

Just Received a Lot of 'Em by Express

Like the One in the Illustration

AND A LOT OF OTHER NEW CLASSY STYLES; ALSO CONSERVATIVE STYLES IN NEW CLEVER PATTERNS. THIS IS THE WEEK YOU WILL WANT TO LOOK YOUR BEST, SO STEP IN AND DRESS UP AT

KKK STORE

Leading Clothiers and Hatters

KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES

KNOX HATS

NETTLETON SHOES

FAMILY BASEMENTS PILFERED NIGHTLY BY BOOZE BURGLARS

Wouldn't it make you sore if you had stored up a good quantity of "booze" in your basement before prohibition went into effect, only to return home some evening and find that thieves had pilfered all your supply of "brewwater"? Wouldn't that make you sore?

There are many peevish families in Klamath Falls today. No less than ten families have been the victims of the anti-prohibition gang that has been operating with surprising results during the past week or so. Their plan is simple. The thieves await the departure of the residents, and later phone to make certain that no one remains at the "spotted" house. An entrance is effect. Everything is turned up-side-down, and topsy-turvy in the hunt for "precious water." Once located the thieves load their bags with bottles and pass out to their headquarters, wherever they may be.

Rumor has it that a certain family was visited by the gang the other evening and had stolen their 10-gallon jug of whiskey that has long been the pride of the home. Another family is minus 90 bottles of assorted wines and whiskeys. And so on—many are those who are mourning their fate and unable to take recourse through the law lest they be exposed. Moral—Don't keep booze in your basement—lock it up in your safe.

The Roman Catholic diocese of Charlottetown, P. E. I., is 90 years old today.

DURHAM SISTERS JOINED IN DOUBLE RING CEREMONY

Last Saturday night at 10 o'clock, at the home of T. M. Durham, the marriage of his two daughters, Bernice E. to Mr. Dell C. Hawley, and Ada M. to Mr. Delmer Harland Kruger, was solemnized by Rev. Simpson Hamrick of the Methodist church.

The brides are well known in Klamath Falls and have many friends who will be agreeably surprised when they hear of their marriage.

Mr. Hawley is in the employ of the Lawrence cigar store, and is well known, as is also Mr. Kruger, who is with the Vochatzer boys.

After the ceremony the brides and grooms, with the many friends who were there to witness the scene, were invited to the dining room to partake of the good things that had been prepared, which were inviting to the appetite and enjoyed by all.

The two couples will have the good friendly wishes of all their friends in their journey through their married life, wishing them many joys and few sorrows on the nuptial sea.

At the Theatres

Those who have not yet seen the William Farnum de luxe productions, "The Riders of the Purple Sage," and "The Rainbow Trail" at the Liberty Theatre, should lose no time in doing so, for they will be shown for the last time tonight. These two pictures carry out the full story of Lassiter's avenging career, and how well he keeps his word can best be judged by seeing the pictures. Last time tonight at the Liberty.

Suspense is the dramatic keynote of "The Fire Flingers," a Universal Special Attraction starring Rupert Julian and directed by himself, which comes to the Liberty Theatre Tuesday. Tense situations pile up and merge into a tremendous climax. This "big" scene is a combination of melodrama, pathos and tenderness executed by three exceptional players—Julian, Jane Novak, his leading woman, and Clyde Fillmore, who plays the chief of police.

"The Fire Flingers" is a real thriller. Its exciting moments are strung along without any let-up and a terrific surprise just precedes the denouement, into which Julian and his supporting cast have put every ounce of histrionic energy and subtle art that these talented screen folk possess.

The plot is chock-full of interest. The story was written by William J. Neidig, for the Saturday Evening Post, and the scenario is by Waldemar Young.

Julian enacts a dual role; he is at once Otwell, a wealthy publisher, and Hatton, an ex-convict just out of the penitentiary. The star-director has a capable foil in E. A. Warren, who is the Chris Cotterill of the piece, while Fay Tincher, the comedienne "vamp," Fritzie Ridgeway, William Lloyd and Fred Kelsey have important parts.

FLY TRAPS

The Peck boys make a GOOD Fly trap at 741 Walnut Ave. $1.25 each 8-31"

Subscribe for the Herald.

Anglo-Japanese Alliance

Bert Hall Consolidates His Our Home Laundry With the Japanese New City Laundry

Through the columns of this paid advertisement we purpose to tell the people of Klamath Falls what the Japanese have done for California and other states where they have settled, what they will do for Klamath Falls, and how Bert Hall has furnished the funds to promote Japanese interests in this community. We will wind up this series of articles by publishing the names and addresses of every citizen of Klamath Falls who assists them by patronizing the Japanese. Then if the business men and working men of Klamath Falls decide they want a Jap colony, Jap stores and Jap business houses of all kinds, and that they desire to support business men who patronize the Japanese against white labor, we will retire and turn our business over to Bert Hall and the Japanese.

Klamath-Superior Laundry

O. W. ROBERTSON

White Labor Only. Under Sanitary conditions.

Phone 33