Frank Williams has started haying this week.

SHASTA VIEW

Rye haying is about completed in this vicinity and alfalfa is well under way; the heading will begin in a few days. Some are still sowing on the lake front. Fine country where one can stop sowing one day and begin heading the next.

The wheat and barley crops on the lake land are surprising those who have not seen them for a time, as they have come out wonderfully.

The Farmer's Club of Shasta View will hold a meeting at the school house next Friday evening. Everybody is invited to come and bring his neighbor, in order to help make these profitable as well as social meetings.

Mr. White, who owns the Barnes ranch sustained quite a loss last Saturday when his house with all its contents burned.

Scheble Bros. are the possessors of a new Ford car purchased in Medford.

The dance that was held at Lorella in Fordsey's hall on the night of the Fourth, was one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held in that place. The floor was crowded with dancers and a large number of spectators helped to swell the crowd. Several boys, who had just returned from overseas were present as were also a number of people from Bonanza, Klamath Falls, Portland and Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Roff De Haven entertained at an eight o'clock dinner last Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Gladys Hanselman of Los Angeles. The guests were Messrs. Lester Foggs, Wm. Shahan, Gene and Kenneth Wilkerson, Earl and Will Scheble. The piece de resistance of the dinner was roast porcupine. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing cards.

The regular meeting of the Women's Club was held on the fourth Thursday in June at the home of Mrs. T. Bieln on Goodlow Mountain. A large number of the members were present and a most enjoyable time was had. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Gus Keller, Vice President, Mrs. T. Bieler, Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Alfred Keller. The Aid Society will hold a Silver Tea next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Alfred Keller.
