And today the City of Klamath Falls is possessed of an abundant supply of the purest artesian water in the world.

Three 12-inch wells were drilled through hard rock, one to a depth of 78 feet, one to 80 feet and one to 160 feet, from which pure, cold, clear water gushed. These wells were cased, capped used in the City today is being pumped—water free from contamination of any kind, for it does not see the light of day until and sealed, and it is from these rock covered strata that the water it pours into the reservoir, and then only until it again runs away into the mains to serve you at the faucet.
