

PERSONAL MENTION

LITTLE SIDEGLIMPSES ON LOCAL HAPPENINGS AMONG THE PEOPLE OF THIS CITY AND VICINITY GOINGS AND COMINGS OF LOCAL FOLKS

Herald C. Dewey and family are expected tonight for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Trotton. The Deweys are from Pomona, California, and are driving through in their car.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Markwardt with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Markwardt spent yesterday fishing in Cherry Creek.

L. C. Reed and family of San Francisco are touring the country, and have stopped in Klamath Falls for a few days.

C. O. Grandfield, accompanied by P. B. Howie, are in the city from Washington, D. C.

Tom Dickson, of Chicago, is stopping in Klamath Falls for a short time.

H. L. Appleton and wife are paying Klamath Falls a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Van Ripper have returned from the celebration in Ashland and report a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Noon spent Sunday at Spring Creek plowride. Miss Claudia Spink and Mrs. M. H. Henry returned with them last evening.

Mrs. D. Freeman, who has been here visiting Mrs. O. L. Carter for the past two weeks, left on this morning's train for her home in Los Angeles. During her visit here Mrs. Freeman spent some time at Rocky Point and she is most enthusiastic over Klamath county.

Maud Hartford, John Barrymore's leading lady, has been in the city for two weeks on a vacation with her grandparents. They left this morning for New York, where Miss Hartford has an engagement to fill.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cofor returned yesterday in their car from California. Mrs. Cofor's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mounter, came with them for a visit here. The Cofors are glad to be here, away from the heat they encountered on their tour.

A. M. Worden and daughter Margaret left early Sunday morning on a fishing trip in the Keno district. As they were driving along the road a big deer sprang over a fence and ran across the road not forty feet in front of the machine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Orem held a picnic for friends and relatives on their ranch house lawn Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Bratton received word that her father, George W. Otey of Los Angeles, would be here tonight to visit with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunsaker and Miss Ruth Lindsey returned Friday evening in their car from Oakland, California, where they have been visiting for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Radcliff came in on last night's train from Dulce, Mexico. Mrs. Radcliff was Miss Ruth Ball before her marriage. Mr. Radcliff, who was connected with the Indian Service at the Klamath Agency before going to Dulce, will take up his old work here.

Miss Bess Kilgore and Miss Letha Driscoll came over from Ashland on yesterday's stage where they have been spending the week end.

Guy Merrill is in from his sheep ranch in Langoll Valley, on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hibbert left for San Francisco this morning. They were called there by the death of Mr. Hibbert's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Miller and family drove to Jenny Creek yesterday and made camp. Mrs. Miller and the children will stay for a few weeks.

Arthur and Mr. Miller will return and make a business trip to Weed. Miss Ina Graham returned last night on the boat from Rocky Point, where she has been spending the week end.

George Ulrich and family are back from their summer home on Recreation Creek with a fine catch of fish to show for their time spent there.

A divorce case has been filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court, Richard Schutte versus Eva Schutte.

Miller Hill community celebrated the 143rd anniversary of our independence by a monster picnic, held at the home of Charles Poindexter. There were 55 people at the Poindexter ranch at the time set for the festivities, with their baskets filled with every thing imaginable, that one could eat at a picnic. The picnickers were entertained during the day with races of every description, stunts and games while the many neighbors who came better acquainted with one another.

Jefferson Hinkle, son of the Madras Social Club, is a member of the "Big Six" of the Major War, was in Seaside. While here he has been busy with the writing of a scenario of the Major War.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith are leaving Tuesday in their car for an extended trip thru the state of Oregon and into Washington. They will visit in Spokane until about the first of August. Mrs. Crooks will be with them as far as the Dalles, where she expects to visit for a while.

Mrs. James Pelton and sister Mrs. Cochet of Fort Klamath are in the city on a shopping tour.

Mrs. A. L. Marshall is in town from her home in Olene for a short visit here.

Bob Turner and his sister, Iris are here from McCloud, California. They were both educated in the public and high schools of this city. Bob is busy shaking hands with old friends as this is his first visit here since his discharge from the army.

Dr. F. R. Goddard has taken the suite of rooms occupied by the late Thomas Drake, and is having the four rooms remodeled and fitted up with the latest medical equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Van Emon and children will accompany Dr. and Mrs. Hellman of the Klamath Agency, to Crater Lake over the week end.

Fred H. Mills has returned from Medford where he attended the hearing on the courthouse case, before Judge Calkins.

Miss Florence DuFault was a guest at the Hague ranch on the Keno road Saturday.

A. E. Hensinger was in from his Swan Lake home purchasing supplies for the coming week.

N. J. Chapman, Justice of the Peace has been ill for the past two or three days.

Miss Veva and Dortha Martin returned yesterday from Ashland, where they have been visiting their grandmother.

KLAMATH AGENCY PARTY ENJOYS OUTING AT LAKE.

Ten cars loaded with government employees from the Klamath Agency made a trip to Crater Lake over the Anna Creek road on the Fourth of July. The road was in good condition for so early in the season and all cars made the trip without a mishap. The majority of the party enjoyed a

Admirals in Command of Atlantic and Pacific Fleets and Retiring Commander

Admiral Henry B. Wilson (left); Rear-Admiral Henry T. Mayo (right); Admiral Hugh R. Rodman (in circle)

For the first time the United States has two admirals, Henry B. Wilson, in command of the Atlantic fleet, and Hugh Rodman, in command of the greatly increased Pacific fleet. This photograph shows Admiral Wilson and Admiral Henry T. Mayo on board the latter's flagship, the battleship Pennsylvania, while she was at anchor in the Hudson just before Admiral Mayo turned over his command. Admiral Mayo, now a rear admiral, becomes the head of the Section Board and later will become a member of the General Board of the navy.

For the first time the United States has two admirals, Henry B. Wilson, in command of the Atlantic fleet, and Hugh Rodman, in command of the greatly increased Pacific fleet. This photograph shows Admiral Wilson and Admiral Henry T. Mayo on board the latter's flagship, the battleship Pennsylvania, while she was at anchor in the Hudson just before Admiral Mayo turned over his command. Admiral Mayo, now a rear admiral, becomes the head of the Section Board and later will become a member of the General Board of the navy.

splendid picnic lunch near the rim of the crater and spent a very enjoyable day making the trip to the lake. On the return trip the company made a stop at Pole Creek bridge for a picnic supper and were there favored with an address by Mr. Frederick A. Baker. The day was pronounced by all as one of the most enjoyed of their lives. Chief credit for the success of the outing is due Mr. Walter G. West, supervisor, who was the prime mover in the event.

A regrettable accident occurred to Mr. Shelby M. Klamath Falls, who was a guest for the day. In making a detour from the trail he slid with some snow and fell down the rocky side of the hill a considerable distance, bruising him quite badly and rendering him unconscious for some time. He was taken to the Klamath Agency at once and this morning is reported to be doing very well.

SCALF RETURNS FROM FRANCE.

After more than a year's service overseas with the 115 Ammunition train, which was attached to the Sunshine division, Private First class Robert E. Scalf of Weed, California arrived in Klamath Falls last evening where he will visit his sister, Mrs. A. C. Lester. Scalf is a brother-in-law of A. C. Lester, who is in charge of preparing the honor roll of Klamath County.

Scalf had hoped to be home by last Christmas in fact, he had written his mother, Mrs. C. A. Scalf, to have a turkey prepared for the big feast day. However, he was detained for months along with several other boys in his organization. He was on the lines for nearly thirty six hours at one time near Nancy and was in range of shell fire. Scalf will return to Weed within a few days.

GIVES UP TO POLICE AFTER KILLING GIRL

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—Henry S. New walked into the Police station early today and said he wanted to give himself up for murder. He took the officers to an automobile standing outside and showed them the body of Frieda J. Lesser, 21, whom he said he had shot outside the city while they were on a ride after a quarrel over her refusal to marry him. New told the police he was the son of Senator New, of Indiana. Senator New, however, refused to discuss the matter when queried in Washington whether or not the man charged with murder was his son.

"Clear water wins," read a recent headline in the Sacramento Union after the passage of Sacramento's big bond issue to insure a clear municipal water supply. "Clear Water" ought to continue a winner all over the country if the prohibitionists run true to form.

Hear the July records at Shepherds. 7-1

attention to their work, but fail to obtain their master's backing's birth or survival for the sake of a child's necessity.

ITALIANS STUDYING NURSING.

HEMILIO, Italy, July 7.—Training in civilian nursing to be acquired in 1500 girls of Italian girls who, in 1918, are expected to bring home the benefits of their training and teach other Italian girls in the purpose of nursing scholars recently established by the Tuberculosis Commission of the American Red Cross here. Richard Beatty Meillon, a Pittsburgh banker, has financed three scholarships and the girls will soon leave to undertake their training.

DIDN'T ENJOY TAXI RIDE IN NIGHTGOWN

Mrs. Helen C. Waterman of Brooklyn don't like the caveman knight-hold stuff. Anyhow she accuses John E. Carey of Manhattan wealthy manufacturer of breaking into her apartment at night recently and carrying her off in a taxi—and without allowing her time to change from nightgown to proper apparel.

BASEBALL BEING PLAYED IN MEXICO

DALLAS, Texas, July 5.—Baseball is bidding for favor in parts of Mexico and may supplant bull fighting and other distinctly native pastimes, according to a Dallas sporting goods concern, which has just made a large shipment of baseball equipments to Monterey, Northern Mexico. This concern recently sent a salesman through the Northern part of Mexico and he reported that baseball was rapidly gaining favor and predicted it soon would become a national pastime in that country.

IN AIR OVER 15 HOURS.

MEXICO CITY—Carlos Santana, well known in Mexico as an aviator recently established a record for the republic in sustained aerial flight remaining in the air 15 hours and 15 minutes. The flight was designed as a test for a new 139 horse power motor which has been built in Mexico.

NOTICE ROYAL ARCH MASONS

Special Convocation Klamath Chapter R. A. M. Tuesday evening, July 8th Work in P. M. Decees. All members requested to be present. 7-21 GEORGE WALTON, H. P.

ENGLISH SCHOOL FOR WAITERS.

LONDON, July 7.—The dearth of good English waiters has prompted the Royal British Waiters' and Chefs' Society to open a school for the training of boys in the trade. Applicants will be admitted to classes where they will hear lectures by famous cooks, and where they will be educated in languages and deportment. During the war, waiters were largely displaced by women who thru their attractiveness and strict

GOOD FARM LANDS

GOOD FARM LANDS.
*Dandy 40-a tract, mostly in alfalfa, seven miles from Falls, fair house, excellent drainage. Price $3,000. Terms.

One of the best irrigated 30-acre tracts in the Klamath valley. It's on good road, near school, and only six miles from Falls. A bargain at $6,000. Terms.

Large irrigated tracts to suit purchaser; also stock ranches in all parts of the county.

HOUSES AND LOTS.
One of the best corner lots in Hot Springs Add'n, with sidewalks and sewer in. Only $500.

A good lot on 11th St., pavement, at $450. And a better one at $550, $600 and $650.

Good four-room house near High School. Price only $1,000, with $250 cash. Immediate possession.

Nice four-room house and small barn, one block from Main St at $1,150. Easy terms. Possession soon.

Good five-room furnished house in good location, large lot, garage. Price $2,100, on easy terms.

Five-room house and 75x100 ft. lot, only three blocks from Main St., at $2,000, on easy terms.

BUSINESS PROPERTY.
Large lot on Klamath Ave., pavement at less than $50 per foot, on easy terms. Look at this.

Big lot on Klamath, pavement, near the heart of the city, at $125 per front foot, on easy terms.

We have a 120x130 ft. apartment house site that would be hard to beat. Price is $10,000, on terms. We are sure the location will please.

Non-resident owner offers for sale a one-story brick building in excellent location; 35 ft. front, at $15,500, on easy terms. It is about the best little building in the city.

And then we have a one-story concrete building with 78 ft. front, with excellent income. It's among the cream of Main St. Ask us about the price. Chilcote & Smith, 633 Main. Phone—66.

LUCELLE MARSHALL LEAVES
The friends of Miss Lucille Marshall, instructor of English in the Klamath Falls High School during the past four years, are interested to learn that she has accepted a position in one of the High Schools of Seattle. Students are agreed that in losing Miss Marshall, Klamath County is losing a most competent and popular teacher. Her many friends, although sorry to lose her, are happy over her election to a more lucrative position.

ESTRAY
Come to my place 2252 Vine Ave., Klamath Falls, one dark Jersey cow and two weeks old calf, branded S over H on left hip and L 1 1 M on right side, owner may have same by paying costs.—W. E. Moore 5-31*

Hear the July records at Shepherds. 7-1

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE HERALD

FOUNTAIN PENS FOR TRAVELERS
Vacation time is the fountain pen season. A good fountain pen is an important traveling equipment. The notes and cards you send to friends can be written on the train, or at odd moments—your correspondence attended to without encroaching on precious time. Step in today and select a fountain pen. We have complete lines of several of the most satisfactory makes on the market. Lever fillers, in styles for both men and women. The point that best suits your hand is assured.
$2.00 TO $15.00.
Frank M. Upp
JEWELER
511 Main St.
Official S. P. Watch Inspector.
The HALLMARK Store

LIBERTY THEATRE
"THE PICK OF THE PICTURES"
H. W. Poole, Owner Matinee Every Day
TONIGHT
FRANK KEENAN
IN
"THE SILVER GIRL"
A Story of the Mines
Pathe Review
"HANDLING BIG TIMBER"
An Interesting Logging Picture
Note.—The above picture is of special interest to lumbermen and loggers.
DOORS OPEN AT 7 P. M.

GIVES UP TO POLICE AFTER KILLING GIRL
LOS ANGELES, July 7.—Henry S. New walked into the Police station early today and said he wanted to give himself up for murder. He took the officers to an automobile standing outside and showed them the body of Frieda J. Lesser, 21, whom he said he had shot outside the city while they were on a ride after a quarrel over her refusal to marry him. New told the police he was the son of Senator New, of Indiana. Senator New, however, refused to discuss the matter when queried in Washington whether or not the man charged with murder was his son.
"Clear water wins," read a recent headline in the Sacramento Union after the passage of Sacramento's big bond issue to insure a clear municipal water supply. "Clear Water" ought to continue a winner all over the country if the prohibitionists run true to form.
Hear the July records at Shepherds. 7-1

WRIGLEYS
Look for the name: All in sealed packages.
WRIGLEYS
Helps appetite and digestion. Three flavors.
IT'S not enough to make WRIGLEYS good, we must KEEP it good until you get it.
Hence the sealed package—Impurity-proof—guarding, preserving the delicious contents—the beneficial goody.
The Flavor Lasts
SEALED TIGHT KEPT RIGHT