

COMPOSER WRITS UNIQUE OPERA

COMPOSER OF "CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA" WRITES OPERA FREE FROM PERSONALITIES—MAKES THEM SYMBOLIC REPRESENTATIVES OF VIRTUES

ROME. Pisto Mascagni, known to everyone as the composer of Cavalleria Rusticana and numerous other musical works, has written a new opera, "Il Piccolo Marat," which is characterized here as distinctly a revolutionary step in operatic works. It contains no personalities as characters in the story but it constitutes for them symbolic representatives of virtues and ideals similar to the American pageant.

"I expect to produce my new opera next winter in Rome," said Signor Mascagni to The Associated Press correspondent. "The theme is found in the conflict of ideas between the autocrat and the democrat, between oppression and freedom. The time of it, of course, is not limited to any one period. The opera is symbolic of many periods and would just as readily apply to the stirring times of the American revolution as it would to the French revolution, or the Russian or the Bavarian.

"I have no characters in the production representing any particular personalities. There is no Napoleon, Marnierich or Garibaldi. My characters represent the ideas for which men have striven and also the ideas which have endeavored to keep men in subjection. There is a character for Justice, for Truth, for Freedom, and, on the other hand, for Tyranny, for Ignorance, for Wrong. The plan in my new work has been to depict in song the evolution of man from a slave to a free man thru the instrumentality of characters representing the abstract qualities for which man fought and on the contrary, the qualities he fought against."

NO MOVIES FOR HUN EDITOR

BERLIN, July 9.—Announcement is made by Maximilian Harden, German editor, that he declined a handsome fee and large royalties offered him for a motion picture play dealing with the career of the former German Emperor. Harden said he had no intention of entering the "movie" field.
