T. M. Cunningham was in Saturday from his ranch at Pine Grove buying supplies.

Mike Pudoff spent Saturday in the county seat purchasing necessary articles for his haying crews.

R. H. Van Sickle, who was in Klamath Falls over the week-end, from Swan Lake valley, reports an especially heavy crop of hay this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson have returned after an extended vacation to the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ludden drove to Crater lake over Sunday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hamley and son, John, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Worden, spent the week-end at Crater Lake accompanied by Mrs. Worden, Mrs. L. Sargent, and Miss Margaret Worden. The party drove around the Rim of the Lake on the new road which has just been opened.

R. J. Sheets spent Sunday at Pelican Bay installing lights for the Elks barbecue, which will be held there Thursday.

Mrs. George Hurn spent the week-end at Crater Lake with friends.

Mrs. Burrell Short left on the train this morning with her mother, Mrs. Routly, whose health is very bad in this high climate.

Sunday, Roy La Prairie took Miss Eva Hanks, Miss Nell McAndrews, and Miss Ester McAndrews, to J. C. Johnston's summer camp on the Upper Klamath Lake for a chicken dinner. The party were guests of Miss Anna Mae and Jenny Johnston.

Miss Octavia DeLap left this morning for Berkeley, California. Miss DeLap is a senior in the University of California and will finish this spring.

John B. Palmer and the Temple party were passengers on the Crater Lake stage this morning and yesterday.

E. M. Igle, of Eugene is spending a few days in Klamath Falls, on business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Purdy and daughter of Corvallis, are stopping here for a short time, while making a vacation tour of Klamath County. Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Marsh are city visitors from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Neale are here from Sacramento visiting for a few days. H. F. Harpor, a resident of Grants Pass is in town this week.

A. K. Bishey, of Portland, is in town on business this week.

J. Ross is a tourist from Clinton, Mo., who has stopped in Klamath Falls for a few days.

F. P. Conner and L. A. Fearing with Mrs. E. A. Fearing are here for a time from Portland, Oregon.

J. P. McAufliffe is in from his ranch in the Fort Klamath district on business.

Mrs. Fow Harvey and Miss Harvey are staying here at present from their home in Kansas City.

Miss M. E. Keegan and Miss A. M. Corbett arrived on the train last night from San Francisco.

F. A. McCann, E. H. Dea, and E. E. Dick are in Klamath Falls from Bend.

George Stephenson and Ed Gerr-spent yesterday in town from the Wocus Marsh.

William L. Albright, one of the men who invested heavily in Klamath property and assisted in getting the town on a firm commercial basis, is here from Cincinnati on a business visit. Mr. Albright owned the Ellis and Albright ranch near Fort Klamath and also Ellis and Albright had a ranch near the Lost River Gap several years ago.

Mrs. Jim Stephenson and her mother, Mrs. Ratcliff are in town from Merrill on a shopping trip.

Mrs. John Shepherd of Pine Grove did shopping in town over the week-end.

"Our party agree unanimously that Crater Lake is the most wonderfully beautiful point of scenery we have seen in all our visits since leaving Philadelphia," said C. Shillard-Smith this morning, who with his wife, Mrs. Philip Jagode and Mrs. Arthur Murphy of New York, are touring the country. The party is at present on its return trip to Los Angeles, where they will visit before returning to Philadelphia. When asked how traveling was in the middle states Mr. Shillard-Smith said that tourists need not hesitate an instant because of the roads as the Lincoln highway offers most comfortable traveling.

Vernon Motscherbacher, who arrived Saturday from Portland, brings word of several Klamath boys who have not been here since the war. Joseph Skelton has gone into the truck contract business with an army companion and is going to do a thriving business. Another Klamath boy who has just been discharged from the service is Dan O'Connell, and he is out surveying on the Columbia Highway, for the summer months. Chet Huggins, who was to have taught in the high school here this winter has resigned and will work with the Travelers Insurance company, of which Mr. Motscherbacher is state manager. In speaking of their trip down here by car, Mr. Motscherbacher said that the Fort country looked like a well kept garden, but that "the bad roads made a man so made clear thru that it was impossible to enjoy the country." And it leaves very much the same impression on others who tour thru the country and these visitors say the roads hold development back.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith and son Gordon, Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. McLeod, and Mrs. Margaret Pitts motored to Crater Lake Sunday.

Hong Sing, who has not been here for some time is back on a visit from San Francisco.

ZANE GREY'S RIDERS.

She leaned against him there in the desert, and her body was limp and trembling with fear for his safety. Her face was upturned to his. Woman's face, woman's eyes, woman's lips—all acutely and blindly and sweetly and terribly truthful in their betrayal!

The man put her from him gently and loaded her upon her feet, while the blood raced wild and a thrilling tingle unsteadied his nerve. Something that he had not seen and felt in her, that he could not understand, seemed very close to him, warm, rich, fragrant—sweet as nothing had ever before been sweet to him.

"Child, are you thinking?" he said. "Do you realize we are here in the desert, alone, you and I? Have you thought that we may want to make our way out to civilization again? Or do you want to stay here in the un-annexed, the unconventional regions? What is your choice?"

A strange, ringing, vibrant quality gave her voice, singular power. "Stay!" she said.—From Zane Grey's "Riders of the Purple Sage." At the Liberty tonight.

At the hour of going to press Haiti was not claiming that it won the war.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Proud of Your Home?

Then you probably have music in the form of a good phonograph or a piano—possibly both.

Our new store, which will be occupied by us soon, is the cause of our assembling the finest display of Musical Instruments ever made in Southern Oregon.

We are going to be proud of our new business home, and will be glad of an opportunity to show you the various objects of our pride and to convey them to your home if it is lacking in music.

7 Facts Worth Remembering About the Annual Summer Sale of Liebes FURS

1. Not a clearance of furs; the vast majority of the furs on sale are in styles authentically correct for next fall and winter.
2. All the furs are of H. Liebes & Co. exquisite quality and beauty.
3. Furriers are paying 75 per cent to 100 per cent more for raw pelts than they did last year. Soon retail fur prices must take a very large advance. If you wait you will have to pay more—much more—for your furs.
4. This sale offers the best fur-buying opportunities that will come to you during 1919.
5. By paying a small deposit, you may reserve any sale fur for delivery in October. Furs so reserved will be kept in our Cold Storage Vaults without charge.
6. Those who make their selection now, during the early days of the sale, will have the advantage of selecting from undiminished assortments.
7. Our entire stock of made-up furs is on sale at

20% to 50% Off
