A piano in the home is necessary if the child is to make advancement.

A large stock of pianos at conservative prices and convenient terms makes the Earl Shepherd Co., next door to the Postoffice, the logical place to visit, if considering a piano either now or in the future.

SPARTACANS GROW WEALTHY DURING BIG REVOLUTION

BERLIN, Aug. 26.—Enormous amounts of public money were diverted into the pockets of the Spartacans during the revolution in Berlin last winter, which was led by the then Chief of Police Eichhorn, according to information obtained by a Parliamentary Commission which is investigating the administration of the fugitive former police chief.

Police officials who have examined Eichhorn's ledger say it is impossible to determine how great was the amount taken by the Spartacans. Evidence has been submitted that Eichhorn's Security Guard who was on duty at the railway station during the outbreak helped himself to six million marks of army funds which had been brought from Rumania.

Auditors asserted that Eichhorn made frequent raids on the official treasury through faked requisitions and even drew funds for which no accounts were rendered. In one instance, these are alleged to have totalled more than 300,000 marks.

One hundred thousand cigars and 170 smoked hams were confiscated by the old police regime have mysteriously disappeared.

BELGIAN DOCTORS OUTLINE PROGRAM TO HELP MOTHERS

BRUSSELS, Aug. 26.—Two hundred physiatrists from all parts of Belgium met here today to outline a program for protecting and nourishing infants and mothers, also for nourishing and educating war orphans.

Henri Jaspar, minister of economic affairs, was present on behalf of the government, and thanked those present for what they had done for Belgian children during the German occupation. He announced that the government was now working on a scheme to establish child-welfare institutes in every commune in the country, the bill being now before parliament. When this law is passed Belgium will be the first country in the world to have such institutions in all big cities and all country districts, no matter how remote. Dr. Rene Sand, just back from America, recounted the program made there in child work.

TENNIS CLASSIC STARTS TODAY

Net Stars of the World Gather in Competition on the Courts of the Famous West Side Club on Long Island.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The most important titular tournament played in the United States since the international Davis Cup matches of 1914 opened at the courts of the West Side Club, Forest Hills, L. I., today, with the inauguration of the championships of the National Lawn Tennis Association. Unofficially, the world championship in singles for 1919 may be considered at stake, as the entry includes the winners of both the Inter-Allied and the All-English championships played recently in Europe. In these tournaments the best players of continental Europe, England, Africa and Australasia competed, in addition to several of the ranking experts of America.

Jap Star Will Perform

Whatever the outcome, tennis devotees are certain to witness the fastest court play seen in this country, if not in the world, within the past five years. With an entry list that includes Norman Brookes, the famous veteran Australian star, together with his three younger teammates, Gerald Patterson, present English champion; Randolph Lycett and R. V. Thomas, opposed by the leading United States experts, tennis history is certain to be revised. The Orient will also be represented by the most formidable racquet wielder, for Ichhya Kumagae of Japan must be reckoned with, and although he has been a resident of this country for several seasons, he is still the standard bearer of Japan in international matches.

Past Champions Entered

Against this imposing list of foreign entrants is one of the most impressive American entries that has been made at any similar tournament in recent years. In fact, the titular tennis tournament will be one of exceptional interest in any period of the game, for the draw contains the names of an unusual number of American champions, past and present. In addition to R. Lindley Murray, the present title holder, by virtue of his victory in 1918, the list includes R. Norris Williams, champion in 1916 and 1914; Wm. Johnston, champion in 1915, and Maurice McLoughlin, winner in 1912 and 1913. Added interest is given the entry of McLoughlin and Johnston, for both aspire to regain their court laurels of the past, and the attempted comeback will be followed with more than ordinary attention by followers of tennis in all parts of the world.

The competition will not be confined to the Australian contingent and the American champions, past and present, however, for there is a host of other entrants from which it would not be surprising to witness the emerging of a new star. W. T. Tilden of Philadelphia and Charles S. Garland of Pittsburg must be reckoned with, while several of the younger element from both the Pacific Coast and the Middle West are likely to cause upsets, if they are at the top of their game. The same holds true of Vincent Richards and the Anderson brothers, who are among the leaders of the Eastern youngster division.
