At the Theatres

George Walsh, the popular star will be seen at the Liberty Theatre tonight in his latest picture, "I'll Say So."

Those who admire the George Walsh brand of dash and ginger will not be disappointed in this new production of his, for it is ever present in new and startling surprises.

"I'll Say So" is the story of a young American, who wanted a German hunting license as soon as he heard that the United States had declared war. He had flat feet however, and as the Germans were fast runners, Uncle Sam turned him down, because he needed men who could keep up with them.

George may have been too slow for the army but he certainly was not too slow for a number of German agents who were desperately engaged in stirring up a bush league war with Villa.

A Mexican raid staged with all the elaborateness of a serious drama is but a mere incident to form a background for the rapid fire action of the hero.

In "Rags," the story of a girl's rise from the lowest strata of life to a position of social importance, thru which she finds it possible to marry the man she loves, Mary Pickford, for whom the story was especially written by Edith Barnard Delano, finds a charmingly effective characterization. This original photoplay, starring the world-beloved "little Mary," will be seen for the first time at the Temple Theatre beginning tonight.

It may have been for the women of the country to take the positions held by the men while they served in the Great War and helped make the world safe to live in, but it is all wrong for them to keep these positions when their heroes come back home.

So firmly did they believe in those principles that they made a photoplay based on that theme, which has been released by Famous Players-Lasky Corporation as one of their special Paramount productions, under the title, "Oh, You Women," which will be shown at the Star Theatre tonight. Ernest Truex, the celebrated comedian, and Louis Huff are the principals of the cast.

The subject is one of the most absorbing that has come as the result of the recent war, and is particularly timely, because of the recent return of the warriors who served so well.

HUGGINS DELIVERS

Miller Huggins, diminutive manager of the New York Yankees, is living up to his reputation as a fighter for pennants—and has his team up there in the American League race. Huggins proved his class at St. Louis, although he did not win a flag with the Cardinals.

Shoe Styles Every Stitch Yank

One lesson that the war taught America was that we were not depending upon Europe one half as much for style ideas as was popularly supposed. The new summer and fall shoes have proved this out, because, while Paris style leaders were trying to shove the Cuban heel down our throats, American women are going their merry way, with the graceful high heel in pump and shoe that is 100 per cent Yank. Millady is here shown hanging out a line of seasonable hose—but it's not a wash—instead the newest in woven transparent patterns and a few embroidered styles.

in France. With no idea in mind that it would be post war propaganda, Mr. Emerson and Miss Loos, made this spectacular production, and their results have been commented on in a most flattering manner from all quarters, particularly by government officials.

RUM'S DEATH MEANS FAREWELL TO TIPS SAYS HOTEL PREXY

CHICAGO, July 10.—With the going out of intoxicating liquor, the country is also likely to go on the "tipless" basis, according to A. C. Stephens, president of the Ohio Hotel Association, who is in Chicago, arranging for the convention of his association to be held in connection with the Hotel Show here during the week of August fourth.

"I think that the day of tips is over," said Mr. Stephens. "With the European source of supply practically cut off, it is hard to get waiters. So the hotels have been more and more carefully considering mechanical devices to take the place of servants.

"It is surprising to note how many really good hotels have installed cafeterias. I predict that more of them will do so. The cafeteria, as you know, is a strictly tipless institution. Even in dining rooms where there is service, the movement toward doing away with waiters is making rapid strides. There are all sorts of mechanical devices for this purpose. A mechanical system for checking hats and wraps has already been devised and, I am sure, will soon come into general use.

"With the going out of liquor and the curtailing of tips in consequence of this, waiters will be asking a wage scale two or three times as great as the present one, and the hotel men simply can't afford to pay it."

JAPANESE BANKS FORM SYNDICATE TO HELP CHINA

TOKIO, July 11.—Eighteen principal Japanese banks have organized a financial syndicate for the purpose of advancing a loan to China as a member of the proposed new four power financial group. It is announced that the Yokohama Specie Bank will represent the banking syndicate in conducting negotiations with the financial syndicates of the three other powers the United States, Great Britain and France.

This consortium of American, French, British and Japanese bankers was organized in Paris in May last at a meeting over which Thomas W. Lamont, of New York presided. Representatives of the so-called "Big Eight" investors in China, comprising the firms of Mitsui, Mitsubishi, Okura, Kubura, Furukawa, South Manchuria Railway, Sino-Japanese Trading Co., and the Eastern Asia Industrial companies have submitted a joint statement to the Minister of Finance and the Minister for Foreign Affairs saying that offers of investments by the new syndicate should be limited to the construction of railroads, the opening of government highways, and works on rivers and canals. All other undertakings,

It has been stated that the amount of the loan which banking groups of the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan are to make to the Chinese government probably will be about $100,000,000 to be paid in four installments of $25,000,000 each over a period of years. The proceeds of the loan, it has been stated,

SPECIALS For Ranchers

EDITORIAL.
The fruit situation was never before so serious. The supply is far short of the demand. I went to the Rogue River Valley confident that I could make arrangements for all of the fruit I could sell, only to be disappointed and to come home with the warning to the people of Klamath county: Buy your fruit wherever you can, and buy it now. If you put it off expecting that you can get it later, you will find it is not to be had. Loganberries, raspberries and cherries are practically a thing of the past. Blackberries, peaches and apricots are about the only fruits to be had, and these are very scarce. That is why I say buy your fruit wherever you can get it. Otherwise you will find your fruit closet empty this winter.
I am still getting my fruit every evening and have it ready for the first delivery the following morning. The same is true about vegetables, thus enabling you to get your fruit and vegetables almost direct from the trees and garden.

Now that the haying and harvesting season is at hand, demanding large purchases by ranchers, I want an opportunity to figure with you for your business. I can make you attractive prices on everything you buy, especially on goods in case lots. The best evidence that my prices are right is the increase in my business and I know that if you buy from me once, you will buy again. That is why I just ask you to give me a chance to figure on your next bill.
