TROOPS CLASH IN GERMANY

COBLENZ, Aug. 15.—Throughout Germany there has been a renewal of clashes between troops of Gustav Noske, secretary for military affairs, and civilians, but just what has caused the disturbances is not clear in dispatches published in German newspapers. American army officers, however, believe it is quite possible that the manifestations are due to the food shortage, the relocation of Noske troops and the subsequent appearance of strange troops in many cities.

In Celle, Hanover, there has been trouble for more than a week, at times the manifestations amounting almost to riots over the appearance of a Jaeger battalion, which arrived recently from the eastern front. The citizens contended that this battalion had eaten too much of the city's food supply. In Heilbronn, Wuerttemberg, individual soldiers have been attacked and beaten by civilians at night and their insignia stolen. Disturbances between Insterburg, West Prussia, citizens and soldiers of the First Jaeger zu Pferde regiment has reached such a state that the civil authorities have made demands upon the government that the troops be moved to another district.

WOULD WALK THE FLOOR FOR HOURS

WILLIAMS WAS NERVOUS FROM 20 YEARS TROUBLE—WANTS WORLD TO KNOW ABOUT TAN-LAC

"Of all the medicines I have taken during the last twenty years, Tanlac is the only one that I have yet found that will do all they say it will do," said David Williams, who is employed as saw filler in one of the large mills in Seattle, and lives at 2114 East Columbia street, Seattle, the other day.

"When I commenced taking Tanlac," he continued, "it had been at least twenty years since I had been able to eat anything without suffering terribly afterwards. I was very careful about what I ate, but my stomach finally got in such bad condition that the very lightest kind of food would sour and cause me to be bloated up with gas for hours at a time. I would often have cramping, spells after eating. I also suffered a great deal with rheumatism in my hands, and sometimes my fingers would be so cramped and drawn that I would have to stop work and rub them for a good while before I could hold my file well enough to go back to work. More than half the time I was not able to sleep on account of the pains in my hands and stomach, and would often have to walk the floor all night long. I finally got so rundown and worn out that I was hardly able to do any work at all.

"That was the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac, but I want to say right here, that by the time I had finished my first bottle of this medicine, everything was very different with me. Why, Tanlac has so completely overcome my troubles that I can truthfully say that I am as well and hearty now as I ever was in my life. I have a good appetite, and I can eat and digest anything anybody else can. In fact, my stomach seems to be in first class condition. I don't have to stop my work and rub my fingers now, for the rheumatism has left me altogether. I work hard every day, and when I go to bed now I have no trouble getting eight or nine hours good, sound sleep every night. I can hardly realize the fact that I am a well, strong man again after all these years of suffering, and I am so happy over it all that I just want to talk about Tanlac all the time. I am glad to have the chance to publish my experience with Tanlac, for I just feel like I want the whole world to know what a wonderful medicine it is."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Store and in Lorella by the James Merc. Co.—Adv.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR

That beautiful, even shade of dark glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

"FILLS THE BILLS."

"Just like home," is the way the boys express it about the home cooked meals that are being served at the Catholic School, Eighth and High Streets, where it is served in the old-fashioned American plan—only you are "not allotted" but help yourself from the well-filled platters that come to the tables steaming hot, prepared by the best cooks of the parish. As one Elks put it, "It sure fills the Bill." Breakfast, dinner and supper are served and will be all during the convention.

JESTER RETURNS

Glen Jester arrived in the city last evening from France. For weeks he had been bending every energy to get back to Klamath Falls for the Elks convention, and he was a happy chap when he stepped off the train last night. He has been in France for nearly two years. After the convention, and after he gets settled down to earth again, he will re-enter the employ of VanBellen's, where for many years he so efficiently and courteously served the patrons of that popular bootery.

Noted Britons and American Who May Be Prominent at Trial of the Ex-Kaiser, Should This Come About

Sir Gordon Hewart

Lord Sumner

If the ex-kaiser is brought to trial these three men may have a prominent part in determining his guilt in connection with the atrocities committed by the Germans on land and sea. London dispatches state that Lord Sumner, one of England's leading attorneys, has been selected as president of the inter-allied court to try the former German ruler and a number of German officials. Sir Gordon Hewart, solicitor general of Great Britain, will head the prosecution, and London believes that Chief Justice White is the logical choice of the United States as a representative at the tribunal.

NOTICE

I am now prepared to furnish Shasta Sand from the Hoey, Conn. sand and gravel pit, in any quantity that may be desired by contractors and builders.

BRAMWELL IS HERE

F. S. Bramwell of Grants Pass is here to see that the Portland boys toe the mark, for since he has been induced by the State Chamber of Commerce to join forces with that organization he is going to take a brotherly interest in the delegates from the Rose City. He is going to have his hands full, for they are the friskiest bunch that ever broke posture.
