

MANY EXHIBITS LISTED AT FAIR

Final Arrangements for the Klamath County Fair Will Be Made on Saturday—Large Number of Exhibits Are Diversified Workmen are hurrying preparations for the Klamath County Fair that is scheduled to take place near the Wilson Bridge on October 2 and 3. Tents and booths will soon be going up and every indication is that everything will be in readiness for the opening of the fair. A special dressing will be placed on the track in order to assure that it will be in good shape for the horse races.

Final arrangements for the fair will be made Saturday at a meeting of the Klamath County Fair Board. Close to 30 contests are scheduled to be held during the week, covering every possible county product. Klamath County Club members who have completed their projects will be allowed to compete for prizes in the following contests: Corn growing, potato growing, vegetable garden, poultry raising, pork production, sheep raising, calf raising, canning, and rabbit raising. Canning team and cookery contests are also listed.

An open juvenile contest to boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 16 is listed. Exhibits of all kinds will be awarded prizes under this contest. General exhibits include poultry, butter and cheese, farm products, farm and community, fruit and flower, and domestic science.

Pearl Necklaces

Pearls, which have been so popular this summer, will be even more so this winter. The necklace will be an important feature of the smart day costume, and the height of fashion for evening wear. Oriental pearls cost many thousands of dollars, but exquisite copies and wonderful iridescence are reproduced in artificial pearls that serve the purpose of beauty and fashion equally as well as real gems. We show pearl necklaces, graduated and uniform, in a variety of fashionable lengths and sizes of pearls. Each strand is fitted with a solid gold clasp.

STATE MEETING WILL BE HELD

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—A state conference of the Roosevelt Memorial Association will be held in the Hotel Benson at Portland, Oregon on Thursday, September 18th. Judge Henry E. McGinn of Portland will make the chief address. In making this announcement at the National Headquarters today, William Boyce Thompson, president of the Association, said he had no doubt that the start of the Oregon campaign will be marked by all the enthusiasm for the memorial movement which distinguished the regional conference of the northwestern states held in Portland in August. Colonel Roosevelt had many warm friends and admirers among all political parties in Oregon and they are united in making an effective demonstration of their regard and affection for the great American.

The Roosevelt Memorial Association will establish a public park in Oyster Bay near the Roosevelt home at Sagamore Hill; erect a great monument in Washington; and endow a society for the perpetuation of the ideals of Theodore Roosevelt. State Headquarters for Oregon have been established at the Portland Press Club and contributions to the memorial fund may be sent to that address. Dr. Henry Waldo Cæe, of Portland, who enjoyed a friendship of more than thirty-five years with Colonel Roosevelt, is chairman of the state committee; Thomas B. Neuhausen, of Portland, is secretary; and Edgar H. Sensenich, vice-president of the Northwestern Bank of Portland, is treasurer. Among their associates are United States Senator George E. Chamberlain; Arthur I. Moulton, of Portland; Bruce Dennis of La Grande; Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, of Salem; A. F. Flegel, of Portland; Mrs. Frederick Eggert, of Portland, John H. Smith, of Astoria; Dr. Andrew C. Smith, of Portland, Judge William Ball Gilbert, of Portland, of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, is a representative of Oregon on the National Executive Committee of the Roosevelt Memorial Association, and Walter Taylor Sumner, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Oregon, is a member of the State Committee.

NEEDED REST IS TAKEN BY 'TIGER'

Premier Clemenceau of France Hies Himself to the Country for First Real Rest Since Beginning of the Long Years of Warfare

LA TRANCHE, Vendea, France, Sept. 18.—Premier Clemenceau arrived here the other day in search of peace and quietness. The Premier looked as if he needed rest and there was nothing suggestive of the "Tiger" as he descended from the dusty automobile which had borne him from Paris to Thesaa. He appeared old and wan and tired and heaved a sigh of relief as he sat on an old wooden bench in the shady garden of the villa Philippon, wiped the perspiration from his brow and enjoyed the ocean breeze.

The Premier does not like public functions and probably the only one of the past few months, excepting those of the retrieval of Alace-Lorraine, at which he did not appear bored, was the Victory Day parade. He has lost none of his good humor, however, and when asked how he had enjoyed the trip from the capital, replied:

"Somewhat tiresome but the country is so beautiful. Yesterday we visited several chateaux on the Loire I should have enjoyed greatly having a little sleep at Nantes but the crowd, after midnight commenced to acclaim and cheer me under my very windows at the Central Hotel. What a funny idea."

Accompanied by a couple of old, weather-beaten fishermen, the Premier of France went for a stroll along the beach, speaking with them in the dialect of the province.

INSURANCE WRITER RETURNS FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ulrich and family returned last night from a months visit in the East. Mr. Ulrich attended the meeting at Toronto, Canada of the Mutual Life Insurance men, who had written $100,000 worth of business during the year.

There were only 270 men from North America who qualified this year and Mr. Ulrich found himself a unique figure at the convention as he was the only man who came from a small city and second, he came farther than any other delegate.

Although he had a pleasant trip and visited all interesting eastern cities, Mr. Ulrich said this afternoon that "they couldn't pay me enough to make me wish to live in the East."
