NEW LOCATION BRINGS BUSINESS

That Klamath Falls is steadily becoming a distributing point for a wide territory is shown by the first weeks business done in their new location by the Earl Shepherd Co., who sold eight instruments, one a fine Lyon & Healy piano to a prominent merchant on the Nevada State Line, another fine Crown piano for Harney County, another a Fumed Oak Concord for Crook County and the Fancy Burl Walnut Baby Petite Upright in the show window that attracted so much attention to a local young lady while several classy Phonographs were shipped forty to fifty miles and others delivered locally.

The system of private demonstration booths installed is very convenient for record buyers and is bringing many new patrons to the store. 1t

LIBERTY THEATRE

NEWPORT GREET'S TITLED BEAUTY

Lady Newborough, formerly the beautiful Grace Carr of Louisville, Ky., has just been entertained at Newport for the first time in 16 years. This recalls the romantic courtship and marriage in 1900 to William Charles Wynne, Lord Newborough of the British peerage; a marriage of love rather than dollars, for the late Lord Newborough was wealthy. Her husband held a commission in the Welsh Guards during the war and fell in action. Lady Newborough was then a volunteer in the Women's Auxiliary Corps and served until after the armistice was declared.
