BIGAMOUS UNIONS OVER ENGLAND ARE RAPIDLY GROWING

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Increase in bigamous marriages throughout the United Kingdom, much more pronounced since the end of the war, is causing grave concern, and there is a growing disposition to treat bigamy as a venial offense.

Sir Bernard Mallet, the registrar-general, is credited with the statement that English marriage laws afford less security against bigamy than the laws of almost any other civilized state. His department has prepared proposals for their amendment, but nothing has been done to carry them into effect. A new set of parliament is necessary, and Sir Bernard suggests as a preliminary that some plan be outlined by which accurate information concerning the principals in a proposed marriage may be obtained by the competent authorities before the ceremony can be performed.

For marriage by license in England it is required that both parties make solemn declaration that they know of no impediment to their union, that they have resided for fifteen days in the district, and, if they are minors, the consent of guardian or parents has been obtained. But no solemn declaration is required for such particulars as name, condition as to marriage, rank and residence.

SHASTA VIEW

The recent rains have put a stop to haying and harvesting for a time but it is hoped no serious damage will result from it.

Mrs. Hunt and daughter, Ada, were in Klamath Falls Wednesday of last week. Miss Ada remained until Friday, when Mr. and Mrs. Hilyard brought her home and spent the day here.

The ladies of the Helping Hand met at the home of Mrs. L. S. Miller Wednesday, spending the day sewing. They tied a comforter for Mrs. Hayes, who recently lost everything by fire.

C. W. Bailey, O. E. Hunt and John Faught were Bonanza visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Argraves and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ward were Klamath Falls visitors Friday.

The Shasta View school opened September 8 with a fairly good attendance.

Jack Parker, who has been on the sick list for a few days, has not recovered from his illness as yet.

It is estimated that at the present rate of increase, both of consumption and of the output of petroleum, the known oil fields of the United States will be exhausted by the year 1935.

BEIGE VELOUR SMA... OF SUIT SMARTNESS

Tailleur is the newest name for the one costume in woman's wardrobe which tells best her secret of smartness in the suit, says Fashion Art. The word means perfection in line, and appropriate choice of material and trimmings. Therefore the beige velour shown below, with its trimmings of gray squirrel is the last word in Tailleurs. As for hats—these two new models from the metropolitan shops show that mildred need not worry as to whether she can wear a large or small hat. She may have either—or both and still be correct. The popular colors for fall wear are the grays, navy blues and beige.

YANKS STRIPPED TO SHOESTRINGS

Yaqui Indians, Following Their Customary Habits, Raid Mining Camp and Steal Everything They Can Get Their Hands On

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 16.—Americans were not molested, but Mexicans were literally "stripped to the shoestrings" by the Yaqui Indians, who recently raided the mining camp at San Nicolas, Sonora, 140 miles southwest of Douglas. Food was taken from the Mexican miners' cabins and even their clothing was seized, according to Leo G. Cloud, managing director of the mining properties, who has arrived here.

The Indians were led by two men with skins as white as any American's. Mexicans said they were Moro Indians.

Members of the band were poorly clothed, some having no covering about the waist. All were armed, some with modern high-powered rifles, and others with older, more crude weapons. There were no Mexicans in the party.

The efforts of Mrs. Carl Knudson, who had charge of the commissary, alone kept the camp from being left altogether without provisions. After the commissary was looted of $1,400 in gold and practically all its goods, Mrs. Knudson pleaded with the leader for food, saying that it would be strange for a great chief to leave the camp starving. The chief turned back two sacks of flour.

When Mrs. Vetch, wife of the American mill superintendent, became hysterical with fright during the raid, the Indians asked her husband to remain with her until they had left and to assure her she would not be harmed.

However, the Mexicans were roughly treated and nearly everything they possessed which might be carried away was taken.

The raid upon San Nicolas was notable for the reason that this was the first time that Yaquis have raided that section of the Mochis district, although tribal tradition claims it as part of the Yaqui possessions.

KING MAY OCCUPY BEAUTIFUL HOME

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 16.—King Albert of Belgium may yet occupy a beautiful home here built especially for him by Samuel Hill, Seattle railroad man, when, as crown prince of Belgium, Albert planned to visit Seattle during the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition here in 1909.

For ten years the big house has been standing ready to receive its royal guest, for Albert changed his plans and did not come to Seattle during the fair. Now Albert, as king of Belgium, with Queen Elisabeth is soon to tour the United States. He may come to Seattle.

Mr. Hill, a personal friend of King Albert, went to Europe recently, and, as guest of the ruler, visited the Belgian battle lines.

"King Albert's house" as the place is generally known here, stands in a fashionable residential section of the city, overlooking a portion of Puget Sound. The house was built along lines of Belgian design and was decorated as houses are decorated in Albert's native land.

KLAMATH FALLS BOY COMES HOME AFTER LONG NAVY SERVICE

After close to two years of service in the United States navy Roy Orem returned to Klamath Falls last night and intends remaining here for some time. He was discharged at New York about ten days ago.

Orem is perhaps one of the last Klamath Falls boys to return to his home following the signing of the armistice on November 11, 1918. He rated as a radio electrician in the navy and made several trips on different vessels to foreign shores. Included in his voyages were two trips to South America. He was last on the transport Plattsburg.

Roy Orem is a brother of Midshipman Howard Orem, who has been visiting his parents for the past two weeks. Howard is on leave of absence from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. He will be in attendance at the naval academy for three years more before he is graduated as an ensign.
