BIG RECEPTION PLEASES MANY

Brilliant Affairs Is Given Saturday Afternoon at White Pelican Hotel in Honor of the Visiting Ladies of the Convention.

The parlors of the White Pelican hotel were crowded Saturday afternoon with handsomely gowned women. The visiting ladies who were in town with the Elks were given a reception by the ladies of Klamath Falls, which was one of the big festivities of the week.

The function was given under the direction of Mrs. Soule-Bratton, president of the Women's Improvement Club, assisted by many prominent women. The honors were done most hospitably by the reception committee, led by Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mrs. C. H. Underwood and others.

Special attention had been given to the musical program, which was of a character that both surprised and pleased the visitors. The musical arrangements were under the direction of Mrs. A. J. Voye and Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein.

Great interest was centered upon the appearance at this function of Mrs. Vera Crisler-Berryhill of Los Angeles. Mrs. Berryhill is a native of this city, and her success as an artist has been followed by her friends here with keenest interest.

personality, far exceeded the expectations of her friends. Mrs. Berryhill sang "Mad Scene" from Lucia de Lammermoor, and the "Waltz Song" from "Tom Jones," "The Birthday" Woodward, and "Dawn."

A popular touch was added to the program by the singing of "Mother o' Mine" and "Mother Mahree," by Mr. W. H. Morgan, baritone, of San Francisco. Mr. Morgan has a rich baritone of sympathetic quality.

Mardi Gras Lacks Punch. "Bill" was a bit tired after the parade and the big Mardi Gras carnival that had been planned on the streets lacked some of the punch and life that it was expected to have.

Even after the big 15 car special left at 12:15 Sunday morning the funmaking continued. By 3 o'clock Klamath Falls' biggest celebration was history.
