

Society

Little Mary Ava DeLap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeLap, was hostess one day this week for a number of her small friends in honor of her fifth birthday.

She received many lovely gifts from the invited guests which would gladden the heart of most any small girl. The children romped and played games during the afternoon and were served with a dainty luncheon toward evening. Those present were Harriett, Robert, Louise, and Allen Hunter, Ned and Lee Valentine, Eileen Loomis, Lenora and Eileen Argraves, Lloyd Argraves, Kenneth, and Jenny Diggins, Nell Fife, Buster and Junior DeLap, Dwaine, Dorothy and Glen DeLap.

This winter promises to be a quiet one for Society as the effects of the years of war and the quiet they brought has not yet worn away. The churches are holding various social events, however for the purpose of bringing their congregations more closely together and in the hope that strangers here may get acquainted.

The young peoples class of the Christian Sunday School gave Miss Helen Wirtz a farewell party, in the nature of a surprise, Tuesday evening. The guests played games, enjoyed some music and had a general good time until refreshments were served, and farewells said.

Those who participated in the affair, were Inez Bell, Ruth Miller, Maude Miller, Jessie Calowell, Maggie Calowell, Thelma Gibson, Esther Morgan, Mildred Morgan, Clara Kirkpatrick, Anna Collins, Josephine McLain, Anna Hackland, Alice Carson, Ione Solomon, Gertrude Wirtz, Jay Loomis, Sammy Redding, Fey Bragg, Wilburn Gibson, Valerie Gibson, Forest Hughston, Earl Carson and Ray Trimble.

Thursday Master Jack Beaver, accompanied by Mrs. Nate Otterbein, Mrs. Warren Crooks, Mrs. E. E. Magee, Mrs. J. J. Parker and Mrs. Nannie Cantrall, motored to the Ward ranch, where they spent a delightful afternoon "getting back to nature," as it were.

The hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Ward served the Klamath Falls people, who were their guests for the day, with one of the most wonderful chicken dinners, with every imaginable trimming, they had the pleasure of eating for some time, the guests declared, upon their return.

Mrs. W. S. Slough had a picnic supper for her class of girls and their friends, of the Presbyterian church, on the large well kept Johnston lawn in Hot Springs, yesterday.

The affair was well attended by a company of about forty-five young men and women.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Orem was the scene Wednesday night of one of the most delightful parties of the season, when they entertained in honor of their sons, Howard, an ensign at Annapolis, and Roy, who was recently discharged from the navy.

The evening was spent in playing five hundred, honors for which were taken by Herman Foster. At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served by the hosts.

The following were present: Misses Minnie Barnum, Clara Calkins, Myler Calkins, Pearl Leavitt, Maybelle, and Mrs. Orva Earnest, Carl Newbury, Dick Slater, Herman Foster, James S. Sheehy, Howard Orem and Roy Orem.

M. O. Kebbs, of San Francisco, together with his sister, Mrs. Matson, of Portland, entertained at a duck dinner last night, and attended the theater later.

Their guests were Mrs. Estelle Carrier, Mrs. Arens, and Mrs. H. R. Reynolds.

The younger set enjoyed a social evening at the Moose Hall last night. This was the second affair of the sort to be given since the opening of High School and if plans are carried out as they stand now there will be a dance every Friday night for the high school set.

A delightful social afternoon was enjoyed yesterday by the many friends of Mrs. L. Jacobs, in whose honor Mrs. J. E. Dearing entertained, upon the eve of Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs departure for San Francisco and other southern cities.

During the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, to Mesdames J. J. Parker, E. E. Magee, Margaret Pitts, Gertrude Moore, J. P. Lee, E. B. Henry, Fred Mills, Frank Davis, Fred Cofer, A. F. Graham, Nate Otterbein, L. Jacobs and Miss Waive Jacobs.

The ladies of the Music Club are meeting today with Mrs. Fred Mills, for their regular monthly session. The afternoons of the club are spent in the study of the great composers, their masterpieces and lives.

BOYS TAKE AUTO TRIP.

Earl Humphrey and Rex La Prairie left yesterday in the latter's bug for Stockton, California, on a pleasure trip before the opening of the Oregon Agricultural college.

FIELDS OF GRAIN TO THE VERY CAR STEPS

Out along the right of way of the Grand Rapids and Indian railroad in 1916, railway officials let it be known that farmers were welcome to cultivate the idle land thereon. The upper picture shows plowing which followed and the lower picture—shows the harvest—wheat in the shock, the 1919 crop.

The Brunswick

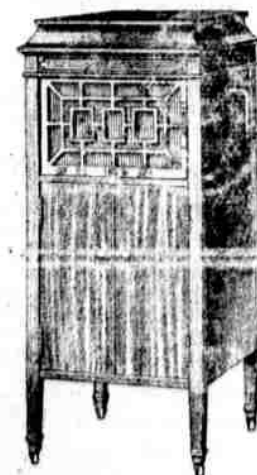

ALL PHONOGRAPHS IN ONE

WHY THE BRUNSWICK METHOD OF REPRODUCTION INSURES A SUPERIOR PHONOGRAPH

Reason No. 1—The Brunswick Method of Reproduction includes the Ultona, a new conception in playing. The Ultona consists of an arrangement of the several necessary reproducing diaphragms upon one tone arm—an all-in-one arrangement, with no attachments—nothing to take off or put on.

At a turn of the hand, the Ultona presents to any type of record the proper diaphragm and needle, the exact weight. Thus the requirements of each type of record are met. The Ultona demands no sacrifice in tone, as attachments often do.

Reason No. 2—Equal in importance to reproduction is tone amplification. The Brunswick Method of Reproduction also includes a new idea in acoustics—The Brunswick Amplifier.

Old-time ideas were at variance. Some makers still cling to metal construction. Others use a combination of wood and metal—a wooden horn and a metal casting as the throat.

But the Brunswick Amplifier is oval in shape, and built entirely of wood, like a fine violin. It is molded of rare holly-wood. The sound waves receive uniform amplification to reach their fullness, hence The Brunswick tone is richer and more natural. Strident, metallic notes are absent.

We Invite Comparison

Make comparisons. Let your ear decide. Try to find an equal to Brunswick tone.

You're bound to end such a search at a Brunswick shop, where every opportunity will be given you to decide for yourself.

Hear this remarkable instrument before you decide.
