WILSON SENDS HIS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

Senate to Approve Treaty With France

NEGOTIATIONS HELD BY TIES

Washington, July 29.—President Wilson in his message to Congress today urged that the senate approve the treaty with France along with the early ratification of the treaty with Germany. His message was sent by messenger instead of the President appearing personally.

The submission of the treaty came after a long criticism by Republican members of the senate who openly charged that the President had violated the article of the treaty by failing to present the pact along with the Versailles Treaty.

President Wilson said in part in his message: "I take great pleasure in laying before you the treaty with France, the object being to secure that republic the immediate aid of the United States in case of any unprovoked movement of aggression against her by Germany. I earnestly hope that the treaty will meet with your approval and receive your ratification. I was moved to sign this treaty by considerations which I hope, seem as persuasive and reasonable to you as it seemed to me."

That America was bound to France by the particularly sacred in that she helped us win our freedom, was one of the President's many striking phrases. "Two governments who wish to be members of the League of Nations ask leave of the council to be permitted to go to the assistance of a blood whose situation is one of peculiar peril, without waiting for the advice of the League to act."

In taking such pledges, the chief executive declared "we prove faithful to the high ideal of gratitude." Such an act as this seems to me proof that we are a people who see the true intent of duty and prefer honor to its own separate course of peace."

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The Senate Foreign Relations committee unanimously favored the report on the treaty with Colombia. The treaty will be taken up immediately and the vote is expected soon.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Senator Underhill's resolution authorizing the Federal Trade commission to investigate the recent increases in the price of fuel oil, especially on the Pacific Coast, was adopted today by the Senate.

CHAPLAIN RETURNS SUNDAY.

Bishop Paddock, who has not been in Klamath County since his return from France, where he acted as Chaplain, will be here Sunday. Members of the Episcopal church are arranging for services to be held on that day.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

A marriage license was issued last evening to Charles Moran and Besse Jellinek, both of this city. The young people were married at eight o'clock last night by Judge N. J. Moran.

COUNCIL OVERRULES REMONSTRANCES ON HIGH STREET PAVING

Remonstrances and objections to the paving of High and intersecting streets between High and Pine streets were denied and overruled at last night's regular meeting of the city council, and assurance was given of the resumption of the work until completion.

Reports from the city engineer finally settled the long squabbling back and forth over the proposed pavement, when it was definitely shown that the demonstrators were short approximately 13,000 square feet of having the necessary two-thirds to defeat the improvement.

The resolution of attorney Manning with some minor changes, providing for certain regulations for operation of the rock crusher and the giving of an indemnity bond by Cofer Brothers was adopted last night. The resolution also provided for the revocation of the permit on November 1 which allows Cofer Brothers to operate their crusher in their present location. The firm will be allowed to complete their contracts for crushed rock that they now have under way.

Seventy five dollars was appropriated from the incidental fund to provide for the decoration of the City Hall for the convention. Mr. Miles was appointed to attend to the matter.

Plumbing inspector Mann tendered his resignation which was accepted.

It was the will of the council that all sidewalks that are in bad condition should be repaired for the Elks Convention. New sidewalks were installed on Second Street along the frontage of blocks 36 and 29. All property owners are asked by the council to co-operate with the city in cleaning up their premises for the big convention in August.

OFFICER CHARGES OTHERS OF GUILT

NEW YORK, July 29.—Lieutenant Frank "Hard Boiled" Smith, who has been charged with exercising cruelties in dealing with American soldiers in a French prison farm, testified before the house investigating committee today.

He placed full responsibility for the cruel treatment of the soldiers were subject to squarely upon the shoulders of Major General F. S. Strong and Colonel N. P. Grimestone.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribers receiving their papers through the mails are requested to examine the date following their names. It tells you when your subscription expires. When this date is reached, your paper will be stopped, unless you have renewed your subscription. During the past month we have been lenient on this point, because we have been revising and correcting our list and wanted to have it absolutely correct before publishing this notice. Beginning August 1, every paper will be discontinued when the expiration date is reached. No attention will be paid to the name of the subscriber. The mailing clerk will simply examine the date, and if it indicates that the subscription has not been renewed, then he will remove it from the list. It is not a question of credit or anything of the kind. It is simply a systematizing of our mailing operation, and must be followed rigidly to enable us to avoid making mistakes. When you renew your subscription, no receipt will be sent, but the date following your name will be changed. Watch this, and you will then know that your money has been received and that you have been given credit.

The attention of our city subscribers is called to the fact that on next Saturday the carriers will collect for the paper. Please be prepared to pay them so that they will not have to make more than one call. We ask this out of consideration for the boys, who suffer as much from the heat as do their elders.

PORTLAND MAN NOW A BELIEVER

Thought That the Stories He Heard Were Exaggerations, But a Visit Here Has Caused Him to Change His Mind.

J. C. Ainsworth, president of the United States National Bank of Portland, and Colonel Salmon, its cashier, have just returned to the Rose City after a week's sojourn in Klamath County. While here he visited the various box factories and sawmills, and drove down through the valley as far as Malin, and if ever a man left Klamath County convinced of the immense resources of this section, that man was J. C. Ainsworth.

"Of course" as you know, we of Portland have heard a great deal about Klamath County. You can't blame us if we received it all with a grain of salt, for the stories were so big as to seem almost absurd to us. But my visit here has changed my mind. There is nothing absurd about what I have heard, unless it is the fact that it falls so far short of what is really here. I can readily understand now why you are the second city in the state in the matter of railroad business—something I never even thought of believing. And I can understand a great deal more, and that is why you are soon to be the second city of the state and of the important centers of activity on the Pacific Coast."

To all of which Colonel Salmon gave ready assent.

MINE HOST HALL NOW IN WASHEE BUSINESS

Sh—h—h! Don't tell it to anyone, but Mine Host Bert Hall is not smiling the smile he usually smiles, and all because of the fact that his friends are getting too persistent with their joshing about a new enterprise that Bert has engaged in. Usually he can stand a joke just as well as anyone, but then there are jokes and jokes, and this joke is being joked too far, so his friends had better "lay off" until after the Elks convention. It's all about a laundry! and you know how many tunes can be played on such an instrument, and all the boys are beginning to play their little tune, set to words that are getting tiresome—so much so that they no longer bring to the surface the sparkling repartee they did at the beginning.

It would seem that Bert, with his usual foresight for cleaning things up, decided that the time was opportune for another laundry, and has become one of the owners of what was originally named the White Pelican laundry, and later changed to Your Home laundry. But remember: Sh—h—h!

TARIFF CHARGES ARE INCREASED

PORTLAND, July 29.—State and Portland city officials plan to fight the tariff increases that were filed with the Public Service Commission today by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. The increases are effective today, and will particularly affect residence phones throughout Oregon. The company declares that the newest rate increase is necessary.

Indications are that the Public Service Commission expects to review the rates immediately.

SAGE HENS BRING HUNTERS GRIEF

After Bagging the Limit They Decide to enjoy an Old-Fashioned Roast. With the Result That They Eat so Much They Break Machine.

How would you like to be so full of sage hens that you broke down your automobile?? Well, that is just the experience of Percy Evans, Frank Evans, Boyd Newbanks, Chas. Ballin and Frank Lucas. Last Sunday they drove into the Lorella section, confident that they could get the limit and get back to Klamath Falls in time to supply the meat for the spread to which they had invited their numerous friends. They got the limit, all right, and started for home, but before leaving they decided they could have an old-fashioned roast all by themselves. And that is where the trouble started, for it tasted so good that they "overloaded," with the result that when they cranked up the old machine and hit the trail there was a growl and a roar and a smash, and there they were, with no help in sight, and doomed to play hide and seek with the jack rabbits until 3 o'clock Monday morning.

Just at this time they heard a sound that was music to their ears. It was a machine. They stopped it all right, and who should it be but Will Baldwin, who got tired walking the floor with his son and heir, and decided to take him out for a little spin, because he has already discovered that the hum of the engine has a very soothing effect. It did not take long for Will to get next to the situation, and after making a bargain that meant sage hen for another table, he got out a rope, and it was not long before five tired, sleepy hunters tucked themselves in their little beds and declared "never again."

BIG EXCURSION IS PLANNED FOR SUNDAY

One of the biggest excursions of the year is planned for next Sunday. It is to be given under the auspices of the ladies of the Sacred Heart Church. The destination is to be Odessa. Buses will leave from the assembly hall in the rear of the church about 7:30 and will also meet the boat on its return trip. Those who do not care to be bothered with taking their lunch will have opportunity to get sandwiches, ice cream and cake on the boats. Arrangements have been made for the accommodation of about four hundred excursionists. The reports from Odessa are to the effect that fishing was never better and this will afford those who have not done so a chance to try their luck at fishing, as well as helping them to keep cool and comfortable.

NEW BUILDING AT FIFTH AND MAIN

Collins and Still Have Decided to Erect a Class A Structure, for Which They Have Had Many Applications.

A. B. Collins and L. W. Still have decided to erect a two-story Class A building, with a full basement and with walls designed to carry a third floor. This structure is to be erected on their property at the corner of Fifth and Main street. Notice was today served on the Western Transfer company and W. C. Davenport, the present tenants, to vacate the premises within thirty days.

When Messrs. Collins and Still arrived here a few days ago, they decided after looking the situation over that it might be advisable to build a modern structure on their property, provided they could get tenants. No sooner was this statement published than they were besieged with applications and it is now only a question of deciding to whom they shall rent.

Architect Heide is preparing the plans for the building and as soon as the property is vacated, operations will start.

TROOPS HASTEN TO CHICAGO TO QUELL RIOTS

Chicago Experiences Near Reign of Terror

TWENTY-FOUR DEAD

Whites and Blacks Deliberately Arm to Stalk Their Prey—Street Car Strike Aids Materially in Spread of Rioting—Crowds Storm Undertaking Establishment to Get Body of Black.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Chicago experienced a near reign of terror last night and early this morning in the continued street fighting between whites and negroes. Bloodshed reached such an extent that 4,000 soldiers were sent here last night to quell the trouble.

The rioting spread outside the south side colored district today and serious fighting was indulged in by both sides. Even the exclusive north side residential district received a touch of the disorders. Killings continued after daybreak bringing the number dead to 24 by mid-forenoon, with hundreds injured. Police were busy this morning investigating three other killings that were reported.

Both whites and blacks enraged by the cruelties armed themselves last night and deliberately went out to stalk their prey. A street car strike added materially in the spread of the rioting when thousands were forced to walk to work. Fifteen thousand street car employees were on a strike for higher pay.

Both races seemed to take the initiative in the fighting although it appeared that the whites were the aggressors. A great crowd threatened to attack the undertaking establishment of a white man who had taken a negro corpse. After that experience dead negroes were not taken by white mortuaries.

FINE PAINTING IS PRESENTED TO CLUB

Word has been received here that Senator George T. Baldwin has presented an oil painting of Crater Lake to the Masonic Club of San Francisco. The painting is the work of Mrs. Grace Fountain, whom the Senator says, has no equal in reproducing the "scenic wonder" on canvas.

The painting has been hung in the main reading room of the club, which occupies the second floor of the Palace Hotel. It will no doubt be of great assistance to Mr. Baldwin in his untiring efforts as a Klamath booster. In his letters to his friends here he always tells of new converts he has won over to Klamath County, with his stories of the fish waiting to be caught here. He likewise has the pictures to back his fish stories.
