FRANCE POSTPONES
LENOIR EXECUTION

PARIS, Sept. 19.—The Execution of Pierre Lenoir, who was tried by Senator Humbert and others on the charge of communicating military intelligence to the enemy has been postponed. He was to face a firing squad today. He re-iterated his demand to be confronted with Cailloux, former Premier, now also under arrest as a traitor. Lenoir declared that "before God and Man I swear I am no traitor."

AUSTRALIAN SAYS YANKS ARE NOT 'FOUR-FLUSHERS'

SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 19.—The Americans were not "skitters" said Charles E. W. Bean, the Australian official war correspondent after a luncheon given to him by the New South Wales Institute of Journalists. Mr. Bean prior to the war was a Sydney newspaper man.

"Skiting" in the Australian vernacular is boasting, perhaps the nearest approach to it's meaning, "American slang, being "four-flushing."

"I have never yet heard an American say that America won the war, but I have read it," he went on "America did not win the war. There is no doubt of that. America helped to finish it."

PARIS CALLS HER LEGS
"MOST BEAUTIFUL"

"New York theater goers" are questioning this young lady's claim—or to be specific—Paris' judgment in regard to young women's lower extremities. Miss Mistinguett has just arrived in New York with "the most beautiful legs in Paris" insured for $100,000, it is said. This charming Parisian is conceded to be one of the most popular French stage favorites.

DEL MONTE WILL WITNESS JUVENILE GOLF CONTESTS.

DEL MONTE, Cal., Sept. 18.—The state juvenile golf tournament to be held here at Thanksgiving time, November 27, 28, 29, and 30, will be the first regular championship event for boys and girls ever held in California.

The tournament will be a meeting of youngsters under the age of 16 years who are barred by the California golf association from participating in the regular championship. The number of very young golfers has been greatly increased by the laying out of municipal courses by many cities of the state.

Beginners will be encouraged to make their entries in this event. There will be a championship fight of eight over 18 holes at handicap for the other players who qualify. Suitable trophies will be set up for both the boys and girls.

SCHOOL HELD OUT-DOORS

ROME, Sept. 18.—School children are allowed to attend school outdoors in the great public park of the Villa Borghese in summer. The teachers this summer detailed a number of the children to patrol the boundaries of the out-door school and capture stragglers.

Matured champagne goes thru about two hundred different operations, extending over two and a half years.

At the Theatres

Portraying the role of a poor lawyer who is in love with the beautiful daughter of a millionaire, but who weds an ugly widow "with a past" to win a reward of $100,000, John Barrymore, the talented Paramount star will be seen in one of the most humorous roles of his screen career in "Here Comes the Bride," which will be displayed at the Star theatre tonight.

Mr. Barrymore is one of the best known actors in the country and he is now appearing in Tolstoy's play, "Redemption" at a New York theatre with great success. Notwithstanding that most of his time is taken up with his attraction, he finds time to devote many hours to motion picture work.

As an American girl caught in Paris at the outbreak of the war, Pauline Frederick has a remarkable role in the screen adaptation of Clyde Fitch's famous play, "The Woman in the Case," which is to be presented at the Temple Theatre tonight.

This is a splendid story in which Miss Frederick portrays the role of a wife whose husband is falsely accused of murder and who, by the practice of her arts, succeeds in wresting a confession from the woman in the case of her knowledge of the suicide of a man whose murder she seeks to fasten upon another.

There are many intensely dramatic situations in the play, all of them filled with thrills and unusual appeal. Miss Frederick is capably supported by Alan Hale, Mary Chambers and Paul Gordon.

Reginald Jones probably did not know that people who want to be lucky must wear a fish around their necks. Only some such fatal omission on his part could have given the demon of bad luck the courage to pester him as it did.

The troubles which befall this victim of bad luck are shown in a George Walsh comedy, "Never Say Quit," which opens today at the Liberty Theatre. One piece of tough luck after another makes life exciting and miserable for the hero of this William Fox photoplay.

First of all, Reginald was born on Friday the thirteenth on 113th St. That was quite enough to mark him for a victim of the jinx. A rich aunt leaves him a fortune on condition that he attend her funeral. He makes a dozen efforts to get to that funeral, but the jinx always crawls between his feet. So he is robbed, or bruised, or kidnapped, and beset by a hundred mishaps which cause him to lose the fortune.

His voyage in quest of sunken treasure is not less unfortunate than his other experiences. Even marriage cannot drive the jinx away.

Big Double Show at the Liberty.
In these days of high prices everybody is looking for bargains. Manager Poole of the Liberty states that many of the good shows to come will cost so much to bring here that he will be compelled to raise the regular admission price but today he is offering a real bargain in a big double bill. George Walsh in "Never Say Quit" is one feature and Harold Lockwood in "A Man of Honor" is the second big feature, both to be shown for the regular admission price of 25 cents. In addition a big Sunshine Comedy will be given and all told it makes one of the biggest and best bills of the year.
