ITALY LOOKS TO RUSSIA FOR COAL

ROME, Sept. 13.—The Italian government is trying to obtain coal from Southern Russia so as to stave off the menace of a winter without a source of heat. Two commercial commissions have been sent to the vast basin of the Donetz in Southern Russia where Italian experts estimated there were untouched coal lands that would yield 57,000,000,000 tons. The experts also say there are 174,000,000,000 tons of coal in Siberia or in parts of European Russia outside of the Donetz basin.

It is calculated that if the coal supply of Southern Russia were properly exploited the territory would furnish all the coal necessary for the Mediterranean countries.

Coal for Italy is now quoted at $550 at Norfolk, but it costs $30 a ton to bring it to Genoa.

SATIN DRAPES CLING UNDER NET OF ECRU

Satin for the late summer and early fall wear has shown fashion's tendencies for the clinging drape and lengths varying to the likes of the wearer, although the shorter skirt bids to rule. The maid here is wearing a brown satin draped in graceful folds and veiled with ecru net and her girlish is of jade and white with a perky bow of ecru.

SIGNS MARK PARK ROADS.

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 13.—About 1,000 signs have been distributed and are being put up under the auspices of chambers of commerce and commercial clubs, marking the National Parks highway across the entire state. This highway already has been marked, it is stated, in Minnesota, North Dakota, and Washington, and when the Montana signs are all in place motorists may find their way from the Twin Cities to Seattle without difficulty.

Society

Monday night Miss Betty Gaddis entertained for the second time this fall at her beautiful home on Eagle Ridge in honor of Mrs. Tobin S. Curtis, wife of a well-known army aviation instructor, who has been visiting her for some time from Sacramento. The guests from the city made the trip on the boat by moonlight.

The evening was spent in dancing with several intermissions, during which time Mrs. Curtis, dressed in the costume of a small boy, appeared in several clever sketches.

Refreshments were served about 12:30, after which the guests started on a moonlit journey back to Klamath Falls.

Those present besides the guest of honor and Miss Gaddis were Marjory Delzell, Myler Calkins, Pearl Leavitt, Clara Calkins, Helena Guest, Audrey Roberts, Faye West, Jean Perry, Vera Houston, Margaret Smith, Maybelle Leavitt and Ina Graham; Mr. and Mrs. Dell Gammon, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Haines, Kenneth Perry, Tom Delzell, Howard Orem, Mr. Wishard, Coleman O'Loughlin, Earl Humphrey, Paul Keller, Bob Riggs, Wilbur Telford, James S. Sheehy, Arthur Leavitt, Carl Newbury, Harry Prather, Dick Slater, Don Newbury and James Robertson.

At a delightful party Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Newell honored Mr. and Mrs. Homer Humphreys, who are leaving for Spokane Monday. Many friends of the young people were present besides employees of the U. S. R. S., of which Mr. Humphreys has been a member for five years. The evening was spent in playing cards, and a dainty lunch was served by the hostess during the evening.

Guest swere Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Covell, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Koppen, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Smith, Gus G. Johnson, E. V. Hillius, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yardley, Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Lloyd Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fry, and Miss Margaret McMahon.

Surprise parties have been a favorite pastime of the young people this year and one of the latest and most charming surprises was given Paul Hilton on his 19th birthday.

It was entirely impromptu and each guest brought some "goodies" to add to those his mother had prepared for the occasion.

Those who took part in the surprise were Karl Montgomery, Meta Chastain, Mildred Thrasher, Mary Jenkins, Ruby Kenyon, Viola Santamaw, Paul McDonald, Clarence Montgomery, Alfred Petersteiner, Roland Jefferies and Byron Teed.

Society folk this afternoon are to be the guests of Mrs. George Merryman and Mrs. L. Gerber, who are entertaining at a five hundred party in honor of Mrs. A. D. Bailey of Portland and Mrs. H. D. Moulton of Washington, D. C., both sisters of Dr. George Merryman.

Elaborate plans have been made for their guests by Mrs. Gerber and Mrs. Merryman, at the home of Dr. George Merryman, in Hot Springs. Decorations will be with flowers of fall season, yellow predominating. Refreshments will be served to the ladies during the afternoon.

Invited guests are Mesdames George Watt, Charles Wood Eberline, Charles Moore Sr., Leslie Rogers, J. B. Merryman, W. O. Smith, A. M. Worden, E. D. Johnson, Don Zumwalt, Maude Baldwin, E. B. Hall Oscar Shives, Charles Roberts, G. A. Krause, E. W. Gowen, Sr., Silas Obenchain and Mrs. W. P. Johnson.

The younger set, represented by the high school students have opened their year of festivities with a dance at the Opera House Friday night, to which many of the Alumni and friends of the school were invited.

IRISH NATIONAL AID CLUB ISSUES FINANCIAL REPORT.

DUBLIN, Sept. 13.—The Irish National Aid and Volunteer Dependents' Fund, formed after the rebellion of Easter week to provide for the families of men killed or imprisoned has just issued an audited account of its work which shows that the total amount it received was $689,040 of which it expended $679,730. Subscriptions were received from all over the world, the largest contribution $296,740 coming from the United States while $109,970 came from Australia, and $25,850 from New Zealand. Ireland itself contributed $218,125.

BEAVERS AND VELVETS FOR KIDDIE HATS

Beaver and velvet for winter hats are materials that stand the test of time to popular favor especially for school and dress of the little miss. Here are three new models shown for fall and winter, all of which have a distinct appeal of their own. The tight little cap at the top—lines bordering on the overseas model, will be most popular for school wear. The white beaver in the center is Mary Jane's very best. The black beaver shown below has its wide sweeping turned brim which may be shaped most any way to best bring out the fresh beauty of the child face.

Constipation Dangers

Constipation is a dangerous disorder—more serious than many suppose. The condition allows waste matter to accumulate and poison the system.

Nyal's Liver Salt will relieve constipation. It will do it in nature's own way—that is, by stimulating the liver into healthy action. It is pleasant to take and mild in action. Price 65c.
