SHIPYARD MAN IS PRAISING IT

SEATTLE WORKER SAYS TANLAC STRENGTHENED HIM UP AND ADDED SIX POUNDS TO HIS WEIGHT

"Since taking Tanlac I have not only gotten complete relief from my trouble, but have actually gained six pounds in weight, so you may know by that why I am so enthusiastic over this medicine," said Louis Vognald, of 1127 West 64th street, Seattle, while in Bartell's Drug Store recently. Mr. Vognald has lived in Seattle for the past twelve years and is employed at the Skinner and Edgley shipyards.

"About two years ago I began to have trouble with my stomach," continued Mr. Vognald, "up to that time I had always been perfectly healthy and could eat just anything that was put before me, so when this trouble first began to come on me I didn't pay much attention to it, because it didn't seem to affect my appetite any, for I would get hungry the same as usual, but I soon found out that things I had eaten all my life and which had never hurt me before began to disagree with me. What I would eat commenced to sour my stomach and after a meal I would have a miserable full, tight feeling that would make me feel mighty uncomfortable and I would fill up with gas so badly that sometimes I would feel like I could hardly stand it, and I was troubled a lot with a very disagreeable taste in my mouth. This kept getting worse and worse all the time till I got in such shape that it looked like everything I would eat would just seem to lie in my stomach in a heavy lump and I would be in misery for hours afterwards. Then it began to affect my sleep and it got so that if I would even eat just a very light supper I would lie awake for hours after I went to bed, suffering terribly with gas and that full feeling in my stomach and this kept up till I got so little rest that when I would get up in the morning I would feel as tired as when I went to bed and it would take a lot of will power for me to pull myself together so that I could get off to work.

"I had heard Tanlac recommended very highly by some of the boys in the shipyards, so I made up my mind to give it a trial and it certainly has straightened me up completely. My appetite is fine now and I can eat just anything I want and I never suffer a bit with that gas or full feeling in my stomach and have already gotten back my old time health and strength. I can eat the biggest kind of a supper now and go to bed and sleep like a log till morning and I get up feeling fine and hungry for breakfast and ready for work. Right now I feel as strong and well as I ever felt in my whole life and am mighty glad to recommend Tanlac, because I know by actual experience what it will do for a person."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Store and in Lorella by the James Merc. Co.—Adv.

HUNS PURCHASE QUANTITIES OF YANKEE STORES

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES IN GERMANY, Aug. 11.—Old material used by the Third army on the Rhine is being disposed of in a hurry. German civilians alone recently have been buying from twenty-five to forty carloads of salvaged material each day. Germans assemble in Coblenz, or the other towns where the auction sales are held, by the hundreds, some coming from Cologne, from Mayence and others as far as Frankfurt, or Main, Cassel and other parts of unoccupied Germany.

At a recent sale in Coblenz with a German-speaking doughboy as auctioneer 125,000 leather jenkins were sold to the Germans for 2,900,000 marks. (The recent army exchange on marks is 2.50 marks for one franc) The same day 30,000 raincoats, many of them having been used by American soldiers during the war, were sold for 250,000 marks.

The Germans eagerly buy anything offered by the Americans, particularly any articles containing leather or rubber. Ten thousand American-made gas masks were sold a few days ago to civilians who planned to make use of the rubber for commercial purposes. More than one hundred tons of harness, some of it German made and abandoned after the armistice, were disposed of at a recent auction sale near Coblenz.

Forty thousand pairs of American field shoes, many of which had been worn and torn in the march of the doughboys from Luxemburg to the Rhine in December, were sold in lots at a special sale.

VOCATIONAL PLANS WORKING OUT WELL

CAMP LEWIS, Wash., Aug. 11.—The War Department's new educational and vocational training plans were initiated in all branches at Camp Lewis by order of the Commanding General. These are the plans which convert the cantonments into military universities. Enlisted men may take, at their own option, not to exceed three hours a day for five days a week, any of the 22 educational subjects, or any of the 120-odd vocational subjects. Their military duties are arranged so as to permit them time for these studies.

Under the vocational training plans it is not necessary for a man to serve in the certain branch he elects for his study. He may be enlisted in a line unit, and volunteer for mechanical training. These plans especially appeal to the young man who desires to learn a trade and earn his way at the same time; to better himself mentally, morally and physically, to qualify during his enlistment period for higher education or more lucrative employment after his return to civil life.

A Governor Visits Women Land Army Workers

They said the women's Land army of war times was a find. Here is just a part of the 1919 crew in mid-season with their "trick clothes" showing off acts of sun, rain and weather of a busy season. This picture was taken at Ulster County New York, as he farmerettes knocked off for a day to entertain Governor and Mrs. Alfred Smith of that state. Gov Smith is testing spring water from the old pump. The farmerettes will have a bumper crop on this farm this year.
