ENGLISH VILLAGES SHOW PROSPERITY

LONDON, Aug. 22—More money than ever before is now in circulation in English villages, and its easy expenditure is apparent even to the casual passerby. Extra wages earned by workmen, housemaids and farm laborers have brought about an astonishing social change.

One evidence of this is seen in the great increase in bicycles and motorcycles, which has necessitated the establishment of countless garages and repair shops throughout the country. Dancing and other clubs are springing up everywhere. Whist clubs are favorites, and the costliness of the prizes for which the members play would, a few years ago, have constituted almost a scandal. The sense of well being and the demand for a more comfortable life is assigned as the cause for this last development. It is taken by sociologists as a permanent thing which is more likely to increase than to diminish.
