Prince Whose Attempt to Smuggle Jewels by Airplane Was Failure

Prince of Wied

Smuggling by airplane sounds easy, but seemingly it isn't. The Prince of Wied, according to cable reports, decided that jewels and other valuables belonging to the royal house of Saxony would be safer in Sweden than in Germany. Thousands of dollars' worth of gems and securities were dropped from a plane near Malmö, on the south coast of Sweden, but customs officials caught the prince's confederates just after they had picked up the precious packages.

PRESENT LEADER ONCE PRISONER

President of Provisional Government of Bosnia-Herzegovina Kept as a Prisoner During the Period of the War.

SARAJEVO, Aug. 29.—One of the men were arrested by Austrian authorities after the assassination of Archduke Ferdinand in 1914, is now President of the Provisional government of Bosnia-Herzegovina and is recognized as one of the leaders in the new kingdom of Jugo-Slavia. He is Athanasije Shola. He was kept in prison at hard labor during the war.

Today, in his office in what was formerly part of an Austrian palace, Mr. Shola described his years in prison and subsequent rise to power. He is a Herzegovian, forty-two years old and considered to be a man of exceptional ability.

"One hundred and fifty-six of us were placed under arrest in July, 1914," he said. "There was no proof that I was in sympathy with the Jugo-Slav propaganda, but the authorities suspected what was in my heart. Sixteen of the men arrested at that time were condemned to death. The death penalties were not executed, because of the remonstrance by the King of Spain, but the prison sentences were all made effective.

"I went to prison on July 26, 1914. My cell was a small one—a mere cage, and I was kept at hard labor. In October of 1915, the people of Bosnia-Herzegovina, as in other Jugo-Slav provinces of the Austrian Empire, anticipated the debacle of the empire, and organized a National Council for the conduct of affairs. As soon as the Austrian army fled this council came into full executive power and the men wrongly imprisoned were liberated. I was released from prison on November 1, 1918, and almost immediately was chosen by the National Council as president of the government of Bosnia-Herzegovina."

He said that the people generally were in sympathy with the central Jugo-Slav government at Belgrade.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

IF MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT DARKENS SO NATURALLY NOBODY CAN TELL

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmothers recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

Be sure you get Dr. James' Headache Powders—then there will be no disappointment.

HUN SOLDIERS ARE ATTACKED

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES IN GERMANY, Aug. 29.—Details of civilian attacks on German soldiers in various parts of Germany have reached the headquarters of the American forces recently showing the bitterness of German civilians against the troops of Gustav Noske, the German Minister of Military Affairs.

Several discharged German soldiers who entered the American area a few days ago asserted that patrols of the First battalion of the Twenty-second Reichswehr regiment stationed at Hanau were safe only when proceeding in force. These former soldiers were members of this unit and said that almost at any time when a soldier appeared in the streets of Hanau alone, or accompanied by one or two comrades, he was likely to be attacked by civilians and that many serious encounters between soldiers and civilians had occurred lately.

On the other hand, men of the railroad regiments at Hanau said that they never had any trouble and were on good terms with the people.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

SAYS INDIGESTION RESULTS FROM AN EXCESS OF HYDROCHLORIC ACID.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acrid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescent and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.—Adv.
