NEW MEMBER OF U. S. FARM LOAN BOARD

Most of Asbury F. Lever's 13 years in congress as representative from South Carolina have been spent in dealing with problems along agricultural lines. For the last six years he has been chairman of the House committee on agriculture. He has now resigned to become a member of the Farm Loan Board. Both Republicans and Democrats paid him tribute at his leaving the House.

TOURIST DECRIES LACK OF AUTO CAMP

The following letter was received this morning by The Herald, and is one more instance to show that tourists note the lack of a good auto camp in Klamath Falls:
 "Editor Herald:

Dear Sir—I want to thank you for the prompt recovery of a sack containing a lot of old, but much needed camping clothes; all due to an advertisement which I inserted in your paper recently. Great is the power and usefulness of the Press!
 "Klamath Falls is lacking in a good public auto camp, and your citizens, your merchants especially, ought to try to remedy this deficiency. Ashland, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Eugene, on our trip north, provided excellent accommodations, and the smaller towns of Tye River, Crescent and Prineville were not lacking, as we came south from The Dalles. Fort Klamath, has the most comfortable camping grove we have found in our six weeks outing so far.

"A shady grove, spring or town water and an absence of mosquitoes and flies are the essentials. Thousands of auto parties are touring California and Oregon this summer, and tens of thousands will be doing the same in another year or two. Naturally, after the first day or two out, all of the food and other supplies are purchased en route, and a comfortable camp site will often hold a party several days, giving time for study of the advantages and resources of the town that treats them well.

"You certainly have a live and thriving young city here, and our party is leaving with regret. Yours truly—W. R. Townsend."

The first fall hat! That is the most important idea in every woman's head just now and her dreams are a medley of velvet, ostrich, silk, and flowers. Any woman promptly describe as "a love of a hat" this graceful broad-brimmed picture hat of black panne velvet with its two sweeping plumes of un-curl'd ostrich in Foch blue.
