SAYS BERTILLION SYSTEM IS CERTAIN CLUE TO IDENTITY

LOS ANGELES, Calif., July 13.—The most-mentioned man in modern newspaper writing—"the unidentified man"—would become extinct and crime almost disappear, in the opinion of George K. Home, captain of detectives in the Los Angeles police department, and scheduled to become chief of police, if every person were to leave on file with the authorities his fingerprints and Bertillion measurements.

This, declared Captain Home, would make possible the identification of all persons murdered or killed in accidents; present mistakes in the identity of babies by hospital attendants, and prevent criminals from assuming, successfully, the identity of honest citizens.

RUM'S KICK FADES BESIDE NEW DRUG

LOS ANGELES, Calif., July 14.—On the heels of prohibition has come a new form of robbery which has been successfully tried out here on a local grocer.

Two men appeared in his establishment having all the ear marks of being traveling salesmen. They informed the grocer they were selling a number of new drinks that were being introduced on the market which, while strictly within the law, had some of the properties of the banned liquors, and asked him to sample them.

When the grocer later awoke in a receiving hospital he was informed that he had been drugged and his store robbed.
