AIRMEN TRAINING FOR HANDLING PLANES

LONDON, Sept. 19.—In anticipation of the time when big airships will be regularly arriving in England and departing on their long overland and overseas journeys, officers and men of the Royal Air Force are being trained to the task of landing and putting them away.
It is a delicate operation berthing a 600 foot airship in a great shed without crushing the cars or ripping the envelope, and must be performed with no more apparent force than a mother might use in wrapping up her babe for the night.

FRENCH CANNOT SELL STOCK OF AIRCRAFT

PARIS, Sept. 19.—The French Army is at a loss to know what to do with its vast stock of aircraft. Auction sales of aeroplanes organized by the Government are viewed with absolute indifference by the general public. At the last sale a scout plane fitted with a 350 horsepower motor found no purchaser even at $40.

SALE FORBIDDEN IN HUN PROVINCE

Reproductions of Lusitania Medals Are Forbidden in Rhine Province —Were Issued After Sinking of Vessel in 1915

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES IN GERMANY, Sept. 19.—Sale of a reproduction of the Lusitania medal, which for a time was being peddled in the occupied areas, has been forbidden in the Rhine province by the oberpresident. Hundreds of the medals were bought by American soldiers as souvenirs. Writing to Col. I. L. Hunt, officer in charge of civil affairs in the American area, regarding the sale of the medal by Germans the oberpresident says:

"I wish to inform you that such a medal has, of course, never been coined or caused to be coined by any German government. The medal is simply the outcome of misguided thrift and greediness on the part of certain private dealers who, in a most unwarrantable manner, published this tasteless reproduction and have hawked it about, without considering for one moment, that by so doing, they stimulate the animosity against Germany."

The story generally current with the sale of this issue of the medals was that they were made in Munich by the manufacturer of the original which was issued in 1915 after the sinking of the Lusitania and from the same dies on which the original issue was cast. These dies, according to the story, were ordered destroyed by the German government after but twenty-eight medals had been struck off but were surreptitiously saved by Karl Guertz, who is reported to have been the designer. The German government has several times denied that any Lusitania medal was ever issued with consent of any governmental officials.

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST.

Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, stomach, liver and bowels the previous sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying hot water and limestone phosphate on your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv.

From Producer to Consumer

One of the chief causes for the high prices of meat today is the demand of the public for only certain cuts, particularly steaks and chops. Other cuts, such as stew meats, boiling meats, corn beef, equally nutritious, and in some cases more so, are almost a drag on the market.

A stew of veal, lamb or beef with vegetables, etc., costs you just about half the price of a T-Bone steak, and is at least as nutritious.

Let us help you cut down your living expenses.

We always have on hand a supply of fresh, juicy beef, veal and lamb.

Kindly phone your orders early—83.
